*VISION: DISCIPLES FOR ALL SEASONSOur 1996 North Carolina Annual Conference Emphasis

"I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: preach the word, be urgent in season and out of season, convince, rebuke, and exhort, be unfailing in patience and in teaching."
2 Timothy 4:1-2

MONDAY - SUMMERAFTERNOON

VISION: DISCIPLES FOR ALL SEASONS - Disciples of Jesus Christ are called to a life of faithfulness in all seasons.

EVENING

VISION: SET APART FOR ALL SEASONS - Ordination and consecration differ from general ministry in that one is duly called, prepared, examined, ordained, consecrated and authorized to a representative ministry on behalf of the whole people of God. This opportunity in one's life is a call to minister to people in a constantly changing world.

TUESDAY - FALLAFTERNOON

VISION: SERVANTS FOR ALL SEASONS - "Think of us in this way, as servants of Christ and stewards of God's Mysteries" (1 Corinthians 4:1). Jesus reminds us continually that he came to serve and not to be served. We celebrate and share with our episcopal family their years among us as servants.

WEDNESDAY - WINTERMORNING/AFTERNOON

VISION: STEWARDS FOR ALL SEASONS - Followers of Christ make a covenant to give faithfully of time, talents, gifts and service.

EVENING

VISION: SINGING FOR ALL SEASONS - In worship we encounter the living God through the risen Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit. It is through this corporate worship that we are empowered to be the faith community in our struggling and beautiful world.

THURSDAY - SPRINGMORNING

VISION: SENT FOR ALL SEASONS - Enriched by the gathering, Christ scatters us to be his words of hope and promise to all who are in need

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

OF THE 1996 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Monday, June 10, 1996

Executive Session for All Clergy in Full Connection: Bishop Minnick called the executive session to order at 10:30 am, opening with the hymn "And Are We Yet Alive." He led the clergy in reading Psalm 121 responsively and in the prayer of Ignatius Loyola. After welcoming the members of the executive session, Bishop Minnick called for passing the character of the clergy in accordance with ¶1705.6 of the Book of Discipline. Bishop Minnick reminded the Executive Session that all clergy are in a covenant relationship that provides mutual support and comfort to each other in good times and in bad, stating that we enjoy both a covenant of accountability and a covenant of joy. The Bishop explained that the passing of the character of clergy refers not to whether or not the clergy are entirely blameless but regards any unresolved charges. He invited all clergy to find someone near them, join hands with that one person, and share in prayer, each with the other. The Doxology was then sung.

Bishop Minnick reported that the district superintendents are blameless in character and in administration of their office.

The Bishop called for the district superintendents to report on the character of the clergy. In the Raleigh District there was one report of charges having been made which was dealt with in accordance with the Book of Discipline. Information about this may be found in the minutes of the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Sanford District Superintendent reported one complaint in process in accordance with the Book of Discipline. This may also be found in the minutes of the Board of Ordained Ministry. In the event that further action is necessary, the Executive Session will be notified.

With the exception of the one pending complaint, the Executive Session passed the character of the clergy in all districts.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Bishop Minnick asked the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry to stand and be recognized.

Bishop Minnick called on Reverend William W. Sherman, Jr., chairperson of the Board, to present the report. Reverend Sherman stated that the Joint Review Committee had been eliminated by action of General Conference. Henceforth, the Board of Ordained Ministry will deal with issues pertaining to administrative charges. The Committee of Investigation will deal with matters pertaining to character. Sherman moved the election of the Administrative Review Committee. These were elected.

Sherman made several corrections to the printed report. He directed the clergy's attention to the disciplinary questions which were approved by a show of hands. Sherman asked for passing of Question 26.b dealing with affiliate members. This required a 2/3 majority vote. Bishop Minnick asked for those listed to stand and be recognized. They were approved by more than the required 2/3 vote.

Sherman read Question 28, dealing with probationary membership. Bishop Minnick asked the candidates to stand before the Conference as their names were read. The probationary members were approved unanimously and greeted with applause.

Regarding Questions 27 and 31, the Bishop asked those who were to be elected as associate members and members in full connection to come forward and stand before the Annual Conference. Bishop Minnick asked the historic questions to candidates for associate membership and membership in full connection with the Annual Conference. Each of the candidates responded with appropriate answers. The Bishop called for the election of the associate members and they were unanimously elected.

Bishop Minnick called for the election of those listed for full membership in the Conference and they were elected. All were welcomed with applause by the Executive Session of Annual Conference.

Reverend William R. Rudd, Clinton Circuit, asked a question regarding his transfer from the Kentucky Conference. This was referred to the board. Regarding Question 47, deceased clergy and spouses, the Executive Session rose and observed a moment of silence in recognition of those who had died.

Reverend Sam Loy reported on Question 53, regarding disabled clergy. Those listed in Question 53.a were presented for disability leave. Some of those listed needed to complete all of the necessary administrative tasks to fulfill the requirements of the Board of Pensions. Bishop Minnick called for a vote and they were approved.

Question 54, concerning what members in full connections have been retired, the Bishop asked those retiring to stand and receive the applause of the Executive Session. Their retirement was approved. Regarding Questions 55 and 57.a, the retirement of associate members and local pastors, those listed were approved. Bishop Minnick recognized those who serve in appointments beyond the local church within the United Methodist system and otherwise. These were recognized and applauded by the Executive Session.

Sherman moved the approval of the report as a whole. Reverend Ruth Harper, the Wilmington District Superintendent, requested that those associate members who are retiring also be allowed to stand and be recognized, and they were. The Executive Session was asked to stand to indicate its approval of the report of the Board.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick recognized the work of Dr. Belton Joyner as the conference staff representative to the Board of Ordained Ministry. The Bishop led the Executive Session in the Wesley Covenant Prayer, after which the Executive Session was adjourned.

ORIENTATION FOR LAY MEMBERS

OF THE 1996 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Monday, June 10, 1996

Greetings and Introductions: Ms. Gwen Henderson, Conference lay leader, greeted the assembled laity at 10:30 am in the March F. Riddle Center at Methodist College in Fayetteville, and told them of a change in format for this orientation. She called it "A Time of Celebration" tied together by inspirational and celebrative music. It began with an opening song fest led by Mr. Harold Jacobs, diaconal minister, and Ms. Elizabeth Moore, accompanist.

The laity was then treated with a presentation by the Celebration Singers (Youth Group) from First UMC of Griffin, GA, under the direction of Mr. Allen Benson. The group consisted of 40 young people who were on tour. Their splendid performance was interspersed with laity reports and announcements.

Orientation: During this time of celebration the 12 district lay persons of the year were presented by the district lay leaders or district representatives. Mr. Cashar W. Evans, Jr., chairperson of the General Conference and SEJ Conference delegations, brought brief remarks and indicated his complete report would be given during the plenary session. Mr. Will C. Simpson III, UMY president, Mrs. Jeanne Rouse, UMW president, Mr. Samuel C. Hodges, Jr., UMM president, and Ms. Denise C. Waters, Board of Diaconal Ministry chairperson, were introduced and brought brief remarks. "First Timers" at Annual Conference were recognized and former Conference lay leaders also were recognized.

Appreciation: Henderson spoke of her appreciation for the last four years as Conference lay leader, and of those who had supported her and assisted her on behalf of God's purpose for our Conference and The United Methodist Church.

Adjournment: Henderson called for questions and announcements. Following several comments from the assembly, she adjourned the meeting.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Monday, June 10, 1996

Opening Communion Service: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., celebrant, and Bishop Paul A. Duffey, preacher, led the congregation in singing at 1:25 pm, followed by Holy Communion for all Annual Conference members and visitors.

Plenary Session: Bishop Minnick called the Conference to order at 3:04 pm for the opening session of Annual Conference following the communion service.

Organization of the Conference: Reverend James H. Coile, Conference Secretary, made the following motions: "I move that the Bar of the Conference be the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium... I move that the records of the registrars at the registration tables be the official roll of the Conference... I move that the program in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996, be the official program and agenda of the Conference, with the understanding that the agenda may be amended from time to time by the presiding Bishop as necessity and expediency may require... I move that persons appearing on the agenda who are not members of the Conference be granted the privilege of the floor... I move that the Staff Members and Committee Members which are listed on pages 7 and 8 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996, be elected." All motions passed.

Report of Committee on Conference Rules: Reverend Charles Cook, chairperson, presented the conference rules from the Committee. They were approved without changes.

Report of Board of Ordained Ministry: Reverend William W. Sherman, Jr., reported for the Board of Ordained Ministry. Sherman spoke of the need for persons to answer the call to ministry. Sherman presented two candidates for probationary membership who were not present during the morning Executive Session. Thomas Willard Newman and Peter George Singletary were invited to come forward. The Bishop called for a vote by only clergy members in full connection. The candidates were elected.

Sherman presented persons who were transferring into this Conference from other conferences. He advised the Conference that the recent changes to the ordination process enacted by the General Conference would be reviewed by this Conference to see how they can best be implemented.

Report of Board of Diaconal Ministry: Ms. Denise Waters presented the report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry. She spoke of the diaconal ministers who are transferring into this Conference and introduced three candidates for consecration as diaconal ministers during the evening service. The three candidates were Alice Kirkman Kunka, Kimberly Strong Lamb, and Anna Gail Dixon Workman. They were approved.

Waters described the changes in consecration of diaconal ministers. She stated that the Board would be revising its approach in accordance with the legislation of General Conference. Waters described the work of diaconal ministers as always oriented toward the ministry itself rather than on the interpretation of the status of the diaconal minister.

She referred to Question 61 on page 40 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996 and made revisions in both Questions 61 and 65. She moved the adoption of the report as corrected and it was approved.

Waters expressed her personal thanks to Bishop Minnick for his leadership and support. She then presented the Bishop with a humorous plaque of a zebra losing its stripes with the caption: "I think it's stress."

Report of Committee on Nominations: Dr. Robert L. Baldrige presented the Conference Committee on Nominations Report. Baldrige explained that the General Conference mandated changes to the Charter of the NC Conference Council on Ministries. The Committee on Communications has been changed to a Commission. Baldrige explained the restructuring of the Conference Council on Ministries. He presented a recommendation concerning a long range planning committee which would come before the Conference for vote on Tuesday. Baldrige made editorial revisions to the Book of Nominations. He referred to pages 30 and following in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996, regarding the Conference Council on Ministries' calendar.

Baldrige described some of the features that would be before the Annual Conference Tuesday. He referred to pages 35-39 for editorial changes in the Nominations Report. He then referred to pages 106-107 regarding the recommendations for Campus Ministries. These recommendations which are also before the Western NC Conference for vote, are intended to provide more flexibility.

Baldrige referred to the section on District Officers and Committees in the Book of Handouts. He recommended editorial changes, as well as changes to Question 16, concerning changes in district and charge lines.

Election of Conference Officers: On behalf of the Commission on Laity and the Conference Committee on Nominations, Baldrige nominated Mr. Robby Lowry for Conference Lay Leader and commended his service as a Rockingham District lay leader and active lay person in his local church. He was elected unanimously.

Reverend Bill Cottingham from Elon College: First UMC nominated Reverend James H. Coile for Conference Secretary. The nomination was seconded and he was elected unanimously.

For Conference Statistician, Reverend Ruth Harper, the Wilmington District Superintendent, placed in nomination the name of Reverend George Speake. The nomination was seconded and he was elected unanimously.

Dr. Bill Simpson placed in nomination the name of Dr. J. Allen Norris, Jr., for Conference Treasurer/Business Administrator. The nomination was seconded and he was elected unanimously.

Report on General Conference: Mr. Cashar W. Evans, Jr., presented the members to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences and commended them for their fine work. Evans gave specific instances where members of our delegation were serving as chairs of committees or elected to serve on commissions implementing changes that will be taking place throughout the denomination. Evans described some of the changes that took place and their implications for church administration and polity. He reiterated the call from General Conference to the laity of the church to become more actively involved in the outreach of the church. He re-emphasized that the mission of the local church is to make disciples for Jesus Christ. Evans noted the need for outreach ministries and evangelism, both within the bounds of our Conference and in the wider mission of the church throughout the world.

Endorsement of Episcopal Candidate: Evans commended Reverend Kermit Braswell for his work in the Conference both as a pastor and in church administration for the Conference. Evans recommended Braswell to the Conference for nomination as our candidate for episcopal office at Jurisdictional Conference. Bishop Minnick asked the Conference if they would stand to endorse him. Upon receiving the endorsement of the Conference Reverend Braswell and his wife, Alice, came to the platform of the Conference where they were warmly greeted.

Report of Committee on the Episcopacy: Cashar Evans presented the report of the Committee on the Episcopacy. Evans reflected on the ministry of Bishop C. P. Minnick who will be retiring this September. Evans described the accomplishments of the Conference under the 12 years of supervision by Bishop Minnick. Evans quoted from two letters by Frances Asbury written from Fayetteville, NC. He noted the similarities between the successes and frustrations of the church in Asbury's time and our own. Evans compared Bishop Minnick in many respects to Bishop Asbury and commended him for his integrity and spirituality in all matters pertaining to his administration and leadership. Evans invited the Annual Conference to stand and join in prayer for Bishop Minnick and his wife, Mary Ann.

Report of Conference Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Minnick called upon Dr. William C. Simpson, Jr. and Dr. J. Allen Norris, Jr., to present the report from the Council on Finance and Administration. Simpson reported on the budget of the Annual Conference reflecting on its importance and how it defines the ministry of our Conference. The report begins on page 56 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996 and the Book of Handouts on pages 15-16.

Simpson stated that the budget proposed in the Book of Handouts is the one to be considered. The amendment to the budget found in the Book of Handouts is due to an action by the General Conference adding a new line for Mission Initiative/Focus 2000. The line amount is $26,551. He pointed out that on line VII the totals have changed.

Simpson described once again the method that is used for determining the Conference Budget and stated that we will be voting on the budget on Wednesday. Simpson explained that we are voting on a budget which will take effect one and one-half years from now. He indicated that the rate of increase for the budget on which we will vote is 3.4%. He reminded the Conference that the Annual Conference actually controls only 56% of its own budget. The rest of the budget is controlled by such agencies as the Board of Pensions and other commitments our Conference has to the General Church. He noted that two key committees on finances and legislation at General Conference were chaired by delegates from our Conference. Simpson spoke to the issue of meeting our unfunded liability for pensions. Since not all Conference churches are paying their apportionments, the time it will take to retire the unfunded liability will extend and the percentage of the unfunded liability that will come out of the overall Conference budget will increase.

Simpson referred to the increase in the salaries for superintendents. This will be 1/2 of the rate of increase for minimum salary increases, or approximately 1.3%. He referred to the various sections of the financial policy recommendations in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996.

Simpson presented personal remarks exhorting the Conference to renew the commitment to the connectional system and to meet our apportionments as a priority of the church. He spoke to the increased liabilities that we incur as a Conference as a result of churches not meeting their apportionment commitments, and how this impacts not only the ministry of the church but also the burden that falls to others within the Conference, especially to generations that follow.

Simpson moved the approval of sections 3, 4, and 5 of the report. The motion was tabled pending the completion of the order of the day.

Lay Person of the Year Award: Ms. Gwen Henderson presented the Lay Persons of the Year from the various districts of the Conference: Mr. Wes Scarlett from Hillsborough UMC in the Burlington District; Mr. William M. DeLuck from Mt. Sylvan UMC in the Durham District; Mr. Jesse Basnight from Mt. Carmel UMC in the Elizabeth City District; Mrs. Bonnie Lee Kifer Jones from Camp Ground UMC in the Fayetteville District; Mr. Jimmie Lee Edmundson from St. Luke UMC in the Goldsboro District; Mr. Steve Bryan from Providence UMC in the Greenville District; Mr. Perritt "Frank" Cox from St. Peter's UMC in the New Bern District; Mr. Pat Ford from the North Raleigh UMC in the Raleigh District; Ms. Christine Gibson from St. John UMC in the Rockingham District; Mr. Fred Morton Hight III from Winstead UMC in the Rocky Mount District; Mrs. Donna Aikens from Jonesboro UMC in the Sanford District; and Mr. Howard M. "Buck" Norton III from Pine Valley UMC in the Wilmington District. The nominees stood and were recognized with applause from the Conference. Henderson expressed her appreciation for their work and ministry.

After describing his extensive accomplishments, the nominee for the Conference Lay Person of the Year, Mr. Percy "Pat" Ford of North Raleigh UMC was brought forward to receive the accolade of the Annual Conference and the award of Lay Person of the Year. Henderson presented the award to Mr. Ford, whose family, pastor and district superintendent were present to join in the celebration.

Mr. Ford expressed his appreciation for the award and for the support of the leadership of our Conference in working with him extensively in prison ministries. Mr. Ford called upon the Conference to recognize those less fortunate, now incarcerated, and to offer our help and assistance to them in rehabilitating their lives.

Continuation of Report of Conference Council on Finance and Administration: Bishop Minnick returned to the report of the Committee on Finance and Administration and to Dr. Simpson for its presentation. Simpson moved the adoption of sections 3, 4, and 5 of the report.

Reverend J. Quinton Covington, Central Charge, Rockingham District, moved to add at the end of line 6, section 3, page 63, the words, "funds raised and paid by the United Methodist Men for local and conference benevolences; and the program expenses of the local church." Simpson was recognized to speak against the motion. He pointed out that the benevolence spending of the UMM is not included in the base for computation of apportionments now. (The perception of the person making the motion was that in order for the exclusion to be effective, the Methodist Men's organization had to be chartered.) Simpson also spoke against the program section of the amendment stating that it would radically revise the formula of apportionments for local churches. The Bishop called for anyone who would speak for the motion. As none came forward, the Bishop called for a vote on the Covington amendment. The motion failed.

Reverend George Megill attempted to make a motion dealing with clergy minimum salary. Since the amendment had to do with minimum salary calculation, Bishop Minnick referred the matter to the time when the report on Equitable Compensation is made.

Simpson again called for a vote on sections 3, 4, and 5 of the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration, and the report was approved.

Report of Commission on Laity: Bishop Minnick called on Ms. Gwen Henderson and the Commission on Laity for their report. She invited the Conference laity officers to speak.

Mrs. Jeanne Rouse, United Methodist Women president, reviewed the calendar of events involving laity, including study groups and activities. She described the results of a survey regarding the structure of the UMW and some of the changes as a result of that survey.

Mr. William C. Simpson III, president, presented the report for the United Methodist Youth of the Conference. Simpson shared his experiences as a part of the UMY and his participation in Conference youth events. He described the impact of participation in youth events in his life and how they represent turning points and influence it had on bringing him to Jesus Christ. He related how his experiences are shared by many youth, and the importance of supporting youth activities.

Mr. Samuel C. Hodges, Jr., United Methodist Men president, described the foundations of the UMM and its focus on outreach and ministry. He described the goals of UMM for the coming year: to increase the charter groups; to increase the extra mile membership; and to increase our support for Meals for Millions, especially through the Society of St. Andrew.

Hodges invited all UMM to join him at the UMM special meal on Tuesday. Hodges related that the UMM used to be under the General Board of Discipleship but is now an independent commission. Hodges described that this new found independence will improve the ability of the UMM to continue in ministry and mission. Hodges recommended that any unchartered United Methodist Men's organization should apply for a charter as an expression of our connectional ministry. Hodges described the extra mile membership of an additional $15 per year, which goes to support the national program. Hodges invited all the men to attend the annual meeting in Goldsboro. He invited Rouse to join him on the stand for a special presentation. They described a joint session that will take place on November 16, 1996. A brochure will be available in July.

Henderson, reporting for the Commission on Laity, referred to the Report of the Laity in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996 for review and adoption. The report was approved.

Announcements: James Coile presented several announcements prior to adjournment.

Adjournment: Coile pronounced the benediction, and the plenary session was dismissed.

FIRST DAY, EVENING WORSHIP SESSION, Monday, June 10, 1996

The Service of Worship for Consecration and Ordination: The principal liturgist was Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., and the guest preacher was Bishop Roy C. Clark. Special music was presented by the Chancel Choirs of Centenary UMC, New Bern, and Saint Mark's UMC, Raleigh. Mrs. Denise Conner Waters presented the diaconal ministers for consecration, and Reverend William W. Sherman, Jr., presented the deacons and elders for ordination. (For synopsis of the entire service see worship bulletin, A Service of Worship for Consecration and Ordination, Monday, June 10, 1996.)

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION, Tuesday, June 11, 1996

Bible Study: At 8:30 am, Bishop Minnick led the Conference through a Bible study.

Plenary Session: Bishop Minnick called the session to order at 9:26 am following his morning Bible study. Reverend Jim Coile, Conference Secretary, made announcements.

Reverend Sam Brown offered a resolution to be voted on Wednesday. The resolution entitled "Misplaced Congressional Priorities" pertained to the reduction of government aid to children while aid to big industry remains high.

Bishop Minnick then led the Conference in prayer. The Conference members were directed to pray with their prayer partners. The Bishop closed the prayer by directing the Conference to sing "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

Report of the Conference Council on Ministries: Bishop Minnick called Dr. Robert Baldrige to deliver the report. Baldrige began by reading the mission of the local church paragraph, as approved by General Conference and to be included in the 1996 Book of Discipline. After stating that the work of the Council is to equip local churches to carry out this mission, he listed many achievements to be celebrated since the last session of Annual Conference, e.g. increases in church membership, worship and Sunday school attendance, mission to Armenia, the starting of four new and thriving churches.

Baldrige asked Reverend Laura Early of the Elizabeth City District to make comments about Christian education in the Conference. Early outlined many of the specific programs she has been implementing in her district. She also described ground breaking work in constructing a racially inclusive church in Bertie County. She has been a part of that work by organizing and preaching.

Baldrige directed the Conference's attention both to the Nominations' Book and to page 27 of The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996. A revision of the Charter of the Council on Ministries has changed the Committee on Communications to the Commission on Communications. This brings the charter in line with General Conference rules and changes made in 1996. This vote also included changes that were made on Monday.

The Bishop called for the vote and it was approved.

Baldrige referred to the recommendation in the Book of Nominations concerning a long range planning committee. The members approved the recommendation. Baldrige corrected the name of the committee on page 5 in the Nominations Book to Committee on Ethnic Local Church Concerns by deleting the word "Minority."

Rev. Albert Shuler nominated Reverend Shane Benjamin to serve on the committee. Baldrige then offered the nominations as they were corrected for approval by the Conference.

The Bishop recognized Reverend Claire Clyburn to make a substitute nomination. She referred to the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns on page 2, nominating Catherine Johnson to replace Mary Marti Hatch. Reverend Hope Ward substituted Pat Lykins for Sandra Lee under the 12 members-at-large section on the Commission on Mission and Outreach. The Bishop called for a vote on these substitutions. They were approved.

Reverend Albert Shuler asked to make changes on page 2 of the Book of Handouts. Bishop Minnick delayed that change until later. The Bishop called for a vote on the nominations. The Conference elected those nominated for boards, commissions, committees, and councils for 1997-2000 quadrennium.

Baldrige referred to nominations for district committees and officers. Reverend Albert Shuler was recognized for a substitution on page 2, in reference to the Durham District. Under the Board of Church Location and Building, David Woodhouse was offered in place of Mark Lykins. Reverend Jim Lee was recognized and he referred to page 3, removing one name in his district. He then substituted Mokie Stancil for Rex Markham under the Board of Trustees, Goldsboro District. Baldrige offered the amended District Committees and District Officers for election. They were elected.

Baldrige presented the Program Calendar and Advance Specials. The Bishop asked for questions, then called for the vote and they were approved.

Baldrige referred the Conference to the Trustee Nominations for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. The Bishop called for the vote and they were elected. Baldrige referred to the revisions in the Campus Ministry Handbook which were discussed on Monday and presented them for vote. The changes were approved.

Report of Commission on Health and Human Services: Reverend Roger Cope spoke on behalf of the Commission on Health and Human Services. He introduced Bob and Jennifer Kinzer, the executive directors of the Asbury Homes. Cope then introduced a video that highlighted the features of the United Methodist Homes, Inc. The focus of the video was the Eagle Program, a quality assurance program for health care facilities. Dr. Reginald Ponder presented a plaque to the Bishop, and one to Roger Cope, which recognized the achievement of excellence in health care facilities under the Eagle Program.

Dr. Baldrige commented on the amount of giving toward the Conference apportionments and how a lower level of giving decreases the ability of the Conference to provide for programs. Baldrige closed the report of the Conference Council on Ministries, departing with applause of appreciation.

Report of Task Force on Past Service Pension Liability: Reverend Edward F. Hill II encouraged the members to read carefully the report found in the Book of Handouts in order to understand the financial situation of the unfunded pension claims. Hill stated that the committee is still looking at alternate payment options to alleviate this unfunded liability. The Task Force did not make a specific recommendation but made a motion to continue the Task Force for another year. Discussion and questions followed.

The Bishop asked the Conference to vote on continuing the Task Force for another year. The continuation was approved.

Resolution on Planning/Location of Future Conference-wide Events: Reverend Clyde Denny from Windsor presented a resolution concerning the importance of having Conference meetings located closer to the Elizabeth City area. His resolution was approved.

Stage Setting: Bishop Minnick asked for someone from the Annual Conference Planning Committee to come forward and explain the symbolism of the stage backdrop of Reeves Auditorium. Reverend Chuck Cook, chairperson of the Commission on Worship, commented about the painting created for Annual Conference. The Bonsai tree motif depicts summer, fall, winter, and spring. Oda Lewis, the artist, is from Wilson.

Announcements: The Conference Secretary made announcements before a brief recess. The Conference was dismissed at 10:45 am to prepare for the order of the day at 11:00 am, the Memorial Service.

All Saints Celebration - Memorial Service: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., presided and Dr. John K. Bergland, preached. Special music was rendered by a Bell Choir, and at the toll of a bell, family and friends of the deceased lighted candles for each person who had died. (For synopsis of entire service, see worship bulletin, The Memorial Service.)

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Tuesday, June 11, 1996

The Tuesday afternoon session of the North Carolina Annual Conference began at 1:25 pm with an opening hymn and prayer.

NC Conference Partners in Caring: The Partners in Caring, chaired by the Rev. Jerry T. Smith, held their annual business session. The hymn, "Leaning On the Everlasting Arms," was sung as the opening hymn. Reverend Smith called the meeting to order. The prayer included the remembrance of those who had passed away in the last year.

Reverend Henry Lovelace, secretary/treasurer, was asked to give the report. Bishop Minnick suggested that the reports be kept to a minimum due to the malfunction of the building's cooling system. Lovelace presented the report and moved four items of change: 1) Student pastors are now allowed to be members of the Partners in Caring, their call to be only $7. 2) Raise the retired members call to $7. 3) Drop the initiation fee. 4) Secretarial fee raised to $200 per call.

Smith presented each change for vote and they were approved.

He recognized the trustees and called for the report of the Nominating Committee. The current officers were renominated and approved.

The meeting of the Partners in Caring was adjourned.

Plenary Session: Bishop Minnick opened the afternoon session with comments about the return of the retirees. He began with prayer and directed the members to find prayer partners and pray for a short time for the retirees and the Conference as it continues its work.

Report of Task Force on Ministries to Women in Crisis Pregnancies and their Unborn Children: Dr. Jimmie B. Shuler gave the report on the Task Force. She spoke of alternatives in ministries for women with crisis pregnancies and unborn children, and introduced members of the committee. The Task Force recommendations were presented for adoption by the Conference. Items in this report were presented as recommendations for consideration.

Wells referred to Report D, the Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution. He made reference to the deadline mentioned in the document. Deadlines have an important effect on a year's profit. Jim Coile asked about the difference between the report as printed in the Book of Handouts and the report found in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1996. The report in the Book of Handouts is the report to be approved. The handout describes the transition fund in terms that are consistent with IRS requirements. He moved the adoption of section I.A.1, page 70.

Reverend George Megill was recognized and moved to substitute $27,499 in order to raise the minimum salaries for pastors under full-time appointment. This would make the raise for a full-time pastor the same dollar amount as the raise for district superintendents. There was a second. Reverend Charles Myers spoke to his concern of the pressure these increases will add to small church budgets and against the Megill motion. The Bishop asked if anyone would speak for the motion. Bergland asked for a final word before the vote. Dr. Bill Simpson responded from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. He noted that the Conference budget would not be affected very much by salary changes in the Megill motion. The Bishop called for the vote and the Megill motion failed.

Item I.A.1 was presented. Reverend Susan Pate-Greenwood spoke of her concern that the linkage of the minimum salary to the district superintendents' salary would cause animosity within the Conference. She suggested the Commission on Equitable Compensation look at other ways to set minimum salary without reference to the district superintendent salaries. Item I.A.1 was presented for a vote and it passed.

Section I.A.2 was brought by Bergland for consideration by the Conference. The Bishop called for the body to vote and the section was approved. In so doing, we will faithfully and regularly submit our own tithes and offerings through our local churches to help care for some of these needs and we will exhort all members of our churches to do the same." He asked if another office would be established and maintained to administer the concerns of the ELCC Committee. The answer to his final question was no, a new office will not be established with new staff. The Bishop also stated, in addition, that he did not want to see the fear of having a new agency prevent progress in this area of ministry and mission. Covington concluded his statement.

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

Since Annual Conference of 1995, the Committee on Conference Staff Relations has met twice, once in the Fall of 1995 to present salary recommendations for the CCOM Staff to the CCOM Budget Committee and again in early Winter of 1996 to make nominations for Program Staff positions to the CCOM for another year.

Since the Reverend Sam Dixon, Jr., Associate Director for Missions, Evangelism, and VISION 2000, has been on the CCOM Staff for the past six years, he is not eligible for reappointment to that position. We take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation to Sam for his dedication to this ministry of the NC Conference for these past six years and wish for him a very successful and exciting ministry in his new appointment.

Because of the vacancy on the CCOM Staff, our Committee has been through the process of advertising the position, receiving applications, reviewing the applications, and meeting again early this Spring to interview applicants and make recommendations to the Bishop and Cabinet for the vacant position.

After Annual Conference of 1995, two new District Superintendents were appointed to the Committee. We welcomed the Reverend Jim Lee from the Goldsboro District and the Reverend Albert Shuler from the Durham District. The Reverend Kermit Braswell left our Committee when he was appointed Raleigh District Superintendent.

Again this year, the Committee and all Conference related personnel in the Methodist Building gathered for a luncheon. This was a time of fun, fellowship and a means of establishing community with everyone who works together for the Annual Conference.

I take this opportunity to thank the members of the Committee for their participation and faithful attendance.

Jane H. Johnson, Chairperson

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Board of Diaconal Ministry met shortly before the deadline for this written report, and had a devotional entitled "Live the Questions" based on an article by Sue Monk Kidd. It seemed appropriate to the situation, as all of Methodism awaits the vote on the Ministry Study Committee's recommendation for the ordering of ministry. Living with questions can be difficult, for we like things fixed, figured out, and nailed down. Jesus was a master at using questions to pull people into self-confrontation and growth. There's an art to living questions. You peel them, you listen to them, you let them spawn new questions. You linger with questions instead of rushing into half-baked answers. There are some things we must simply wait to receive. Like the tree, we wait for the sap to rise.

As a Board, and as Diaconal Ministers serving across the NC Conference, we await the answers regarding the future. Whatever the vote at General Conference, we are certain that ministry will be a part of the future, whether it is as lay persons, diaconal ministers, deacons, or elders! The options of ministry may change, but the God we serve, and the hurting world will be everpresent.

This year we are pleased to present to the NC Conference Alice Kirkman Kunka, Kimberly Strong Lamb, and Anna Gail Dixon Workman for consecration as diaconal ministers. They have completed the candidacy process, have been examined by the Board of Diaconal Ministry, and have been found to be spiritually grounded, psychologically fit, and academically prepared for diaconal ministry.

As a Board, we continue to recruit, nurture, and support persons who have expressed a calling to a representative ministry. The Board also maintains an active relationship with certified lay professionals as well as diaconal ministers within our Conference through the annual process of renewal of certification and request for continuation in the office of diaconal minister.

Equitable salaries for diaconal ministry always concerns our board, and we continue to be available to churches to make recommendations for both certified professionals and diaconal ministers (who must negotiate a compensation package and contract with their place of employment). The NC Board of Diaconal Ministry suggests and recommends that churches begin compensation for diaconals at the minimum equitable salary compensation level for ordained ministers which is $27,262.00 for 1997. It also is recommended that a written contract be provided at the beginning of employment. Additional suggested benefits to be negotiated are: 1) housing, 2) health and hospitalization, 3) life insurance, 4) pension, 5) continuing education, and 6) travel.

The employing agency in which a full time diaconal minister is serving shall provide (paragraph 315.1: 1,2,3, The Book of Discipline, 1992): 1) Adequate salaries plus pension benefits, with an opportunity to participate in the UM pension and benefit funds, health care insurance, and continuing education. It is expected that these will be guided by the Annual Conference standards for ordained elders. 2) Social security benefits as required by Federal regulation. 3) The local UM church which employs a full-time diaconal minister shall provide the above mentioned benefits in entirety as part of the compensatory consideration.

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1996 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits prior to the submission of the application.

2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the validity of the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. All materials will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan shall be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance shall be paid also by the Joint Committee on Disability.
5. Those pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,000 be made at the beginning of Disability Leave (effective July 1, 1993). This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline gives the Commission on Equitable Compensation this mandate... "to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference ..." (§1722.2) There are three broad areas of responsibility outlined in §1722.2. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory relations to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations."

The purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to seek fairness both for pastors and for churches. Fairness is a complex matter which involves the values of each ordained clergy person and the lay persons who constitute the membership of each local church. The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral base compensation remains with individual pastoral charges." (§1722.4 and §248.13).

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has spent considerable time in examining the situation of our clergy and local churches in light of the mandates of the Book of Discipline. We have also considered with much prayer and thought these historical and theological foundations for our work:

1. Jesus says, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us "you shall not muzzle the ox when it is treading out the grain," (1 Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 25:4).
2. Wesley was concerned that clergy have a responsibility not to be "in debt so as to embarrass you in your work" (§1425).
3. The great commission to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the great commission bear its promised fruit.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the great commandment to love our neighbors as we love ourselves by wanting for each pastor what our members want for themselves - compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our praying, thinking, and working together as laity and clergy from across this Conference, we make the following recommendations whose implementation, we believe, will help us move toward fairness for both churches and pastors as we support ordained ministry in the charges of the NC Annual Conference.

1. Recommended Schedule of Base Compensation for 1997.

A. Salary Schedule

1. We recommend that the minimum base compensation for those serving full-time in 1997 be as indicated below and that 65% of this amount be set for student minimum base compensation.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT (Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)	1996	1997
Salary	$24,474	$25,262
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$26,474	$27,262
STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$15,208	$15,720
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$17,208	$17,720

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum base compensation levels be adjusted by 3.22% (double the recommended percentage salary change for district superintendents in the 1996 CFA report.)

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. We encourage each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable salary compensation support shall not be effected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash salary (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash salary designated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash salary plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

- A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.
- B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation Funds to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
 - D. The Commission on Equitable Compensation further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.

- E. Grants from the Commission on Equitable Compensation for Housing were discontinued by the following method:

Date	Reduction
01/01/93	25%
01/01/94	25%
01/01/96	25%

- F. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.
- G. Equitable Compensation Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- H. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection. Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Equitable Compensation Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- I. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference. The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black Colleges
 - African University Fund
 - SEJ Missional Growth Fund
2. Formula: The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Administration, Episcopal Fund, and all other apportionments; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop.

3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE A
C	$4A \div 4$	No Cap
D	$3A + B \div 4$	No Cap
E	$2A + B + C \div 4$	No Cap
F	$A + B + C + D \div 4^*$	No Cap
G	$B + C + D + E \div 4$	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Subject to action of the SEJ Conference, the SEJ Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1997-2000 inclusive. This is based upon

- the membership at the close of the calendar year 1995 as reported in the 1996 Journal.
5. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
 6. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 19, 1996.
- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.
 - C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the CFA for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.
 - D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.
 - E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, African University, Interdenominational Cooperation, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, College Debt Retirement, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, SEJ Missional Growth Fund, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.
 - F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church. Investments are with the United Methodist Foundation, area banks, and with specific minority financial institutions within the bounds of the NC Conference. The Conference is also a member of Project Equality.
 - G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1996 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1997.
 - H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 709.5.b.
 - I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 710.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.
 - J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The CFA continues to recommend that a moratorium on Conference capital campaigns be followed and 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the on-going priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
- C. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the CFA.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.
- H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- I. Golden Cross Sunday observance for optional offering.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

Although CFA continues to recommend that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference, the Cabinet has renewed its request that for 1997 salary increases for district superintendents be one-half the percentage increase in minimum salary as set by Annual Conference. With the report from the Commission on Equitable Compensation recommending that increase to be based on the CPI-South (NC specific) - 3.22% for 1995, the 1997 salary for district superintendents would increase by 1.61% ($1,025), to $64,659.00.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

- A. The CFA uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.

- F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
- G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Compensation Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year (i.e. Office of Planned Giving, Vision 2000, etc.)
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.
- Funds appropriated to the Task Force on Hunger and Human Need to assist various ministries across the Annual Conference.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
 2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee which will make a recommendation to the full Council.
 3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.
- l. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.

- J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.
- L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain reserve funds equal to 10% of the conference operating budget. Both cash reserves, realized, and unrealized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Funds in excess of cash requirements shall be invested in the United Methodist Foundation in proportion to the percent of reserves on hand.
- M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:

For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.

The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies.
- B. Policy and Rules
1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
 2. Effective January 1, 1997, two options in health insurance coverage will be offered to eligible participants. The current coverage will continue to be offered as the Preferred Provider Organization (PPO). The new option will be offered as the Preferred Provider Select CoPay (PPO Select CoPay). Details may be obtained from the Treasurer's Office.
 3. Effective January 1, 1995, eligible clergy received disability coverage through the Basic Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. This benefit will equal 20% of the DAC. This benefit will be in addition to the 40% of the DAC now covered under CPP.
 4. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 1-800-672-7897. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield within 48 hours following an emergency admission. Details are printed in your benefit book available from the Treasurer's Office.
 5. Benefits will be reduced, and/or denied if pre-certification is not obtained.
 6. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant must be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B to be eligible for the Medicare Supplement.
 7. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer's Office.
 8. A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for participants making late payments.
 9. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Clergy personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
 10. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
 11. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.

12. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
13. Laypersons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
14. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
15. Clergy or laypersons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, will be added as late applicants upon completion of a new enrollment form. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is permitted at anytime during enrollment. A one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required for late applicants.
16. At the time of retirement, clergy become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC.
17. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.
18. Effective February 1, 1996, participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month following your first day of work.

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.

3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, the two-year rule and a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) Clergy shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
 2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.
 3. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible.
 4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.

The Insurance Committee is grateful to the members of the Annual Conference for the support it receives as the Committee strives to provide the best possible health and life insurance benefits.

- A. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 - 1. Active ministers in section I.A., I.B., I.F., I.G. and I.H. (except retiring ministers, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,200.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 - 2. Retiring ministers, widows, or widowers will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,900.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.

Clergy couples will receive $1.00 per mile as defined above.
 - C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible ministers as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee, the superintendent may request the Arbitration Committee of the Clergy Living Committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.
 - D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible ministers to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendent. Those receiving an advance must substantiate their expenditures, and any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer.
 - E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
 - F. The base payment of $125.00 is intended to cover incidental moving expenses. Therefore, the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., are not eligible for reimbursement.

- G. The request for moving expense reimbursement must be received in the Treasurer's Office no later than one year from when expense was incurred.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

MINISTRIES TO WOMEN IN CRISIS PREGNANCIES AND THEIR UNBORN CHILDREN, TASK FORCE ON

At the 1994 NC Annual Conference the late Reverend Tryon Lowry brought a resolution to develop a ministry to help unwed mothers and their unborn children. This would be a ministry in this Conference to give women an alternative to abortion. A task force of nine persons were named.

A report was made to the 1995 Annual Conference. The name of the task force was changed to Women in Crisis Pregnancies and their Unborn Children. The changes were made because there are married women who also have crisis pregnancies. An extension was granted so we could do a feasibility study on establishing a maternity home as well as to look further at the sheltering church movement.

When women in crisis pregnancies come to the church for help, "They need more than hope. They need assurance that the church is willing and able to help. If the church does not address the many fears and concerns a woman has, the life of the unborn child is clearly threatened." (The Sheltering Church: Biblically Based Ministry to Women in Crisis, by Gary Thomas, pg.4). The church must be prepared itself and have things in order to be ready when a troubled woman knocks. This is only part of reducing the need for abortion. The other part is pregnancy prevention especially among adolescent.

With further research and study, the Task Force makes the following recommendations:

1) At this time, we feel that it is not financially feasible for the NC Annual Conference to have a free-standing organization to establish a maternity home. It would require no less than $400,000.00 in start-up money. This includes acquiring a home and furnishing it: training and paying staff and house parents; and purchasing education materials. Currently, the Methodist Home for Children is a referral for pregnant females. Because of these concerns, we recommend the Methodist Home for Children study the feasibility of establishing a maternity home for adolescent females. (NOTE: Grants can be applied for from private foundations.)

2) For women of all ages, we recommend that the Conference adopt the sheltering church concept. The sheltering church would have a PLEDGE to show that the church cares for the practical and spiritual needs of women in crisis pregnancies; a plan to insure that the church will not be caught unprepared when a real need arises; and a PROCLAMATION to inform its members and visitors of the church's willingness to help. Churches are encouraged to network with other churches and community organizations. (The Sheltering Church, pg. 3). We refer this recommendation to the Commission on Health and Human Services.

3) We recommend that all pastors in this Annual Conference do a course of study on counseling women in crisis pregnancies. This has been referred to the administrative assistant to the Bishop as a topic to be considered for future "Bishop's Seminar on the Ministry."

4) Prevention of adolescent pregnancies and older women in crisis pregnancies should start at an early age. The church needs to educate its members in parenting, values, and relationships from the Christian perspective. Therefore, we recommend that each local church have an on-going educational study on parenting, human sexuality, and marriage enrichment.

Jimmie B. Shuler, M.D., Chairperson

THE NC CONFERENCE PLAN OF INCLUSIVENESS

Inclusiveness In The United Methodist Church

The 1992 Book of Discipline, ¶113, says, "We recognize that God made all creation and saw that it was good. As a diverse people of God who bring special gifts and graces to the unity of the Church and to society, we are called to be faithful to the example of Jesus' ministry to all persons."

"Inclusiveness means openness, acceptance, and support which ENABLE ALL persons to participate in the life of the Church, the community, and the world. Thus, inclusiveness denies every semblance of discrimination."

"The mark of an inclusive society is one in which all persons are open, welcoming, fully accepting, and supporting of all other persons, enabling them to participate fully in the life of the Church, the community, and the world."

"In The United Methodist Church inclusiveness means the freedom for the total involvement of all persons, who meet the requirements of The United Methodist Book of Discipline, in the membership and leadership of the Church at any level and in every place."

The Old and New Testaments reveal inclusiveness as God's will for us. The gospels affirm the love of God for the whole world, such that "God gave God's only Son that whoever believes in him might have everlasting life" (John 3:16). The epistles and pastoral letters echo the declaration of the apostle Paul that in Christ's kingdom "there is neither male nor female, Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, but all are one in Christ" (Galatians 3:28). God's redeeming act in Jesus Christ calls us from sin and separation to inclusiveness. "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto God's very self, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (II Corinthians 5:18-19). The final chapter of the Bible speaks of the fullness of the reign of God where all nations join in unity to the glory of God (Revelation 22:1-5).

In the Old Testament, God is disclosed as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and is seen to be the God of the whole world and is known to be concerned for all nations and people:

e.g. Genesis. In human creation there is unity, which grows to disunity and climaxes with the fall of the Tower of Babel in Genesis 11. God promises and fulfills covenant with Abraham in 12-15.

- Ruth. Ruth and Naomi, tale of human kindness and devotion transcends the limits of national or self-interest.

- The Prophets. Isaiah 42:1-4, 6; 49:5. Israel given a mission to be a light to the nations. Israel's election is a call to service, and a duty to witness, not selfish privilege.

- Daniel. Predicts coming of Son of Man and Kingdom which shall include all people.

- Malachi. Preached severe judgement from God on Israel for failing their mission to exalt God and lead the nations of the world to do the same (1:5-14).

- Psalm 8:5, 67:3, 98:9 echo this same theme.

The 1992 Book of Discipline addresses the concern for inclusiveness in the responsibilities and duties of representatives of the Church at various levels.

(1) The Pastor

Part of the role of the local church pastor includes the directive in The Discipline (¶439.2c) "to lead the congregation in experiencing the racial and ethnic inclusiveness of The United Methodist Church and to help prepare it for participation in the itineracy of all ordained men and women."

(2) Pastor-Parish Relations Committee

One of the key ingredients in a local church movement toward inclusiveness in appointment-making is the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee. (§270.2f(1)) "The duties of the committee shall include the following:...continually interpreting to the people the nature and function of the ministry, including cross-racial appointments, appointments of women, and sensitivity to open itineracy."

(3) The Administrative Board/Council

An openness to others is to be a quality of members of the Administrative Board as stated in §255: "Members of the Administrative Board shall be persons of genuine Christian character who love the Church, are morally disciplined, are committed to the mandate of inclusiveness in the life of the Church, are loyal to the ethical standards of The United Methodist Church set forth in the Social Principles, and are competent to administer its affairs." And the Administrative Board as a body has also been given the mandate of encouraging "understanding of and commitment to inclusiveness in the life of the Church" (§257.9).

(4) The District Superintendent

Included in the specific responsibilities of district superintendents (§524.3) we read, "To establish long-range planning which is responsive to ecumenical and racially inclusive perspectives and to initiate new and vital forms of ministry." District superintendents are to be persons possessing skills in inclusiveness. "Among the skills needed by leaders are spiritual discipline, theological reflection, building the unique inclusive community of the Church and of the larger community as well. Reading the signs of the times, analyzing, designing strategy, assessing needs, organizing a wide range of resources, and evaluating programs and personnel are yet other skills crucial for leaders" (§502.3).

Also see §519: "The district superintendent shall oversee the total ministry of the pastors and the churches in the communities of the district in its mission of witness and service in the world: ...(c) by encouraging their personal commitment to the mandate of inclusiveness in the life of the Church."

(5) The Conference Committee on Episcopacy

The Conference Committee on Episcopacy is given the responsibility of engaging "in annual consultation and appraisal of the balance of the bishop's relationship and responsibilities to the area/Annual Conferences, the jurisdiction, general Church boards and agencies and other areas of specialized ministry, including at all levels, concern for the inclusiveness of the Church and its ministry with respect to sex, race, and national origin, and understanding and implementation of the consultation process in appointment-making" (§735.3f).

(6) The Conference Commission on Religion and Race

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race is given the charge of "examining ethnic representation on all of the conference boards, agencies, commissions, and committees, as well as the governing boards of related institutions. After such an examination, appropriate recommendations for total inclusiveness should be made to the Annual Conference" (§740.3b). The Commission is to work "with Annual Conference boards and agencies as they seek to develop programs and policies of racial inclusiveness" (§740.3c) and to consult "with local churches which are seeking to establish multiracial fellowships and encouraging and supporting local churches in maintaining a Christian ministry in racially changing neighborhoods" (§740.3g).

(7) Institutions

"It shall be the policy of The United Methodist Church that all administrative agencies and institutions, including hospitals, homes, and educational institutions, shall: (a) recruit, employ, utilize, recompense, and promote their professional staff and other personnel in a manner consistent with the commitment of The United Methodist Church to ethnic, racial, and sexual inclusiveness; (b) fulfill their duties and responsibilities in a manner which does not involve segregation or discrimination on the basis of race, color, age, sex, or handicapping condition, including HIV status; and (c) provide for adequate representation by laity" (§1815).

(8) The General Commission on Religion and Race

The General Commission on Religion and Race has been given the special responsibilities of "reviewing, investigating, and conducting hearings where necessary in response to written allegations of violation of the Church's policy of racial and ethnic inclusiveness which have not been satisfactorily resolved in the Annual Conference, any general agency or other institution of the Church" (§2108.6).

(9) The General Council on Finance and Administration

"The General Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to withhold approval of a portion or all of the budget of any agency or any church-related institution receiving general church funds until such agency or church-related institution certifies to the council in writing that it has established and has complied with a policy of (a) recruiting, employing, utilizing, recompensing, and promoting professional staff and other personnel without regard to race, color, age, or sex, (b) fulfilling its duties and responsibilities in a manner which does not involve segregation or discrimination on the basis of race, age, or sex, and (c) insofar as possible, purchasing goods and services from vendors who are in compliance with such policies as are described in sections (a) and (b) of this paragraph" §1911.1).

Diagnosis of Present Situation

What is the present situation in the NC Conference as we seek to be inclusive in all dimensions of our life together? What are the gaps between our vision and our reality?

Can we be comfortable because it is less likely that anyone would, on racial/ethnic grounds, be denied attendance at a service of worship in our conference? Are we at ease because we have racial/ethnic presence in the Cabinet? Do we feel satisfaction with our inclusiveness because one of our racial/ethnic pastors was elected to the episcopacy? Is the vision achieved because some cross-racial appointments have occurred? No!

The 1989 annual conference stated a specific target date for open itineracy. The following resolution was approved on June 16, 1989:

Whereas, the NC Conference of The UMC has recently responded to the Council of Bishops call to become "Faithful Disciples < = > Vital Congregations" by undertaking a four year program of church vitalization that makes use of specific goal setting to assure both mission and growth in both our local congregations and in the Conference at large;

Whereas, racism and sexism in both their most subtle and manifest forms continue to inhibit growth within our churches and give evidence of a desire not to grow, but to restrict;

Whereas, our Bishop, Carlton P. Minnick, has described racism as a secular value to which we cling rather than a gospel or kingdom value as espoused by our Lord Jesus Christ;

Whereas, secular institutions such as the public schools, the military, major business corporations and professional athletic teams have been able to implement programs of both inclusiveness and equal opportunity, and the church has not, either out of fear or ignorance;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the NC Annual Conference, to be both faithful disciples and vital congregations, set a specific date as a goal to have implemented an "open itineracy" system for the appointment of its ministers, without regard to either sex, race or age;

Be it further resolved, that this date be the Annual Conference session, 1995.

How is it going - not only in appointment making, but in all of the conference life and ministry? This diagnosis will bring statistics, but such data might not capture fully the pain of our brokenness, the spiritual jeopardy of our sin, or even the glimpses of divine triumph in the midst of human efforts. In other words, the analysis might provide fact without revealing feeling. Let us acknowledge that there are joys and sorrows, victories and limitations, real people, behind this information.

I. CONGREGATIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Hispanic	2
Korean	2
Native American	13
African-American	35
Euro-American	788
TOTAL	840

Most of the racial/ethnic congregations are churches of small membership. Only 11% of the racial/ethnic congregations have more than 200 members (only 3% have more than 500); in the conference as a whole, 39% of the congregations have more than 200 members (12% have more than 500 members). This suggests that racial/ethnic congregations in disproportionate numbers have limited financial and personnel resources. Six districts have no racial/ethnic congregations.

II. MEMBERSHIP IN ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Hispanic	846
Asian-American	208
Pacific Islander	20
Native American	1782
Euro-American	214236
TOTAL	220314

Racial/ethnic members make up slightly more than 3% of the conference membership. (About 95% of these members are in predominantly racial/ethnic congregations.) 99.999992% of the Euro-American members are in predominantly white congregations. How do these figures impact efforts to achieve multi-cultural settings for worship and pastoral care?

III. POPULATION IN EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA

White	2,173,183	67.1%
Black	921,539	28.5%
American Indian	64,259	2.0%
Hispanic	50,553	1.5%
Asian/Pacific Islander	29,553	.9%

These figures, taken from the 1990 Federal Census, give general demographic data, but one must take careful note that the census does not use the same categories as The UMC. Direct comparison is difficult. (For example, the census considers "Hispanic" as a term of national origin and includes these persons in other racial categories. Also, the census uses the term "other races" and there is no way to determine how to identify these persons in our UM context.) Slightly over 67% of the population of annual conference area (less the county in VA in which we have 1 church and the 2 counties in SC in each of which we have one church) is Euro-American (census term: white). By contrast, almost 97% of the members of our conference congregations are Euro-American. There are 6 counties in our eastern NC territory which have more African-American persons than Euro-American persons. We do not have a predominantly African-American UM congregation in 6 of these counties (Bertie, Edgecombe, Halifax, Hertford, Northampton, and Warren). Of these, only in the case of Warren County do we even have a predominantly African-American UM congregation in the same district as the county.

IV. UNITED METHODIST POPULATION IN EASTERN NORTH CAROLINA

Euro-American	9.9%
Native American	2.8%
Hispanic	1.7%
Asian American	0.8%
African American	0.4%

These figures are for the eastern 56 counties of NC. (Because census data is on a different vocabulary than UM data, there might be some minimal variables.)

African Americans are the most under-represented population in The UMC in NC. What racial bias and barriers does this fact represent?

V. MULTI-RACIAL MEMBERSHIP CONGREGATIONS

Burlington District	5
Durham District	9
Elizabeth City District	7
Fayetteville District	9
Goldsboro District	8
Greenville District	5
New Bern District	7
Raleigh District	16
Rockingham District	12
Rocky Mount District	2
Sanford District	3
Wilmington District	8
TOTAL	91 (10.8% of congregations)

Although almost 11% of the congregations within the conference have members of more than one racial/ethnic background, only 3 congregations (Good Shepherd UMC in Durham, Avent Ferry Church in Raleigh, and Fairview Church in Dillon County, SC) have as much as 8% membership from a racial/ethnic heritage other than the predominant one, and only Good Shepherd Church approximates 50%. When churches are so unbalanced in terms of racial/ethnic heritage, it is easy to discount those who are in the minority in a particular congregation.

- VI. OPENNESS TO CROSS RACIAL APPOINTMENTS
- A. Congregations ranking themselves "5" or more on a scale of 10 in terms of openness to cross racial appointment ("1" is low openness; "10" is high openness): 74 of 839.
 - B. Percentage of racial/ethnic congregations indicating "5" or more: 16%.
 - C. Percentage of Euro-American congregations indicating "5" or more: 8%.
 - D. Approximately 1/3 of our congregations ranked themselves at "0" or "1" in terms of openness to cross racial appointments.
 - E. Congregations who self-ranked at "9" or "10" in terms of openness to cross racial appointment: 6 racial/ethnic congregations (11.5% of these churches), 15 Euro-American congregations (1.9% of these churches).

In 1990, the district superintendents developed Guidelines for Open Itinerary. In implementing that document, the district superintendents asked the 1991 Charge Conferences to report on openness to cross-racial appointments (as well as appointments without regard to gender or age). The greatest openness was shown to pastors of all ages; there was considerable openness to male and female pastors. The greatest block to inclusiveness to appointment making is racial/ethnic. Clearly, the largest resistance to cross racial appointments is among Euro-American congregations (98.1% rank themselves "8" or lower, compared to 88.5% of the racial/ethnic congregations.) There is no general openness in any racial/ethnic constituency.

VII. CROSS RACIAL APPOINTMENTS

A. Congregations who now have multi-racial/ethnic membership	10.8%
B. Congregations who have ever had cross racial appointment	2.5%
C. 1994-1995 CROSS RACIAL APPOINTMENTS
Native American to White	4
White to Native American	2
African American to White	1
Hispanic to White	1
Asian American to Native American	1
Asian American to White	1
TOTAL	10

D. TOTAL RECORD OF CROSS RACIAL APPOINTMENTS

Native American to White	6
White to Native American	6
African American to White	4
Hispanic to White	2
White to African American	1
Asian American to Native American	1
TOTAL	21

Ten years ago there had been 4 cross-racial appointments in the conference; as of 1994-1995, there have been 21 such appointments. Three of the cross-racial appointments were of African Americans to predominantly white churches as associates. Other than the associates, only 3 of the appointments involved churches with membership over 200: 2 white persons serving Native American congregations and 1 Native American serving a predominantly white congregation.

There are 603 total positions on conference agencies; 130 of these (21.5%) are held by racial/ethnic persons. (When Religion and Race and EMLC Concerns are removed, racial/ethnic persons hold 19.2% of the positions.) Racial/ethnic persons represent 18.5% of the officers elected by conference agencies. The conference nominating committee (at the beginning of the quadrennium) sought to have inclusive agencies; with the changes that occur during the quadrennium, there is a net loss of one racial/ethnic membership on agencies. All but 3 (Committee on Investigation of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, Joint Review Committee, and Episcopal Residence Committee) of the 37 conference agencies have racial/ethnic members.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS DATA

- A. New congregations founded since 1980: 2 Asian-American, 2 African-American, 2 Hispanic, 2 Native American, 11 predominantly white.
- B. Congregations closed since 1980: 1 African-American, 5 predominantly white
- C. CCOM Program staff: 6 Euro-Americans, 1 African American
- D. CCOM Support Staff: 3 African-American, 4 ½ Euro-Americans
- E. Other UM Building administrators: 6 Euro-Americans
- F. Other UM Building support staff: 7 Euro-Americans, 1 African American
- G. Methodist Home for Children clientele: 2 Asian-Americans, 208 African Americans, 9 Hispanics, 15 Native Americans, 598 Euro-Americans
- H. Methodist Home for Children employees: 7 Asian Americans, 9 African Americans, 63 Euro-Americans
- I. Combined Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. clientele: 1 African American, 4 Native Americans, 437 Euro-Americans
- J. Combined Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. employees: 2 Asian Americans, 193 African Americans, 16 Native Americans, 122 Euro-Americans
- K. Combined Employees of Duke Divinity School, Duke University, Methodist College, NC Wesleyan College, Louisburg College: 807 Asian Americans, 6116 African Americans, 251 Hispanics, 17,304 Euro-Americans
- L. Combined Camps clientele: 167 Asian American, 4057 African Americans, 189 Hispanics, 15,144 Euro-Americans
- M. Combined Camps employees: 9 African-Americans, 1 Hispanic, 70 Euro-Americans

Staffing patterns are undergoing a constant shift; it is difficult to pin point trends. The colleges and the camps and the children's home have had the most success in having inclusive programs. The retirement homes have very little inclusive population. Because agencies report in varying ways, it is hard to determine which employees are in decision-making places. There is a "feeling" that very few racial/ethnic persons are in the decision-making positions: administrators, board members, etc. New congregations tend to be identified along racial/ethnic lines, although none would claim exclusivity. Because neighborhoods are the most frequent target for new congregations, the churches tend to reflect the racial/ethnic make-up of the neighborhood. Congregations which are regional or which have other defining missional qualities might achieve more inclusiveness in membership.

Priorities for Moving Toward Inclusiveness in the NC Conference of The UMC 1996:

- I. Each Conference Agency, Commissions, District Councils on Ministries, the Cabinet, and each local church make an honest assessment of where we are NOW in our practice of inclusiveness. Each adopt several realistic goals for moving forward. Dates for specific achievements are to be included. To be implemented by conference agencies and commissions, district Councils on Ministries, the Cabinet, and each local church.
 - A. Forms for assessment, inventory can come from the General Commission on Religion and Race.
 - B. This assessment and suggested goals for progress is to be reported and adopted at Annual Conference 1996.
 - C. Goals could include the following:
 1. Pulpit and choir exchanges across racial lines.

2. Cross racial pastoral exchanges for a month or two.
 3. Cross racial youth exchanges for weekends.
 4. Cross racial retreats with groups like young adults and young families.
 5. Multi-racial work team projects through District/Conference and UMCOR.
 6. Pastors, chairpersons of Religion and Race, and the Lay Leaders report quarterly to their Administrative Boards/Councils and annually at the Charge Conference of progress toward inclusiveness.
- II. District Superintendents keep in close touch with local church programs and local efforts toward inclusiveness (drawing upon their guidelines for open itineracy already in use) with special interest in finding congregations and pastors most ready for cross racial appointments. To be implemented by the Cabinet.
- A. Reports at Charge Conference include items about cross racial ministries/activities/efforts.
 - B. Intensive, thorough training of ministers and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees begin immediately preparing for cross racial work in pastoral leadership, and explore new models for worship and preaching.
 - C. Our seminaries and colleges/universities serve as resources for this, but most of the training be done in the districts.
- III. Every District have frequent (perhaps quarterly) seminars/conversations on RACISM, ETHNIC CONCERNS, and CULTURAL DIFFERENCES. These sessions should conclude with a summary statement (for the record) and the adoption of an action project for moving us forward in dealing with problems. To be implemented by the district Council on Ministries.
- A. These sessions focus on the local church leaders and pastors.
 - B. The Commission on Religion and Race lead some of these discussions.
 - C. Good materials are available in our Media Center and others will be obtained by the Commission on Religion and Race.
- IV. The District Superintendents, District Chairpersons of Religion and Race, Conference Council on Ministries, and District Council on Ministries be alert to any possibilities for affirming/encouraging local efforts in our movement toward inclusiveness. To be implemented by the district superintendents, the district chairpersons of religion and race, the conference council on ministries, and the district council on ministries.
- V. The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will monitor all priority programs in Conference Agencies, Institutions, and District Council on Ministries. An annual report of this monitoring should be presented at Annual Conference (to raise awareness and concern). To be implemented by the Conference Commission on Religion and Race.
- VI. We urge that the theme of the 1997 Annual Conference address INCLUSIVENESS. To be implemented by the Annual Conference Program Committee.
- VII. Every church have a chairperson of Religion and Race or that work assigned to someone. To be implemented by the local church committee on nominations.

- I. VISION 2000 and TRANSFORMATION 2000 projects/programs be deliberate and intentional in implementing progress in inclusiveness. To be implemented by the Conference Task Force on Vision 2000.
- II. Projects to establish new churches be faithful in its inclusiveness. Multi-cultural ministries be promoted and cross racial congregations established wherever possible. In establishing new congregations we recommend recruiting 20 "Charter Members" from established churches - mixed race if possible. New churches could use Good Shepherd UMC, Durham, as a model. To be implemented by the Conference Commission on Congregational Development.
- III. Local UM Churches reach out to AME, AME ZION, Lumber River Holiness Methodist Church and CME churches in concrete efforts to make multi cultural/racial experiences in church life an "every day" experience. To be implemented by the local church outreach chairperson or the local church chairperson of ecumenical and interreligious concerns.

- IV. The Cabinet continue efforts to identify any possibilities for cross racial appointments and make as many as possible. Appointments of cross racial staff persons to churches with several associates be possible soon. where progress lags in some churches, the District Superintendent make efforts to move them forward by holding pastors and Pastor-Parish Relation committees accountable for good faith efforts. This be discussed with pastors as one item at the annual evaluation session. We must remove all doubt - we are serious about inclusiveness. To be implemented by the Cabinet.
- V. Celebrate and publicize progress toward inclusiveness by use of the Christian Advocate, Connectings, and Race Relations Awards. To be implemented by the Committee on Communications.
- VI. (1) Each program agency will designate at least ten percent of its program budget for ministries addressing racial/ethnic needs. (2) The State Commission on Campus Ministry and each ministry under the Board of Institutions will be asked to earmark at least 10% of the grant from annual conference for ministries which address racial/ethnic inclusiveness issues. (3) The Conference Council on Ministries budget $100,000 for the ELCC Committee (budget approved by annual conference in 1997, to be raised in 1998, to be spent in 1999) to be used by the ELCC Committee and to be used by program agencies who will seek grants from the ELCC Committee. The first year request of $100,000 is to be reduced by 10% in each subsequent year until it is reduced to $60,000 a year, at which time the figure remains at that base. To be implemented by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- VII. Create and maintain an ongoing training and cross racial experiences for local church leadership including youth. This be done by any of the following: the district superintendents, the conference commission on religion and race, the board of the ordained ministry, the agencies of continuing education, and the commission on laity. To be coordinated by the Conference Council on Ministries
- VIII. The Commission on Religion and Race will monitor these steps and present at Annual Conference in 1997 a comprehensive report on the status of our inclusiveness programs, with recommendations for our next steps forward. To be implemented by the Conference Commission on Religion and Race.

- I. The Commission on Religion and Race will monitor these steps and develop and present at Annual Conference in 1998 a comprehensive report on the status of our inclusiveness programs, with recommendations for the next steps forward. To be implemented by the Conference Commission on Religion and Race.
- II. The Cabinet to give a report on inclusiveness concerning the NC Annual Conference to the General Conference of The UMC. To be implemented by the Cabinet.
- III. For Conference of 1997 or 1998 an updated "DESIGN for INCLUSIVENESS" be developed with part of it left open-ended for lay and clergy discussion groups at Annual Conference. This could be done in a 2 hour Friday afternoon time frame. This would give inclusiveness the attention it needs and some input from a wide range of people and opinions. To be implemented by the Annual Conference Program Committee.
- IV. It is recommended that the Commission on Missions establish a program for "SHALOM ZONES" in our Conference area and enlist Volunteers in Missions to send work teams to build and learn and grow. To be implemented by the Commission on Missions and Outreach
- V. Have a class/discussion during the Bishop's Seminar each year. Perhaps one session might be a "Role Play" on what it's like be a African American/Native American/Asian American/European American as a pastor in the NC Conference, or lay person in a local church. To be implemented by the Committee on the Bishop's Seminar.

- I. The Commission on Religion and Race monitor these steps and give a status report on inclusiveness in the NC UM Churches with further recommendations for the next step. To be implemented by the Conference Commission on Religion and Race.

- II. The Cabinet maintain strong emphasis on cross racial experiences and continuing open discussions on race relations and cultural differences with the goal of putting every UM at ease with cross racial/multi ethnic congregational life. To be implemented by the Cabinet.
- III. The Commission on Religion and Race and ELCC Committee do an evening program at Annual Conference at the 1999 session. To be implemented by the Annual Conference Program Committee, along with the Commission on Religion and Race and the ELCC Committee.
- IV. Acknowledging that this plan of inclusiveness focuses on racial/ethnic concerns, the Cabinet establishes a task force to determine the extent to which that emphasis needs to continue and to what extent other issues related to inclusiveness need to be addressed. The Plan of Inclusiveness will be extended accordingly. To be implemented by the Cabinet.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the North Carolina Annual Conference our report for 1996.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference that wrestles constantly with its responsibilities outlined so carefully in The Book of Discipline 1992 (§733.2). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination which is both fair and diligent, seeking always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth with those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given ten (10) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

- 1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
- 2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained ministry and their election as
 - a) Full-time Local Pastors, b) Associate Members, c) Probationary Members, and d) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
- 3) To interview and report recommendations concerning a) students to be appointed to attend school, b) candidates for ordination as Deacon, and c) candidates for ordination as Elder.
- 4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Disability Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of Conference membership.
- 5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
- 6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
- 7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline 1992, and to study matters pertaining to character.
- 8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

For a number of years we have shared a concern for the number of persons who are entering into a variety of full-time positions in the Church, particularly in ordained ministry. The number of persons retiring, seeking a leave of absence, transferring to another conference, etc., has been increasing significantly in the last decade without an equally significant increase in the number of persons entering into the candidacy process. We have satisfied the need for pastors in our conference recently by transferring persons from other annual conferences and receiving persons from other denominations as a shortfall of available persons develops during the appointive process. Our Committee on Enlistment has become active in the encouragement of persons to attend well planned convocations that are designed to motivate individuals to open to the Call of God to enter into the ordained ministry. A national convocation for youth and young adults who may be considering entering into Ordained Ministry will be held at Dallas, Texas on November 1-3, 1996.

This year we are pleased that nineteen (19) persons will be ordained as Deacons, seventeen (17) as Probationary Members and two (2) as Associate Members of the North Carolina Conference. One (1) new Probationary Member and two (2) new Associate Member will have their previous orders recognized. Our class for Full Membership numbers twenty-one (21) with twenty-one (21) being ordained Elder. This year's retirement class includes sixteen (16) Full Members, three (3) Associate Members and one (1) Local Pastor. Our large number of retiring pastors each year continues to provide opportunities for many persons to enter this field of service!

Several reports published some ten years ago seemed to indicate that about this time we would be experiencing an oversupply of pastors for the churches that would be available. This condition may exist in some areas of our denomination and in others as well, but the past few years have seen the need to reach out to other areas of United Methodism and to other denominations to fill North Carolina Conference appointments. Some have said that our problem lies in the abandonment of a strong enlistment program among our youth for all full-time positions in the church in music and education as well as ordained ministry. In years past, the challenge for full-time service was offered at camping experiences, in college campus ministries, and at many youth gatherings. In whatever way these calls to commitment are still being offered, the response is not what we need to continue providing ministries to our churches in these vital areas--pastoral ministry, education, and music.

Renewed encouragement by pastors and laity of those who express an interest in committing their lives to service in the ordained ministry is the particular focus of our board. Some new opportunities for that focus will be developed in the coming year, and we invite your support...for the future of our Church!

The work of the Board of Ordained Ministry this year has been enlarged in the consideration of three reports received from the Joint Review Committee that outlined complaints against clergy members of the Annual Conference. The board spent a great many hours carefully considering each report, and sustained the recommendations received from the Joint Review Committee. No further action by the Annual Conference is required at this time.

The new legislation adopted at the General Conference in Denver in April will drastically affect the structure and function of both the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry as ordained ministers in The United Methodist Church. Beginning in 1997, they will either be Deacons or Elders as each new candidate determines how they desire to serve the Church. Those persons presently in process to become Full Members/Elders through the previous set of requirements will be allowed to finish, but the new guidelines will begin with those who have not yet begun their seminary education. More information will be developed and shared with local churches and district committees as it becomes available.

Various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson. We are indebted to all three of these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

Requirements for Ministry

The Board of Ordained Ministry reminds the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the North Carolina Annual Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in The Book of Discipline.

Local pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED FROM 1989-1993

The Board requires that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Local Pastors (1980).

OR

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED IN 1994 AND FOLLOWING

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

Each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988:

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.
2. A course in public worship that includes the theory, theology, and practice of planning and leading public worship.

FULL CONNECTION

Only those persons who have completed the M.Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary shall be elected to full membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶424.3c of The 1992 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials).

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on April 30, 1996.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1992 Book of Discipline, ¶445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline, ¶445.2, further states, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1992 Discipline, ¶423.2).

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) It seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶445.2.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Minister: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and ABLC categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2. For a one CEU event, no more than $100; a two CEU event, $200; a three CEU event, a maximum of $300 if the cost of the event merits it.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.

5. One CEU will be granted to interested persons who attend all sessions of the Bishop's Seminar. However, educational grants will not be available for this event.

6. Holy Land Trips - A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

2. Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

3. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

IDENTIFICATION AND ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

The identification and enlistment of persons for ministry is a primary responsibility of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (§1733.2a).

Identification and enlistment of prospective ministers for the church, specifically including ethnic groups and women, should be the result of continuous and intentional study of the short-, medium-, and long-term needs of the constituencies of the church. This responsibility necessitates a team effort by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Bishop and Cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries, the District Committees on Ordained Ministry, pastors of local churches, and the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in the local congregations. Imperative in this team work is the encouragement and support of pastors of local churches, who through sharing their story of call to ministry, might be instrumental in creating an awareness of such a call on persons in the congregations which they serve. Response from Conference ethnic caucuses will prove helpful in addressing the particular needs of the ethnic groups within the life of the Conference.

As a means of encouraging awareness of call to ministry, our Annual Conference has planned a sermon writing contest for pastors and laity on call to ministry and is encouraging youth and young adults from our conference to attend "Explo '96" in Dallas, Texas, sponsored by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. As well, efforts have begun to offer a seminar within the bounds of our conference for persons considering ministry as a second career.

The intention of the Enlistment Committee is to raise the consciousness of our constituency that identification and enlistment is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church. To that end this Committee shall be committed to the seeking of persons for ordained ministry throughout the year.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

Since 1968, more than 325 million dollars have been given by local congregations to the Ministerial Education Fund.

The first priority of the MEF is to provide underlying support to our 13 outstanding United Methodist seminaries.

The MEF is literally the "life-blood" of our seminaries. It also supports annual conference boards of ordained and diaconal ministry for programs they provide for clergy and diaconal ministers. Since 1970 more than 80 million dollars from the MEF have supported conference board services in each of the annual conferences.

So the MEF is not just for seminaries. Every annual conference and every clergyperson and diaconal minister benefit from the fund. Here's how that support is expressed:

Within the boundary of the North Carolina Annual Conference is MEF supported Duke Divinity School, which for over 60 years has prepared men and women for leadership in the church as clergy and laity. Other institutions supported by MEF: Boston University School of Theology; Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta; The Theological School at Drew University in Madison, New Jersey; Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, Georgia; Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois; Iliff School of Theology in Denver; Methodist Theological School in Ohio; Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas; Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, Missouri; School of Theology at Claremont; United Theological Seminary in Dayton; Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, DC.

The MEF provides scholarships for students studying for the ordained and diaconal ministry in the 13 United Methodist seminaries and non-United Methodist seminaries, which are approved by The United Methodist Church. These scholarship funds for seminary students are administered through the conference boards.

It also supports the course of study schools, an alternate form of ministerial education. More than 2,300 people are involved in 12 course of study schools. Each summer this program is sponsored by the division of ordained ministry and taught by seminary professors and conference leaders throughout The United Methodist Church.

In addition, the MEF provides support for: continuing education, pastoral care initiatives and the divisions of ordained and diaconal ministry at the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM).

The MEF also funds research and special programs related to candidacy, enlistment (such as Exploration '96), clergywomen concerns, racial and ethnic concerns, spiritual formation, testing and evaluation, training of boards of ordained and diaconal ministry, international theological education, jurisdictional block grants, supervision issues and Dempster Fellowships. All of these ministries are nurtured by money from the Ministerial Education Fund.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The 1995 Pastors' School and Convocation offered participants an opportunity to explore the field of Political Ethics and examine the Christian and Hebrew Scriptures. Jean Bethke Elshtain, the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Professor of Social and Political Ethics at the University of Chicago, presented the James A. Gray lectures on the theme of the significance of Augustine's Theology for the Contemporary Political Situation. Roland O. Murphy, the George Washington Ivey Professor Emeritus of Biblical Studies at Duke University, presented lectures on the Christian and Hebrew Scriptures. William R.

Bouknight, senior minister of Christ UMC in Knoxville, TN, and William H. Gattis, senior pastor of University UMC in Chapel Hill, were convocation preachers. The pastors' school offered nine continuing education courses for clergy and laity. The courses covered such items as theology in United Methodism, teaching the Bible in the congregation, to a resurgence of Calvinism in Baptist Life.

The 1996 Convocation and Pastors' School will be October 21-23, 1996, at Duke University. Another set of speakers, preachers and seminar leaders is being selected. At present, Harvey Cox and Barbara Brown Taylor are scheduled to be at the Convocation. Look for a brochure giving all the details later in the summer.

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care has, since 1971, served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of four members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one member from the Board of Diaconal Ministry; one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and two members from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance Program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of twenty-two.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1992), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose status is active, retired, or on leave in accordance with ¶ 313.1 of The Book of Discipline (1992), or a dependent.

Special circumstances:

1. Grant eligibility is provided when ministerial couples undergo marital separation or divorce. The amount provided is $400.00 for each spouse for a maximum of two years following the separation.

- Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, and for surviving spouses of ministers.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Counselors: Clinical members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and Social Workers: Certified Clinical Social Workers (CCSW) or equivalent licensure in the jurisdiction of practice.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

- The counselor or therapist requests an application form, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the Chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
- Once the application, Conference Directory, and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
- The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.

In 1995, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted $14,395.14 for counseling sessions. This represents 832 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year (over 300 more than provided in 1994). Grants were processed for 67 client units during 1995, representing 558.5 sessions for ministers, 188 for spouses, 47 for families and 38.5 for dependent children. Of these 67 units, 13 (or 19%) received the 1995 maximum of $400.00 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

The United Methodist Church recommends psychological evaluations for all who would be ordained. The NC Annual Conference requires and administers this assessment for all persons seeking ordination as a Deacon. Responsibility for testing is given to the Committee on Psychological Testing. Members of the committee during 1995-1996 were Lisa Cole, Peg Witt, Milton Mann, Mark Kennedy, and David Banks.

Psychological testing is only one component of a comprehensive process determining a person's readiness for ordination. The Board of Ordained Ministry uses the evaluation results to assist and not to determine the discernment process. In some cases, the process provides early detection of potential barriers to effective ministry. When this is the case, our Board seeks to benefit the candidates by providing them information, feedback, and guidance toward optimum adjustment for their personal well-being and effective ministry.

For all persons seeking Probationary Membership and for all those applying for transfer to the NC Annual Conference whose status after transfer will be Probationary Membership, the following tests are required: Personal Data Inventory, Incomplete Sentences, Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and 16 PF (back-up to the MMPI). Probationary members of other annual conferences seeking to transfer into this conference must release information on their testing to the Transfer Committee of this board.

For persons from within the North Carolina Annual Conference, the cost of testing is borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry. When necessary for transfer, we will bear the cost of evaluation when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

Testing services are provided by Dr. Gary Brown, a full member of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The Career and Personal Counseling Service at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg also provides occasional assistance. With the aid of these professionals, we hope to faithfully and effectively accomplish our work for the glory of God and the well-being of the Church.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

¶1417.3 in the 1992 Book of Discipline states:

"Each probationary member shall have an elder in full connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation."

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry program meets this requirement through the cluster group model. Probationers meet in small groups throughout the probationary period. Cluster leaders are elders who are not members of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, and with the same leader, for the duration of the probationary experience. This arrangement provides a particularly important collegiality and support for the probationers.

In October 1995 the committee sponsored an event for candidates preparing for probationary membership. Representatives from the Board of Ordained Ministry's interview committees presented overviews of the interview process.

Each year, Phase I Probationers, those in their first year of probationary relationship, meet for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, and practical concerns of pastoral leadership in the local church.

Phase II members are those in the second year of probationary membership with the Annual Conference. They work in their cluster gatherings to prepare for full conference membership and ordination as elders. A retreat is held at Duke Divinity School each fall to assist this group in their preparation.

Phase III is designed to help probationers who must reappear before the board for Elder's orders and full conference membership.

The Residency in Ordained Ministry committee is committed to helping candidates for ordained ministry in every way possible.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 1997 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $38,325.
- C. The current rate is $345 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1997 be increased to $356 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $27,664,579.
- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 1997 required by the General Board of Pensions is $2,250,210 (Due Date December 31, 1997). The amount needed in the 1998 budget to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $1,500,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 1998 budget request is $1,475,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.
- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$30,000.00
Add 25% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	7,500.00
Plan Compensation will be	$37,500.00

 1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be items of local expense.

2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.
- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Study (Third Year Study, 1990 - 1993)
 1. Interest assumption decreased from 9% to 8%.
 2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
 3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
 - A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
 1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% of the DAC upon retirement at any age. (The DAC for 1996 it is $36,062 and for 1997 it is $37,084.00.)
 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on Disability Leave.
 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)
 - B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.

FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)

STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation

INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility

B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.

C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.

B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
13	65%	35%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
7	35%	65%
1	5%	95%

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 1992] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinue as Full-time Local Pastors, ¶1410, or Probationary Members, ¶1418, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶1452.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶1453.1; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶1453.2; who surrender the ordained ministerial office, ¶1453.3; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶1453.4; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶1454.3 are ineligible to receive health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pensions begin.
4. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the Medicare supplement paid for those covered under Medicare, provided the ineligibility is not due to a refusal to come under Part B. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
5. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.
- C. The North Carolina Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

- VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement
Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses is $1,000,000.
- VIII. Special Provisions
The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)
- IX. Conclusion
Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only) RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1996 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

I. The Principles of the Fund

The Ministers' Transition Fund of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church (the "Fund") was established effective November 20, 1937, to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his or her housing. The Fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries-Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church that all ministers participate in the Fund. The Conference does not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he or she contributed to the Fund.

The Conference vigorously emphasizes that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available shall be irrevocable. The Fund is intended to be a church plan within the meaning of section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") which has not made the election under section 410(d) of the Code and is also intended to meet the requirements of a retirement income account under section 403(b)(9) of the Code. The Plan shall be interpreted, wherever possible, to comply with the applicable terms of the Code and all applicable formal regulations and rulings issued under the Code.

II. The Conference Treasurer

The Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference (the "Conference Treasurer") shall serve as Treasurer and custodian of this Fund. He or she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

III. Eligibility for Membership

Membership in this Fund is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference Institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) or other Episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall be eligible to join.

In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full-time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he or she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized.

Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his or her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

IV. Apportionments and Assessments

A. Conference Contributions

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items, and this amount shall become part of the Fund.

B. Minister Contributions

Each minister in a pastoral appointment who participates in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he or she receives each year from the charge he or she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources.)

C. Council on Finance and Administration Contributions

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment into the Fund an amount equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff.

D. District Superintendent and Conference Ministerial Staff Contributions

District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

E. All Other Ministers

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay into the Fund on an after-tax basis a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference Average Salary, whichever is greater.

V. Deadline For Receipt of Assessment

The plan (fiscal) year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference Treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he or she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he or she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his or her required assessment for three consecutive years, he or she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

VI. Base Benefits

VII. Allocation of Dividends After Ten Years of Membership

After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to the members account.

Any funds, including apportionments, assessments, forfeitures and earnings thereon, remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members for the plan year shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for more than ten years and are not in arrears for the previous year.

VIII. Limitations on Contributions Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code

A. In General

The contributions for any calendar year allocated to a member's account under Articles VI and VII on behalf of a member under all Qualifying Retirement Plans in which the member participates shall not exceed the lesser of the member's Exclusion Allowance as determined in subsection B of this Article VIII or the member's Limit on Annual Additions as determined in subsection C of this Article VIII. The provisions of this Article VIII are intended to provide the limits on the amount of contributions to this Fund which are excludable from the gross income of the member pursuant to Code sections 403(b)(2) and 415, and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent with those Code sections.

B. Maximum Exclusion Allowance Pursuant to Code Section 403(b)(2)

The member's Exclusion Allowance shall, for any calendar year of the member, be an amount determined under whichever of the following rules (1), (2) or (3) are applicable:

(1) General Rule: Unless paragraph (2) or (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the member's Exclusion Allowance for the calendar year shall be equal to the excess, if any, of:

(a) The amount determined by multiplying 20% of such member's includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), for the most recent 12 months of service ending on the last day of the calendar year by the participants period of service as of the close of such calendar year; over

(b) The aggregate of the amounts which have been contributed by the member's employer, including allocations of base benefits or dividends to a member's accounts pursuant to Articles VI and VII hereof, to Qualifying Retirement Plans for such member, to the extent such contributions were excludable from the gross income of the member for all calendar years ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined.

(c) "Qualifying Retirement Plan" as used in this Article VIII shall mean and include:

- (i) Any Code section 403(b) plan, but only to the extent that contributions to such plan with respect to the member are vested at the close of the calendar year ending prior to the calendar year for which the Exclusion Allowance is being determined; and
 - (ii) Any pension plan qualified under Code section 401(a) or 403(a) whether or not contributions with respect to the member are vested.
 - (d) A member's "period of service" for purposes of paragraph (1) above shall be expressed as a number equal to the member's number of full years of service plus one-twelfth for each one month period of service in addition to his or her full years of service. Part-time service of a member shall be taken into account as the percentage of such service which is equal to the percentage of full-time service served.
- (2) Election to Have Exclusion Allowance Determined Under Code Section 415. If a member elects to have his or her Exclusion Allowance determined under the election provided in Code section 415(c)(4)(C), his or her Exclusion Allowance shall be the amount determined under subsection C, and for this purpose, contributions to any other defined contribution plan required to be aggregated with this plan under Code section 415(e)(5) shall be treated as contributions to this plan.
- (3) Minimum Contribution Ceiling. The minimum Exclusion Allowance that shall be applicable to any member to a calendar year shall be the lesser of:
- (a) Three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) or
 - (b) The excess of, (i) the amount of includible compensation, within the meaning of Code section 403(b)(3), received by the member for the calendar year, over (ii) any amount contributed to this Fund. In the case of a member performing services outside the United States, the amount described in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence shall be deemed to be zero.

If this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B applies, the limitations of Article VIII.C shall be treated as being not less than the limitation determined under this paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B. This paragraph (3) of this Article VIII.B shall not apply to a member for any calendar year in which the members adjusted gross income (determined separately and without regard to any community property laws) exceeds seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000).

C. Limit on Annual Additions Under Code Section 415

A member's Limit on Annual Additions shall for any calendar year be an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (1) 25% of the member's compensation within the meaning of Code section 415(c)(3) in such calendar year, or
- (2) $30,000, or such greater amount as is permitted under Code section 415(c) as adjusted under Code section 415(d)(1)(B).

For purposes of determining a member's Limit on Annual Additions, in the case of a member who has more than 50% control of an employer (a "Controlled Employer") within the meaning of Code section 415(h), contributions to a plan of the Controlled Employer that constitute annual additions (as defined in Code section 415(c)(2)) to the member shall be treated as contributions to this Plan.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Article VIII.C to the contrary, the Limit on Annual Additions of a member who has made an election under Code section 415(c)(4) or Code section 415(c)(7) shall be determined under such Code section and the regulations issued thereunder.

D. Prohibition on Before-Tax Salary Reduction Contributions

Before-tax contributions under a salary reduction agreement shall not be permitted under this Fund.

IX. Death Benefits

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the Treasurer shall pay to his or her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his or her estate, the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the dividends, if any, added to his or her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the eleventh year of membership, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the base benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary, beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus simple interest credited annually at the rate of The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the most recent four quarters prior to the date of death.

X. Designation of Beneficiary

Each member shall provide the Conference Treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom the death benefits described in Article IX are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference Treasurer. A designation shall not be effective unless such form has been duly completed and filed with the Conference Treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

XI. Irrevocable Election Regarding Distribution of Funds

Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 1992, paragraph 452.1, 2a, 2b, and 2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

XII. Payment of Benefits

A. In General

At retirement or early termination from the Fund members who have accrued the same number of years of service credited under the Fund (during the same calendar years) will have exactly the same accrued benefit and will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

(1) Ministers With Less Than Ten (10) Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid in a single lump sum immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he or she retires or terminates. The benefit shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members under Article VI plus minister contributions.

(2) Ministers With Ten (10) or More Years. A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month or month of termination due to early retirement or disability. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited.

(a) Two payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account including accrued dividends and interest and is subject to income tax.

(b) Six payment option. The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining principal balance and will be subject to income tax. This six payment option shall not be available to a member following attainment of age 70.

All payments under this Fund must be made at least as rapidly as required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

Under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of the Annual Conference following the ministers retirement or termination from the Fund. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at The United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four quarters ending prior to the date on which the minister terminates or retires. Any remaining payments will draw simple interest annually at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., cumulative dividend yield for the four most recent quarters prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the member terminates or retires.

B. Direct Rollovers

(1) This Article XII.B applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the Fund to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Article XII.B, a distributee may elect at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(2) Definitions:

(a) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Code as made applicable by section 403(b)(10) of the Code, and the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities).

(b) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, or an annuity contract described in section 403(b) of the Code (including custodial accounts described in section 403(b)(7) of the Code and retirement income accounts described in Section 403(b)(9) of the Code) that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.

(c) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

(d) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

XIII. Disability Leave

A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave granted by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
- C. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
- D. Terminate from the Fund and receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference Treasurer in writing of his or her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus interest, determined as described in Article IX.

XIV. Leave of Absence

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation while on leave.
- B. Be treated the same as a transferring member under Article XVI. Conference Average Compensation means the Conference Average Compensation as determined annually by the General Board of Pensions.

XV. Less Than Full Time Service

A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service by the Conference may elect to:

- A. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference Average Compensation (within the meaning of Article XIV) while serving less than full time.
- B. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions of Article XVII.

XVI. Membership Transferring

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He or she may leave his or her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the benefit under this Fund will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with interest determined in the manner described in Article IX, determined from the date of transfer to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he or she may reinstate his or her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

XVII. Withdrawing From The Fund Prior to Retirement

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference Treasurer, he or she shall receive the amount he or she has paid into the Fund, plus interest determined in the manner described in Article IX each year he or she was participating in the Fund. Amounts in the members account in excess of the amount determined under the preceding sentence shall be forfeited and reallocated as dividends for the year of forfeiture pursuant to Article VII.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference Treasurer with a statement indicating that he or she has received the funds for which he or she is eligible, and that he or she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination other than The United Methodist Church will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the formula set forth in the first paragraph of this Article XVII.

XVIII. Reinstatement

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he or she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his or her ministerial career.

XIX. Hearing CommitteeA. The Committee

A Hearing Committee consisting of the Board of Pensions Executive Committee, Conference Treasurer, Director of Ministerial Relations, Conference Controller, and the Conference Insurance Group Administrator shall have authority to act on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, this constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund. The Plan Administrator for the Fund for other plan administrative matters and matters delegated by the Hearing Committee shall be the Conference Insurance Group Administrator. Determinations by the Hearing Committee, the Board of Pensions or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all persons and shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

B. Claims Procedure

If a claim is wholly or partially denied, the Hearing Committee shall furnish the member or beneficiary with written notice of the denial within sixty (60) days of the date the original claim was filed. This notice of denial shall provide:

- (1) The specific reason or reasons for denial;
- (2) Provide specific reference to pertinent plan provisions on which denial is based;
- (3) A description of any additional information needed to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such information is necessary; and
- (4) An explanation of the plans claim procedure.

The member or beneficiary shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of denial notice in which to make written application for review by the Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall issue a decision on such review within sixty (60) days after receipt of an application for review as provided in the preceding sentence. Such decision on review shall be made in writing and shall include specific reasons for the decision written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant. All decisions and denials of claims by the Hearing Committee shall be afforded the maximum deference permitted by law.

XX. New Rules and Constitutional Provisions

The rules and guidelines of this constitution supersede all previous Conference legislation regulating this Fund. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of this constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the members benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

XXI. Miscellaneous ProvisionsA. Prohibition Against Diversion

Subject to Code section 414(p), there shall be no diversion of any portion of the assets of the plan other than for the exclusive benefit of members and their beneficiaries.

B. Delegation of Authority

The Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and the Hearing Committee may authorize any agent or agents to carry out their duties, and may employ such counsel, auditors, and other specialists and such clerical, actuarial and other services as it may require in carrying out the provisions of the Fund.

C. Notification of Mailing Address

Each member and other person entitled to benefits hereunder shall from time to time file with the Conference, in writing, such persons post office address and change of post office address. Any check representing any payment due hereunder, and any communication forwarded to a member of beneficiary at the last known address as indicated by the records of the Conference shall constitute adequate payment to such person and be binding on such person for all purposes of the plan. The Conference, Board of Pensions, Conference Treasurer and Hearing Committee shall not be under any obligation to search for or ascertain the whereabouts of any such person.

D. Unclaimed Benefits

If any benefits payable to, or on behalf of, a member are not claimed within a reasonable period of time from the date of entitlement, as determined by the Hearing Committee, and if the member cannot be located at his or her last provided mailing address, such member shall be presumed dead and the post-death benefits, if any, under this plan shall be paid to his or her beneficiary if he or she is then living and can be located. If the members beneficiary is not then living or cannot be located, or if no beneficiary was effectively named, the member's account shall be forfeited and treated as dividends pursuant to Article VII.

E. Facility of Payment

Whenever, in the Hearing Committees opinion, a person entitled to receive any payment of a benefit under the plan is under a legal disability or is incapacitated in any way so as to be unable to manage such person's financial affairs, the Hearing Committee may, to the extent permitted by law, make payments directly to the person, to the person's legal representative, or to a relative or friend of the person to be used exclusively for such person's benefit, or apply any such payment for the benefit of the person in such manner as the Hearing Committee deems advisable. Any benefit payment (or installment thereof) made in accordance with the provisions of this shall completely discharge the obligation for making such payment under the plan.

F. Commingling of Assets

The assets of the Fund may be commingled in a common fund made up of such accounts or in a common fund with other amounts exclusively devoted to church purposes, provided that the part of such fund which equitably belongs to the plan shall be separately accounted for and cannot be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of employees and their beneficiaries. The reasonable costs of administering an account may be charged against the account. Such costs may include the reasonable costs of administering a retirement income program of which the account is a part, including costs associated with informing employees and employers of the availability of the program.

G. Governing Law

This plan shall be administered, and its validity, construction, and all rights hereunder shall be governed by the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and by the laws of the State of North Carolina to the extent not in conflict with such Book of Discipline. If any provisions of the plan shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions hereof shall continue to be fully effective.

H. Limitations on Liability

The Conference, Conference Treasurer, Board of Pensions and members of the Hearing Committee shall not be liable to any person or entity for any of their acts carried out hereunder in good faith and based upon the information available at the time.

PERU COVENANT, TASK FORCE ON

The 1996 Annual Conference marks the seventh year that our NC Conference has been in covenant relationship with the Methodist Church of Peru. During these years we have witnessed the gradual increased involvement of local churches, clergy and laity in this mission relationship. It is a relationship which is often compared to a marriage covenant: a relationship of mutuality, of trust, of accompaniment, and of growth in the better knowledge of one another. As visits have been exchanged in the past year there has been the forming of new relationships, along with witness and understanding of each other's cultural and church contexts. Central to this covenant is prayer for the remembrance of one another in the celebrating of the Eucharist the first Sunday of every month.

During the past academic year, two students from the Methodist seminary in Lima, the Comunidad Biblico Teologica, have studied at the Duke Divinity School as an expression of the continued relationship between these schools, likewise participants in the covenant between our churches. However, we continue to grieve the death of Frederick Herzog, a former professor of Systematic Theology at the Duke Divinity School, who, although a minister of the United Church of Christ, was the central figure in the forming of the relationship with our brother and sister Methodists in Peru. His contributions to this covenant over the past seven years have been tremendous, and we give God thanks for his vision, persistence and courage. As persons gathered at Pilgrim UCC in Durham for the memorial service for Professor Herzog, Methodists in Peru gathered at the same time in celebration of his life and his contributions to their church.

A team of clergy, laity and divinity students from the NC Conference visited numerous Methodist churches, schools and projects for nine days this past March. In 1995 a team of students from Methodist College went to Lima as a work team, and another team of clergy and laity visited in Peru to dialogue about the development of curriculum (written out of a Latin American context) for NC churches. We welcome the presence of a representative of the Methodist Church of Peru at our 1996 Annual Conference and will also have a representative of the NC Conference present for the Peru General Assembly in August. We celebrate the correspondence which continues between adults (both clergy and laity), youth and children of our respective churches.

May God continue to bless this relationship and give it growth. Clergy and laity are encouraged to find ways of being involved in this mission model of covenant.

RESOLUTIONS

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORT

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

The Commission met on April 8, 1995, at the UM Building in Raleigh. A presentation was given by Rev. Frank Grill, Conference Historian, on how to guide the local Church Historians in their work. This was to train our members to be effective as a resource person within the districts to assist the local church historians. Our Fall meeting was on October 21, 1995 at Louisburg College along with the Conference Historical Society meeting. We discussed the budget for 1998 and how the local churches, districts, and the Conference could live out the Conference Council on Ministries emphasis for 1997: "Growing Together in Christ for Ministry and Mission."

The NC Conference United Methodist Historical Society met on April 22, 1995 at Ocracoke and Portsmouth Islands, NC. This was an exciting and adventurous experience for those in attendance. We traveled by ferry and motor boats to get to our destination. Portsmouth Island is no longer inhabited but a Methodist Church is still there and maintained by the National Park Service. It was exciting a few days after our adventure to read an article in the newspaper, The Pilot of Southern Pines, by retired minister, Rev. W. A. Crow, about his appointment to the Ocracoke-Portsmouth Charge from late May 1936 to November 1938. This truly helped to make history come alive and emphasized the importance of recording first hand experiences. The Fall meeting of the Society was held at Louisburg College on October 21, 1995. We were drawn into the history of the college campus through the presentations of George-Anne Willard, Professor of History, Sarah I. Davis, and Lucy T. Allen, Louisburg College Trustee and Mayor of the Town of Louisburg, while sitting in the original Franklin Male Academy which is now a museum on the campus. We also visited the Green Hill house, which was the first meeting place of the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church after the Christmas Conference of 1784. Annual dues to the Society are $7 and include a subscription to the newsletter "Saddlebags," edited by Rev. C. Frank Grill, 330 Azalea Road, Southern Pines, NC 28387. Dues may be sent to Mr. John Mitchell, 622 Wimbleton Dr., Raleigh, NC 27609 or at our display table at Annual Conference.

Our Commission helped to provide training at the January Workshops of the Burlington and Sanford Districts. These were informative and greatly appreciated by those in attendance. We encourage the other districts to offer this in the near future.

The SEJ Historical Society meeting hosted by the AL-W.FL Conference was held, July 11-14, 1995 at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, AL. The theme for the occasion was "Civil War to Civil Rights." Those in attendance from our Conference were Rev. and Mrs. C. Maness Mitchell, Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Lugar, Mr. John Mitchell, Rev. and Mrs. W. Arthur Warren, Jr. and their daughters Maria, Martha and Noelle. The next meeting of the Society will be July 9-12, 1996 at the Life Enrichment Center, Leesburg, FL with the theme, "Florida Methodism: Roots and Routes."

We are thankful for the work of the local Church Historians in preserving, recording and sharing their local histories. Please send copies of your new histories and updated information to the Conference Archives at the UM Building in Raleigh. We will be glad to assist you in anyway that we can.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

Our Book of Discipline, in discussing United Methodists' Ecumenical Commitment, states, "Christian Unity is not an option; it is a gift to be received and expressed." The Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns have been seeking to give truthful expression of the gift of Christian unity in its work this year. We held our reorganizational meeting in July 1995, during which we set two goals as foci for our work this year: 1) furthering dialogues with Episcopalians and Catholics, and 2) organizing to help local churches in their own expressions of Christian unity.

In October we met with our Roman Catholic Christian Unity Commission counterparts for a shared experience of service, fellowship, and discussion. We began the day bagging sweet potatoes for the Society of Saint Andrew, and our two bishops worked side by side in this endeavor. After lunch, we met for a time of introduction and discussion together. This event was so successful that we met again in May 1996 to discuss the recent papal encyclical, "Ut Unum Sunt, (That All May Be One)." Several members of the commission have been engaged in an ongoing dialogue with Methodist and Anglicans, and in January several persons were invited to lunch with members of the International Anglican-Methodist Dialogue Committee, which was meeting in Hendersonville. They heard from our delegation, which is the only statewide study and dialogue group of its kind in the nation.

We have done member training this year so that Commission members can assist local churches in their understanding of our ecumenical challenge. Also, we will be giving the first Award for Ecumenical Ministries to a network, congregation, or individual who is giving extraordinary witness to our ecumenical calling. At the time of this writing, COCU is coming before The UMC. If General Conference approves it, United Methodist churches will have a subtitle: The Church of Christ (Uniting). Whether or not COCU is approved, local churches will want to spend time reflecting on our connection with other members of the Body of Christ. In any event, the Commission on Christian Unity stands ready to further and interpret the gift of Christian unity for the people of God.

Claire Clyburn, Chairperson

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, COMMISSION ON

Formerly combined with Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns as the Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries from 1992-1995 and by vote of the 1995 Annual Conference Session, the Commission on Church and Society once again exists as an independent commission. We have been fortunate in having a good mix of both experience and freshness on the Commission. We focused in on the theme "Growing Together in Christ for Mission and Ministry" and on what that meant for our commission. What probably best describes the Commission's purpose is the mission statement adopted by the General Board of Church and Society in 1991:

The Board of Church and Society reminds the church to declare through Word and demonstrate through Sacrament the saving judgement of the Kingdom of God. Being involved in justice ministries, in evangelizing to the poor and powerless, in advocacy for the oppressed, the church reaches out to all persons with the message of the Gospel. The Board of Church and Society challenges the church to remember that our larger tasks move us beyond meeting individual religious needs. We consider involvement in these social aspects of ministry to be "evangelical."

We have continued to be faithful by helping to sustain emerging ministries such as Clark Street Ministries in Rocky Mount and the ministries of Good Shepherd United Methodist Church in Durham. We have continued to support the ministries of SEJANAM, Yokefellows, CITCA and the Land Stewardship Council, and we have provided financial assistance for such projects as Youth Habitat for Humanity in Wilmington and for chaplaincy materials needed for the Nash Correctional Center. We have reached to our brothers and sisters through a Christian Witness Seminar on tobacco with over seventy-five participants, and plans are under way for a conference on hog farming and its effects on our communities.

Annually, the Conference Commission on Church and Society (formerly the Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries) receives nominations for the Jack and Kay Crum Award, "a financial bequest given in recognition and support of a church's or ordained clergy's incisive prophetic ministry in our midst." Regrettably, the Commission has not received any nominations for this year. Since the Commission is confident that there are many outstanding ministries in our conference that would meet this criteria, the Commission urges churches and clergy to make nominations by January 31, 1997. A copy outlining the general criteria governing the award is available upon request. All requests for information as well as all nominations should be addressed to the Peace with Justice Coordinator, North Carolina Conference Commission on Church and Society, Post Office Box 10955, Raleigh, North Carolina 27605.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Congregational Development continues to embrace the scope of work placed before us by the Annual Conference. The Into the 21st Century Report affirmed the need to start a number of new congregations each year to equal 1% of the total charges in the Conference. That translates to the challenging goal of six new congregations per year!

In 1995, five new congregations were started. Not quite six, but we praise God for the largest number of new congregations started in one year in recent memory.

They are: Christ UMC in Chapel Hill; Cornerstone UMC in Fayetteville; Pinehurst United Methodist Church in Pinehurst; Clark Street Ministries in Rocky Mount; and Harbor UMC in Wilmington. All five churches are guided by committed pastors who are seeing the Holy Spirit bless their ministries in extraordinary ways!

The work of Congregational Development is divided into three major categories: I. Leadership; II. Location; and III. Funding.

- I. Leadership - The first priority in successfully starting a new congregation is the appointment of a pastor who possesses the skills, experiences, and call that are needed for this unique and demanding ministry.
 - A. A search has been undertaken to discover pastors who would wish to be considered for such an appointment. A number of pastors are currently enrolled in a new church leadership identification group.
 - B. Several pastors from our Conference attended the Duke National Institute for New Church Development in the summer of 1995 and will continue through the second phase of the Institute in the summer of 1996. The idea is to develop a cadre of pastors who are willing and trained, from which appointments to new congregational development could be made.
- II. Location - A number of communities and locales across the Conference are being identified as likely sites for new churches.
 - A. The Percept Program continues to provide demographic profiles of the locales around the Conference that show sufficient numbers of under-served, unchurched people that would require a new church mission.
 - B. Due to funding restrictions, three locations were recommended to the Bishop and Cabinet as offering excellent opportunities to reach unchurched persons for Christ in 1996. Extensive study has illustrated the viability of these locations in Holly Springs, Carpenter (west Cary), and Wilmington. A number of other locations in the Conference are on a priority list and studies are being carried out in these areas. When monies are available, these projects will go forward.

III. Funding

- A. The Emerging Church Salary Support Fund is currently providing partial compensation for the pastors of 12 new congregations. Monies are available for the appointment of three additional pastors in July of 1996.
- B. Ten Dollar Club members were again invited to purchase multiple shares of $10 each. Interpreted with posters and new publicity materials, the changes have received a remarkably positive response.
- C. The Commission on Congregational Development is presently developing a plan to raise Endowed Funds among interested individuals for the purpose of sustaining the work of new church development into the next millennium.

The work of the Commission on Congregational Development is to support the establishment of new communities of faith across our Conference whose core commitment is to welcome new persons into the Church of Jesus Christ and equip them to become mature disciples. We are grateful to participate in this sacred ministry.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS, COMMITTEE ON

During the season of hurricane after hurricane, by the grace of God, we had no major disasters in 1995. I believe our prayer life grew as the chances of being hit by nature's fury got greater and greater. From the perspective of the Disaster Preparedness Committee we have a lot to be thankful for this year!

We cannot hope to be so blessed forever. To borrow the motto of the Boy Scouts, we need to "be prepared." I would like to also encourage the churches of the NC Conference to do two very important things in 1996. First, please appoint a person to be responsible for setting up a plan for disaster response for your local church. Next, I beg you to make sure that your church insurance is adequate to cover a total loss of your entire facility. Our committee is thankful to be able to meet human needs and to help alleviate hunger after a disaster. Please remember we do not function as an insurance agency that rebuilds damaged or destroyed church property.

Our last year's training event was so successful that many people left Queens Creek UMC in Hubert and started a disaster relief program in their own churches. This year Ocean View UMC, (Long Beach in the Wilmington District) sponsored our training event sharing their extensive efforts to prepare a local church to meet personal needs during a disaster. We hope to repeat last year's success. We also had George Button from UMCOR to train us on how to do pastoral care with children following a disaster. This year we will double our efforts in order to help our Conference to "Be Prepared."

May God bless us this year and may our prayer life continue to grow. We look forward to representing our Conference in 1996.

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Education offers various opportunities to enhance leadership for local congregations in developing Christian Education ministries. This year the commission reached a tremendous landmark in the implementation of our first District Director of Christian Education. Rev. Laura Early was appointed to the Elizabeth City District to provide key leadership for local congregations in the area of Christian Education ministries. Such a position provides opportunities for teacher training, annual curriculum overview, and maintaining a current resource center, etc. Currently, the commission is seeking other districts that are interested in such a position.

Our conference offers an exemplary program for youth ministry. In a time of constant cut back, the commission voted wholeheartedly not to cut finances for our conference youth program. The new programs implemented by the Conference Committee on Youth Ministry offer creative and effective ways to reach young people.

A Task Force for Older Adult Ministries is currently seeking new and different ways to address the needs of this age level. The Singles Ministry provided a Spring Retreat at Camp Don Lee, and also a Fall Fest which was a day seminar for singles and workers.

Our Ministry Training Teams continue to provide excellent leadership for local congregations. The Vision 2000: Sunday School Growth Model is using the MTT to follow up with the Evangelism Model: Reaching Out Through the Sunday School.

The Conference Commission on Education, in cooperation with the Vision 2000 Steering Committee, will sponsor a day event entitled "Vision 2000 - Windows to the Future," on Saturday, September 28, 1996 at the Fayetteville Civic Arena. Workshops for the day will include: Windows into the Word, (how to teach the Bible); Spiritual Awakening through Education; Tools for Church School Growth; Growing in Faith through the Sunday School; Many Opportunities for Renewal in Education; God's Vision in My Place. Workshops and learning opportunities will also be made available for children, youth, and their leaders.

The Commission has listened attentively to the needs of the local church. It is our prayer that this commission may continue to provide new windows of opportunity to empower local churches to share the gospel message.

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Concerns Committee expresses grateful appreciation to the bishop and cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries, the council program staff and the clergy and laity of the Annual Conference. The Committee has valued the support received from all of the above.

The Committee has attempted to be faithful to the Committee's mission this year. Its methods and strategies have changed from time to time, but the mission continues to be that of strengthening the ethnic minority local church for mission and ministry. Two objectives have been very significant to the work of the Committee this year: (1) to develop skills and attitudes to help United Methodist Christians learn to work with and grow in their appreciation of the diverse, multicultural mix of the constituency of this annual conference in particular and of all people in general; and, (2) to oppose and work to find ways to eradicate racism and oppression so that our world may truly become a shalom community for all the people of God.

With significant sensitivity to its mandate: TO STRENGTHEN THE ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH FOR THE 21ST CENTURY, the Committee has continued to center on the following ministries:

- (1) lay and clergy training for greater and more effective involvement in all areas of ministry at the local church level;
- (2) effective goal-setting procedures within the context of each ethnic local church's missional statement of purpose;
- (3) significant ministries in Christian education, evangelism and hospitality, mission and outreach, and strong ministries to and with youth and children at every local church level;
- (4) strong Christ-centered, biblically-based approaches to ministry at the local church level with the local church being the strategic center of ministry and with strong emphases on every Christian fulfilling his/her role as a minister; and
- (5) effective growth in spiritual formation and spiritual discipline.

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Concerns Committee continues to have in place and available upon request Ministry and Mission Equipping Teams (MAMETS) who stand ready to assist any group that wants help in understanding and implementing the Comprehensive Plan. The Committee continues to give thanks to God for the support of the Annual Conference.

William E. Cummings, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The 1995/96 conference year continued with the major program emphasis of the Commission being VISION 2000. VISION 2000 has brought new life to many congregations as they have been inspired to seek God's vision for their future. A major component of VISION 2000 has been the annual Lenten Worship Attendance Crusade. This crusade has encouraged churches to broaden their outreach into their communities by use of FRANGELISM. Church members intentionally pray for and invite "friends, relatives, acquaintances, and neighbors" to worship during Lent. Churches participating in the crusade reported average worship attendance increases from 25 - 70%. VISION 2000 also celebrated the movement of God's Spirit across the North Carolina Conference with The Great Event. This event attracted 2,000 people to a day of worship, inspiration, visioning, and celebrating at the Cumberland County Civic Center in Fayetteville. The major presenters for this event were Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., Bishop Mary Ann Swenson of the Denver Area, Dr. Joe Harding (Father of the VISION 2000 movement), and Dr. Lovett Weems (Dean of Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City). The 1996 VISION 2000 event, Windows To The Future, will be held on September 28, 1996 at the Cumberland County Civic Center. This event will offer visionary insight and training in Christian Education.

The Commission continued its works in emphasizing the ministry of evangelism in churches of all sizes in all settings. The Commission sponsored a training session for pastors serving their first appointments and a major cross-racial evangelism event led by the Commission's Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee. The Commission also has trained several evangelism teams. These teams are available, at no charge, to work with local churches to help develop a comprehensive evangelism strategy.

The Commission takes seriously the teachings of Christ that call us to respond to God's great love for us by reaching out in love to others. The Commission seeks to enable that spirit of outreach in every local church.

Ecwood C. (Eckie) Lancaster, Chairperson

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, COMMISSION ON

This will be the last report I will be privileged to give as Chairperson of the Commission on Health and Human Services. The past four years have been years of excitement, anticipation, and celebration. The work of this commission continues to grow and bear fruit for the kingdom of God. The ministries have deepened and matured over the past four years both as a result of, and in response to, our new relationship statements.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., have been recognized as an EAGLE Organization. They received this award at the Health and Welfare Ministries annual convention in Cleveland, OH, on April 13. The EAGLE (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence) Award is given to those organizations who have done an extensive self evaluation and then passed a peer review committee. We are privileged to have two EAGLE organizations. The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., is to be commended upon passing their evaluation and review.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., is in the midst of an expansion program. Eastern NC is growing as a retirement area. The number of elderly and retirees is increasing. The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., is keenly aware of this need, both present and future; and is moving to meet those needs.

The Methodist Home for Children, Youth and Family Services, continues to develop as a leader in the area of family preservation. The move from a campus based ministry to a family based ministry has opened new and ever expanding opportunities to impact on the lives of individuals and families. This ministry of family counseling and preservation will reap benefits for our society and our state.

The Asbury Homes is anticipating the opening of their first home for mentally retarded adults. Goremont is being leased from the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., and will be operated as a ministry of the Asbury Homes, Inc. It is anticipated that Goremont will be in operation by the first of May. This is a ministry that has been a vision for a number of years. We rejoice that it is finally coming to pass.

The Golden Cross Fund continues to need our support and prayers. For the past four years we have exhausted our funds before the end of the year. The past three years has seen this fund depleted before Annual Conference. Churches may receive a special offering to help supplement this fund. I encourage each church to offer its members an opportunity to give a special offering of love to this need. The Golden Cross can only be used by the laity to help pay for medical bills. Good stewardship necessitates that applications be processed to help those genuinely in need. If there is a need in your church, please complete an application and forward it to our Golden Cross director.

There is a new ministry beginning to take shape. The Parish Nurse program is one form of congregational health care. We have a Parish Nurse committee which has been meeting, planning, and praying for this ministry. There will be an Introductory Parish Nurse Workshop offered on September 7, 1996, at the Zebulon UMC from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm. The cost will be $30.00 if postmarked prior to July 31 and $40.00 after July 31. Information may be obtained from Sue Kiryluk, 11012 Debnam Road, Zebulon, NC 27597. Our Parish Nurse Committee is: Sue Kiryluk (919) 269-0988; Kay Ferraro (919) 362-5982; Laura Pennington (910) 229-5997; and LaDena Cotten (919) 693-5306.

The Duke Chaplaincy Program is one which is often under-utilized. Rev. Jim Rawlings is a UM Chaplain assigned to Duke Hospital. He is available to make pastoral visits for Pastors who are unable to personally visit. In addition to making visits, Jim is involved in counseling and in support for Divinity Students at Duke. Due to our budgetary shortfall, our support of the Duke Chaplaincy program has been reduced. Yet, this ministry is one of direct outreach to people in need.

Our Committee on Handicapping Conditions has taken the initiative on church accessibility. SEMAR is no longer awarding grants to assist churches in becoming more accessible. This year we have awarded two accessibility grants to churches in our conference to help assist with accessibility projects.

The workshop on AIDS had to be postponed. Our goal was to have three representatives from each District to be trained as a District Team. This team would then work with churches within their District to begin ministries to persons living with AIDS; those who have tested positive for HIV; and their families. The workshop may be offered at some time in the future.

The possibilities for ministry are many: day care; drug abuse; alcoholism; persons with special needs; senior citizens; handicapping conditions; parish nurse; community based adult day care; medicine box program; hospice volunteer ministry; and other ministries which directly minister to people in need are all valid ministries in which churches may become involved.

Please continue to support our Children's Home and Retirement Homes through special offerings. Also, the Food Lion Days program is an additional opportunity to help support these institutions.

The ministry of Health and Human Services is a ministry which is growing and changing in a world that is growing and changing. May God continue to guide us, both as a conference and as individual churches, as we minister in the name of Christ.

It has been a joy and a privilege to have served as the Chairperson of this commission for the past four years. My prayer is that the work may continue to move forward; and that the name of Jesus Christ may be proclaimed in all that is done in ministry. My thanks to the members of this commission for their trust and support. May God continue to bless each and every one.

The Asbury Homes, Inc.

The Asbury Homes, Inc., is proud to announce that as this report is being prepared, the first residential facility is being prepared to admit the first residents into the Asbury Homes program. The Home is located in Tabor City in the Wilmington District. The Home is known as Goremont and is owned by the United Methodist Retirement Homes Inc., and is being leased to Asbury Homes, Inc., by the Retirement Home, Inc.

The Home is being prepared to house four to five adults with mental retardation. A fire-escape is being added to the rear of the house to bring the facility up to fire, health and safety code. Once these additions are completed, the house will be inspected by the appropriate agencies to be licensed and certified for occupancy.

Applications are being received from potential residents in the Columbus County area of the State who will qualify for Medicaid waiver funding to enable Asbury Homes, Inc., to operate this first home at a break-even point.

Asbury Homes, Inc., was created at a time when HUD was able to provide the funding for construction of homes for agencies to use as Group Homes or Supportive Living Alternatives, but in the last year the budget uncertainties have made it impossible for HUD to make any 811 Grants. At the present time in view of the fact that there is no budget adopted by the congress, HUD does not know when it will be able to fund such grants again.

The State of NC does not have any available money with which to purchase residential alternatives such as is being projected by Asbury Homes, Inc. The only available money is to assist the state in placing residents from the state institutions in the community.

The state of NC has been providing up to $65,000 as "start up" money for new homes but that is no longer available.

Asbury Homes, Inc., tried, unsuccessfully, to secure "start up" funds from the Conference Council on Finance and Administration to help put Goremont into operation. Since no other state and/or federal funds are available, Asbury Homes, Inc., has had to borrow $50,000 for "start up" funds to be paid out of operational income or from voluntary contributions from churches or individuals in the NC Annual Conference.

Asbury Homes, Inc., is planning to develop a ministry to the geriatric adult with mental retardation, in cooperation with the United Methodist Retirement Homes Corporation. Persons with mental retardation were once referred to as "children" and most did not live beyond adolescent or teen years. Today, persons with mental retardation, like anyone else, live to be senior citizens, but seldom are there appropriate residential programs developed that allow them the right to retire or to live out their senior years in dignity. Asbury Homes, Inc., is working to devise a ministry that will help families with family members who are geriatric adults with mental retardation to live out their years with comfort and dignity.

Churches, church groups such as UMM or UMW or Church School Classes, or interested individuals who would like to help Asbury Homes in the development of this ministry are urged to contact Mr. Tom Walden at (919) 544-1284.

Thomas L. Walden, President

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross Ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity within our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of great emotional stress and financial need.

1995 was another record year for Golden Cross. Once again, we received an "avalanche" of requests. By June we had exhausted our "promised" funds! We had budgeted $25,294 for 1995, which was almost $2,000 less than the previous year, and promised it all. During 1995 we assisted 27 families from 10 Districts in our Conference. This could have been much higher if we had had more funds available. If your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, %Caroline Buckland, POBox 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Golden Cross is a very special ministry.

Therefore, as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. With God's help, and your generosity, we will meet every eligible request with the funds we have. In the past, we United Methodists in the NC Annual Conference have been most gracious in making these funds available to all United Methodists.

The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need. God bless you.

Methodist Home for Children Child & Family Services

OUR NEW NAME!

We have added some descriptive words to our name to better describe what we do. The name is now Methodist Home for Children Child & Family Services, and to shorten it, most of the time we say MHC Child & Family Services. Serving troubled children and families is the work that we do.

ANOTHER RECORD YEAR

In doing that work in 1995, we served 474 children in out-of-home care. That record surpasses all other years of service. We served a total of 743 children in all services from 562 families. The services were provided in 17 youth homes and 110 foster homes. There were 9 family preservation specialists serving clients in their own homes. The agency provides consultation in child day care and family centered services to local churches and other groups.

NEW SERVICES

Two additional youth homes were opened in Wilmington operated for New Hanover County. An emergency receiving home was opened in Tarboro, a cooperative program for Nash, Edgecombe and Wilson Counties. MHC Child & Family Services was chosen to open two Family Support Centers in Sampson and Hoke Counties. These two centers are model programs providing easy access to services by families in those areas.

FUNDING MAKES IT POSSIBLE

$262,610 was given to MHC through the Apportionments. This money together with other annual giving, grants and income on the Endowment provided more than $2,000,000 for benevolent care to children and families in need. The support of the Annual Conference is critical in providing the foundation for services which in 1995 were valued at $8,500,000.

NEW CENTURY CAMPAIGN

The new century for MHC Child & Family Services will begin in 1999. That year is our target year for the $7,000,000 New Century Campaign, which invites investment in future quality services to troubled children and families. To date, $1,800,000 has been received in cash, property and pledges. The Centennial Goal calls for the gifts of all who care about quality services to children and families. The success of this campaign will be a fitting celebration for 100 Years of Leadership.

THE CHURCH: A FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

Many children and youth are suffering today. That is a sure sign that families are in distress. There are many indications that family dysfunction is the number one problem in our country at the present time. It is the observation and lament of many pastors that when a family is suffering dysfunction, the family will drop out of church. It is as if the church is not perceived as a place for troubled people to be.

Jesus once commented that the well have no need of the physician, that He comes that the sick might be whole. This issue demands our attention: How can we as local churches better position ourselves to engage in a positive way, the wide range of families who are hurting?

MHC Child & Family Services has responded to this challenge. We have dedicated two staff persons to do consultation with local churches and other groups interested in doing intentional family centered services to better address the needs of families experiencing difficulty. These staff are: Diaconal Minister Ms. Margaret Anne Biddle, Consultant in Child Day Care; and The Rev. Dr. Tracy Maness, Consultant in Intentional Family Centered Services. They may be reached at (919) 828-0345.

Pastors, Council on Ministries, and Staff Parish Relations Committees are encouraged to call on these resource persons in addressing the urgent need for ministry which extends to those who are hurting.

The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

The United Methodist Retirement Homes is blessed with a strong foundation - our roots have been grounded in the faith of The UMC for more than 40 years. This faith influences attitudes and relationships that add a spiritual aspect to life in our retirement communities. The spiritual essence and our commitment to quality enable us to fulfill our mission to "ensure the elderly the respect and dignity that is their right as members of the human community."

The residents, the Trustees, the staff, and I are deeply indebted to UMs in the NC Annual Conference for your support of The United Methodist Retirement Homes. As I thank you, I want also to applaud our staff - those who work in each facility as well as those who serve in the corporate office. As a whole, these individuals are skilled, committed, caring persons and are loved by our residents. The staff is an integral component of our solid foundation.

This year we have continued to build on our strong foundation. The new health care center at Cypress Glen has begun to serve the needs of many people and the added apartments and cottages also will meet the demand for more housing at the Greenville facility. Construction is progressing at Croasdaile Village in Durham; hundreds of older adults will make this community their home in the near future. Wesley Pines, for the first time in its history, is full and has a waiting list. Also, we are exploring the possibility of purchasing Quail Haven Village in Pinehurst and adding skilled nursing care to that facility, which we now manage.

In our effort to sell the Erwin Road campus, we discovered that we could not get an amount close to what was anticipated without selling the 125 nursing home beds that are certified for the Coble Health Care Center. We have accepted an offer to purchase the open (undeveloped) land and have been in discussion with the officers of the Duke Medical Center to lease to them a number of beds at Coble to operate a sub-acute care unit. We would propose for United Methodist Retirement Homes to continue to operate 60-75 of the beds as a skilled nursing facility. Also, there have been discussions with the Dean and other officials of the Duke Divinity School about utilizing some of the present apartments and villas for divinity student housing.

In exploring various scenarios for marketing the Erwin Road property as well as looking at the financing for Cypress Glen and Croasdaile Village, it became apparent to the Board that it would be legally prudent for The United Methodist Retirement Homes to set up each of the respective facilities as a subsidiary corporation. All of the Boards would have the same elected members and some conference-wide ex officio members. The Local Boards would have specified ex officio members, too. The officers would be the same for the parent board and for each of the subsidiary boards of trustees. Our attorneys believe this to be a very positive step at this time in our corporation's history. Many of our sister UM multi-facility corporations are structured already as outlined above. This process will be submitted to the Board of Institutions for review.

The Board of Trustees elected new officers at their September meeting. We are fortunate to have a dedicated leader in Gary Fisher of Rockingham who was selected as president. He succeeds Dr. Walter Linville of Wilson who provided outstanding leadership during his two-year term of office. The residents, the staff, and I are indebted to our Board for their gifts of time and assets to insure the continued stability and growth of our ministry. In 1995 Board members increased their giving by almost 300 percent. Their gifts, contributions to the annual conference, and donations from the many friends of The United Methodist Retirement Homes have bolstered our Benevolent Funds which provide for the care of older persons who have depleted their resources. This ministry enables some residents, who otherwise would not have funds, to live the Abundant Life - with dignity, security, meaning and fulfillment - that is "their right as members of the human community."

Your support of our Mother's Day Offering to help fund benevolent care also has been outstanding. These residents receiving benevolent care are our senior church members whose many years of service have enriched our state, our conference, our congregations, and our lives. This is our opportunity to give back to them a portion of what they have given so generously to us through the years. We need your continued support as we carry out our Special Gifts Campaign for Croasdaile Village and the expansion at Cypress Glen.

As life - the Abundant Life - of our older adults stretches to greater lengths and broadens to wider horizons, the ministry of The United Methodist Retirement Homes is to reinforce positive aging and, drawing from our roots of faith, to meet ethically their changing needs.

Thank you, my sisters and brothers in Christ, for being such a significant part of this vital ministry.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

The relationship between The United Methodist Church and its institutions of higher education has been anything but static. In our own Conference the relationship has been somewhat in flux because of the reduction of financial support to the institutions. We do not perceive the financial reductions as a reduction in commitment but a result of other demands on the Conference's budget. The creation of the Board of Institutions and the election of college trustees by the individual colleges' Boards of Trustees (60%) and by the Board of Institutions (40%) has also caused us to be more intentional about strengthening the relationship between the Church and the colleges.

Over the years we have seen other church-related colleges drift away from the denominations which gave birth to them. In some instances all ties have been severed. The colleges of our Conference and the NC Conference Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry are committed to seeing that our ties to one another remain strong.

To this end, the Commission engaged in a dialogue with the Bishop and Cabinet. Each college and a group representing the Church held individual discussions prior to the meeting of the Commission and Cabinet. The Church body asked itself what it meant to be a church that is in ministry through higher education. What are the Church's expectations from such a ministry? By the same token, the colleges asked what it meant to be a college related to The UMC. How do we, as a college, participate in the Church's ministry?

Dr. John White, who was inaugurated as NC Wesleyan College's fourth president on January 25, 1996, said in his Inaugural Address:

The faith-seeking College needs the Church. We seek faith in order that our knowledge might be deeper, that our understanding keener, and that we might seek something worth believing in. The Church needs the College as an outgrowth to faith itself which seeks understanding. Faith without understanding withers; it is incomplete. John and Charles Wesley recognized this mutuality as uniting knowledge and vital piety.

The dialogue between the Commission and the Cabinet resounded with promises of mutual support. There were numerous affirmations regarding the importance of this ministry

The concern shared by both the colleges and the Church was the difficulty of interpreting our ministry in higher education to both the laity and clergy of the Church. There are exciting ministries going on at all our colleges as well as at our campus ministries on non-church-related campuses. This word must be spread to every corner of the Conference.

In the coming quadrennium the challenge is to tell the story of this vital ministry. To the extent that we are able to share the Church's story with the colleges and share the colleges' ministries with the Church, we will strengthen the tie that binds.

Campus Ministry, State Commission on Campus Ministry continues to work in partnership with local churches and the Annual Conferences in serving the student population. Approximately 150 local churches across the state have either visited or have been visited by a campus ministry unit through youth rallies, worship teams, or mission teams. UM ministries on the campus include Bible study, worship and the sacraments, retreats, spiritual formation, Christian ethics, mission teams both within and outside the country, tutoring services for area children and others.

Two Wesley Foundations underwent the periodic review by the State Commission in the last year. Campus Ministry units at NCSU and at UNC-G both received strong marks for their creativity and faithfulness in their mission to students. In 1996, Western Carolina and Winston-Salem State University will be visited in the review.

During the Fall of 1995, the NC State Commission on Campus Ministry embarked on a mission to plan for the next quadrennium. Using a designed survey instrument, listening sessions were conducted throughout the state at each campus which receives funding for UM campus ministry. The points listed below summarize the common concerns identified in the visits. The State Commission adopted these items for consideration by the members of the 1996-2000 State Commission members.

- Interpretation - Develop a strategy to interpret to church people the excitement of campus ministry and how that ministry reflects church concerns.
- Partnerships - Explore with campus ministries and local churches strategies for partnerships to support shared ministry.
- Finances - Review annual conference support of campus ministry. Work with local sites to develop avenues for additional support. (Suggestions include sponsoring workshops on fundraising and development.)
- Building Needs - Ministry sites with facilities should assess their building repair and improvement needs. At campuses where no building exists, an assessment should be made to determine facility needs. Annual conferences and campus ministry boards collaborate to formulate strategies to meet those needs.
- Staffing - Work with local campus ministry boards when staff changes are anticipated to investigate creative staffing patterns.
- Expanding Ministries - Identify four potential sites for campus ministry expansion during the 1996-2000 quadrennium. While simultaneously maintaining support to existing campus ministries, work with United Methodists near the sites to pursue the proposed ministry.

(The entire report can be referenced in "Listening for the Future: A Report for the North Carolina State Commission on Campus Ministry.")

The Commission recommends the following revisions to the Campus Ministry Handbook:

- I. The membership of the Local Campus Ministry Conference shall consist of the following: [amend by substituting the following for the original]
 - A. Ex Officio
 1. The District Superintendent of the District in which the Campus Ministry is located.
 2. The Campus Ministry Professional Staff.
 3. One or more Pastor/s or Christian Educator/s or Chairperson/s of the Council on Ministry(ies) of the local church(es) traditionally related to the institution(s) served.
 4. Members of the State Commission residing in the community.
 5. The Executive Director of Campus Ministry in the Annual Conference where the ministry is located.
 - B. At-Large

At least 12 members with representation from each of the following categories: students, faculty/staff, laypersons from area churches.

- C. Service Terms for elected members Elected members will serve for one-year terms with the possibility of serving a total of six years. After six years a member must be off the Board for one year before being eligible for reelection.
- II. Proposed Revisions to Committees in the Local Campus Ministry Organization
- A. Amend the sentence which currently reads: "There shall be organized in..." to more permissive language: "There may be organized in..." New statement to read:
The Campus Ministry Conference must care for the functions of: finance, facilities, nominations for officers and new members, personnel, and program. In order to fulfill these responsibilities, there may be organized in each Local Campus Ministry program the following standing committees nominated annually by the local committee on nominations and elected by the Local Campus Ministry Conference.
- B. In each of the Committees (Nominations, Finance, Facilities, and Campus Minister Relations) amend by changing "shall consist of not less than five or more than seven" to read "not less than three or more than five."
- III. We propose these internal revisions to Committees:
- A. That in the Committee on Nominations, final sentence, "The Campus Minister shall serve as chair of this committee."
- B. That the Committee on Campus Minister Relations in the future be called "The Committee on Personnel."
- C. And for clarity that in each committee we use consistent wording that clarifies how often committees are elected and by whom, so that the wording in each case would read:
"The Committee... shall consist of not less than three or more than five members elected annually by the Campus Ministry Conference upon recommendation by the Committee on Nominations."
- D. In addition, we recommend that a Committee on Program may be organized. We suggest the following wording:
"The Committee on Program shall consist of not less than three or more than five members elected annually by the Local Campus Ministry Conference upon recommendation by the Committee on Nominations. The Campus Minister shall be an ex-officio member of this committee. The committee shall be responsible for recommending short and long-range goals and objectives for the campus ministry to be adopted by the Local Campus Ministry Conference."

Finally, the commitment to campus ministry is extraordinarily evident in the Campus Chaplains who serve and in their respective communities. The work of the State Commission is critical in keeping alive the heritage of UMs in Christian higher education.

The Candler School of Theology

Candler School of Theology of Emory University is committed to preparing effective and dynamic leadership for The UMC. It seeks to do this by maintaining close ties with clergy and laity. Based on conversations with these constituent groups, the Candler faculty has reviewed and revised its degree curriculum to assure a solid biblical foundation and strong preaching background for its graduates. Required Bible faculty and a foundational class on the basics of vital preaching will prepare students for a lifetime of study in these two important disciplines.

Candler faculty stays abreast of concerns of local church members through preaching, teaching, and leading workshops for churches and conferences. During 1995-96 Candler faculty traveled to 25 states to participate in lay theology academies, pastors' schools, Christian educators' fellowships, revivals, laity retreats, and other church events. Through the recently instituted Avary Program in Church Leadership, customized workshops will be presented by Candler free of charge to churches, districts, and annual conferences interested in revitalizing clergy and lay leadership.

The educational program available at Candler has been strengthened this year by the addition of three new faculty members. Dr. Nancy Eiesland, a Candler and Emory University graduate, teaches in the area of sociology of religion. One of her specialties is the study of how congregations respond to community change. Dr. Timothy Jackson teaches in the area of Christian ethics. He will also offer courses in medical ethics, using insights he has gleaned from his service on the ethics board of a denominationally affiliated retirement home. Dr. Neal Walls, an Old Testament professor, is interested in the religious traditions of ancient Israel, especially as a context for understanding Hebrew texts found in the Old Testament.

As the largest of the 13 official UM seminaries, Candler is looking toward the future of the church as it prepares students for faithful and creative ministries. The school recently received a $3.3 million grant for The Pew Charitable Trust to support a program to develop Hispanic religious leadership by promoting Hispanic participation in the theological education. Candler's administration of this program will help prepare persons to proclaim the Gospel in an increasingly diverse church.

Just as Candler seeks to support local churches, the seminary continues to benefit from the support of local churches for theological education through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF), as well as the generosity of faithful individuals. We are grateful for these gifts and the prayers of the conference for our students, faculty, and staff. We give thanks for the partnership Candler has with this conference in preparing future leaders of the church.

Statistics for 1995-96: Total enrollment 616; M.Div. Enrollment: 450; Full-time faculty: 40; Tuition 1995-96: $9,200; and 94 percent of all M.Div. students receive financial aid.

R. Kevin LaGree, Dean and Professor of Divinity

The Divinity School of Duke University

In its mission of professional education for Christian ministry, Duke Divinity School continues its established history of authentic spiritual and intellectual creativity, guided by an unambiguous commitment to the scripture and the Christian tradition. As part of this commitment, the Divinity School is taking steps to expand its curricular offerings by altering the name of the Master of Religious Education program to the Master in Church Ministries. The change in nomenclature has been approved by our accrediting agency, the Association of Theological Schools in the US and Canada. This will allow the school to broaden its offerings for those persons called to lay ministry. Students will be able to choose from a variety of tracks in the program including: Christian education, church music, church administration, and spiritual direction. Only the first track - Christian education - will be opened in 1996.

This past year the divinity School enrolled 503 students comprised of persons from 33 states and nine foreign countries. Currently 60% of the student body is United Methodist, and 40% represent 38 other denominations. Degree candidates include: 388 M.Div., 16 M.R.E., 40 M.T.S., 39 Th.M. and 20 Special. Twenty-seven students entered in January. The Divinity School includes 36% female and 11% ethnic minority students; the median age of the students body is 27.

The Divinity School lost two dear friends and colleagues with the death of Frederick Herzog, professor of systematic theology, on October 9, 1995, and Grant S. Shockley, emeritus professor of Christian education, on February 16, 1996. Dr. Herzog's commitment to the poor and the oppressed brought the school into dialogue on global concerns of peace and justice. Dr. Shockley served with distinction for eight years as director of the Black Church Affairs Office. They will both be sorely missed.

Susan Dunlap was named to the ministerial division as an assistant professor of pastoral theology. Dr. Dunlap is an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and holds a Ph.D. from Princeton Theological Seminary. Brett Webb-Mitchell has joined the faculty as an assistant professor of Christian nurture. Dr. Webb-Mitchell has been with the school since 1993 as a visiting assistant professor.

Bishop C.P. Minnick, Jr. will be joining the Divinity School in September as Bishop-in-Residence. Bishop Minnick, who is presently serving as bishop of the Raleigh episcopal area and has served as bishop of the Jackson episcopal area, will provide invaluable help to our students and faculty, especially in their relationships with the church. Richard Hays was promoted to professor of New Testament. Dr. Hays is noted for his work in Pauline theology and New Testament ethics. Susan Keefe, a church historian and specialist in Carolingian manuscripts, has been promoted to associate professor of church history with tenure. Roberta Schaafsma, Divinity School associate/reference librarian, has been granted continuing appointment, a librarian's functional equivalent of tenure.

The Communications Office and the Divinity School Library launched world wide web home pages for the Divinity School in the fall. Those with a connection to the Internet, in any part of the world, now have immediate access to information on the school and its library. The web pages can be accessed at <http://www.duke.edu/divinity/> and <http://www.lib.duke.edu/divinity/>

"United Methodism and American Culture," a Lilly Endowment-funded project, has completed its research and conference phase, Publication of its findings by the UM Publishing House will begin in 1997. The conference was held in August at Epworth By The Sea, St. Simons Island, GA, and featured papers by scholars and church leaders.

The annual Convocation and Pastor's School will be held October 21-23 1996, at Duke Divinity School. The Gray Lectures will feature theologian Harvey Cox, Victor Thomas, professor of religion at Harvard University, who is highly regarded commentator on the meaning of religion in contemporary culture. The Hickman Lectures will be given by The Rev. Barbara Brown Taylor, a noted Episcopal priest and homiletician. A brochure and registration materials will be mailed in the summer.

Carter S. Askren, Director of Communications

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

There has been continued excitement in our Annual Conference this year, as we have maintained our emphasis on "Vision 2000" and "Transformation 2000." Laity and clergy are working together to equip persons in our local churches to work, lead and celebrate God's grace. Key events are highlighted below:

Transformation 2000

Transformation 2000 is designed to call lay people to leadership roles in revitalizing and renewing the church and to help equip people nominated by their local churches as leaders. Persons involved gain insight into the mission and purpose of God's church.

November 17-19, 1995, laypersons selected by their local churches were afforded an opportunity to become equipped through the commission on Laity's Transformation 2000 event, held at Atlantic Beach. The Transformation 2000 weekend, "Equipping Emerging Laity" was an intensive time for workshops and worship in a relaxed setting. It was a time of community building, study, sharing and tremendous personal growth. Evaluations indicated that this was indeed an exciting time in the life of The UMC in the NC Conference. We give thanks to God for all members of the Transformation 2000 Planning Committee who gave unselfishly of their time and talents.

The 1996 "Transformation 2000" event is scheduled for November 16, 1996 at Haymount UMC, Fayetteville. The keynoter for the event will be Mrs. Garlinda Burton, editor for the Interpreter magazine.

Lay initiatives

January workshops were held in our districts and again they provided training for laity in leadership positions in the local church. The Commission and the CCOM approved the dates for 1997 workshops at their recent meeting. Those dates are 1/5/97 (central) and 1/12/97 (coastal). More information will be forthcoming about NEW options relative to January workshops.

District lay rallies were again celebrative; providing time for recognition, mission fairs, uplifting Christian fellowship and dynamic speakers. Many of our districts, under the direction of very able lay leaders are sharing new and creative ventures with the laity.

All of these events will help "prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers of ministry and mission." The Commission on laity takes this responsibility seriously as we continue to get the message out.

Lay speaking: Many lay speakers from our Conference shared their gifts by ministering in the WNC and Louisville Conferences, and in several foreign countries as well as in many local churches in the NC Conference.

In addition to filling the pulpit, occasionally, several lay speakers are taking part in three or more charges to allow congregations to worship every Sunday. This has been well received by laity and it also means a service every Sunday with no additional cost.

Each year a number of certified lay speakers elect to change and become part-time lay pastors. This is a great endorsement for the quality of lay speakers in our Conference and the committed leadership of Tom Walden, Conference Director of Lay Speaking.

The next conference lay speaking course on "Faith Sharing" will be held August 1996 at Methodist College.

The work of the laity has been blessed by the leadership of Carol Hayes, Conference Staff Representative to the Commission on Laity. The Commission is committed to continuing to provide opportunities for leader development and spiritual growth among laity as we serve as partners in ministry with the clergypersons in our Conference.

"All God's people in all places and in all times are called to love and to serve." (Ministry of the Laity, General Board of Discipleship)

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate, as a tool that channels United Methodist-related news throughout and beyond North Carolina, has made continuous progress and enjoyed consistent growth since I started as editor in 1994. The paper, 12 pages every two weeks produced via desktop publishing, is funded through a combination of subscriptions, endowments, and contributions from both United Methodist conferences in the state. It offers readers a blend of national, state, district and local church United Methodist news, editorials, commentaries, reviews, poetry, and regular columns by Harold Bales, Bob Baldrige, Paul Lowder, Elizabeth Holbrooks, Brenda Wills, Jacquie Mishoe, Ruth Lucier, Robert Dodd, Mike Stanton-Rich, and others that cover virtually every area of church life.

This past year, columns by both bishops educating readers on United Methodist beliefs, columns oriented to computer users in the church, a special feature on the International Women's Conference in China, and a regular cartoon, "Kudzu," by nationally-known cartoonist Doug Marlette, are just a few examples of the range and depth of reporting that has highlighted the Advocate pages.

In the planning stages for the remainder of 1996 and 1997 are: increased computerization and visibility of the paper through the Internet via links with the General Church and ecumenical church networks (perhaps a Home Page, or a link to one); regular promotional thrusts through local churches to expand visibility of the paper to readers of all ages; and a continued exploration of those stories and issues that shape United Methodism.

The Advocate, a outreach ministry that touches nearly 15,000 people every other week, will continue to tell the story of the church.

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Missions and Outreach rejoices in the caring, compassionate work of UM Christians in all places in 1995. The world is our parish, and many have been helped and encouraged through individual and corporate acts of love. In 1995, the work of the commission included:

Education and Cultivation. Three schools of Christian mission were held, educating over 500 people on Europe, the UN, and Ecclesiastes and highlighting Conference mission projects. The Rainbow Covenant fellowship continues to grow, as churches pay their apportionments in full and then go the second mile in giving to the five lanes of the Advance (World, National, Conference, Missionary Salary Support, and UMCOR). New pastor training included presentation of conference mission emphases and encouragements to missional leadership in their communities. Jesse Staton, conference mission secretary, and the 12 district mission secretaries are ready to assist local churches in the development of mission outreach. Contact these resource people with your questions and requests!

Volunteers-in-Mission. Over 30 workteams organized on the local church, district, and conference level have worked in the conference, in the US, and 11 countries in the world beyond. Five teams worked on the construction of a new parsonage in San Isidro, Costa Rica, and four teams rebuilt the church in Jaramillo, Mexico. John Wesley observed, "The reason we so little understand the poor is that we so seldom visit them." UMWIM offers you a chance to join the over 300 volunteers in 1995 who witness with enthusiasm to wonderful visits, meaningful mutual helping, and growth in understanding and compassion!

Church and Community. Grants were made in 1995 to a number of local missions, including Good Shepherd UMC English as a Second Language Ministry, Carolina Beach Ministry, and the Interfaith Hospitality Networks in Durham, Cumberland, and Wake counties. Contact David Harvin if your local church would like to apply for funds to strengthen mission in your community.

Construction Assistance to Local Churches. Gary Smith, conference construction coordinator, gives direction and expertise in our effort to assist churches with capital building needs. In 1995, 10 construction projects yielded an estimated savings of $327,100 in these local congregations: Siler City Hispanic Mission, La Trinidad, Evergreen, Eureka, Rehobeth, Mt. Carmel, Lane's Chapel, Pink Hill, Rhyne Memorial, and Branch Street. As you consider building or expansion projects, consider this valuable resource of our annual conference.

Special World Mission Emphases: Armenia, Liberia, Peru

In Armenia, Project AGAPE, (a joint project of the NC and the Western NC Annual Conferences) offers expanding ministries in the areas of pastoral care, theological education, health care, vocational education, and - most recently - in the needs of children orphaned as a result of the continuing violence and war. An orphanage was started in 1995 in Latchin with great faith and hope and meager supplies and resources. Your gifts will continue the furnishing and resourcing of the orphanage which at the end of 1995 was caring for over 50 children.

In Peru, the covenant of prayer and Christian friendship between the NC Annual Conference and the Methodist Church of Peru continues to be a channel of blessing. We continue to be present with Peruvian Methodists in their annual conference, and we support one another in prayer, study, and mutual assistance.

In Liberia, the St. Matthews School was completed and furnished with desks, books, and school supplies. Thank you for your gifts that continue to meet critical needs of the Liberian Church and the people of Liberia.

The goal of the Commission on Missions and Outreach is fourfold: educating for mission, inspiring for mission, encouraging generosity for mission, and sending people forth in mission. As we can help in these ways, please contact any member of our commission. It is our hope and our prayer that our work together with you will result in caring work done to the glory of Christ.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

The Native American Ministry Committee is composed of seven members (five from the Native American community). The basic responsibilities are to a) determine the distribution of the Native American Awareness Sunday offering; b) coordinate the promotion of Native American Awareness Sunday; and c) monitor Native American ministries within the Annual Conference. Also, the committee established the Reverend Simeon F. Cummings Native American Endowment (which raised over $12,000 in its first year).

1996 goals are three-fold. First, the committee wants to increase the Native American Awareness Sunday offering by ten percent. Second, we are beginning the process of recruiting Native Americans who can go to all the churches in one district in 1997 to conduct, teach or lead during the Native American Awareness Sunday. Last, we will continue to send a $2,000 grant to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Agency for Native American Ministries, Inc. The grant helps to develop and to implement Native American ministries in our jurisdiction. This is a form of connectionalism.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

The Wind of God's spirit, the Water that refreshes and cleanses us outside as well as inside, and the Word that feeds our spirits and tells us of God and who we are as God's people. "Wind, Water, and the Word" is our theme for summer camp 1996. In the summer and throughout the year, camping ministry provides a multitude of ways to draw closer to God, to experience wind, water and Word. We rejoice in the growth of our camping ministry while we look forward to increased support of and participation in our camping ministry from our local UM Churches.

In 1995, we had 2658 to participate in the summer camping programs at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish. Usage of Camp Kerr Lake, summer camping and year around retreat group usage of Camps Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish brought a camper day total for 1995 just under 60,000. Our camps continue to see increased usage of camp facilities throughout the year by retreat groups, civic and community groups, and school groups. Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish have added new staff to deal with increasing program opportunities and demands. Our camps are looking into expanded ministries with school groups as well as day camp and resident camping programs for year-round school systems. While Camp Kerr Lake experienced flooding during the peak summer weeks, full capacity on the weekends and holidays was usual.

We are blessed with the leadership we have in our camping ministry through manager/directors: John Farmer, Bill Howington, and Dennis Tawney. In addition each camp has valuable support staff and other personnel contributing to their ministries. The hard work and dedication of each camp's local committee is truly appreciated. We are also thankful for the leadership offered from the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries and the Board of Directors. Much time and effort over the course of 1995 and continuing into 1996 has been put into the establishment of comprehensive policies with regard to our camps and their operation as well as a fully documented and developed risk management plan. The Board of Directors continues in these efforts. The Commission will continue with efforts to connect our camping ministry with the local churches of the Conference.

While many positive things have been happening in camping ministry over the last year, our camps continue to have very real needs which local UM Churches can help to meet. Support of our camping ministry by local churches having retreats, meetings and outings at our camp facilities will be a blessing to all. Encouragement of children and youth from churches to come to summer camp and promoting camp as a place of summer employment for faithful college students and young adults are ways local churches can support our camping ministry. Local church groups can also support camping ministry through participation in spring or fall workdays at camp, by adopting camp buildings for care and upkeep, and by financial contributions to the camps (directly to a camp or through the Advance Special). We look to the continued faithful support of the NC Annual Conference for camping ministry.

PRISON MINISTRY AND PRISON REFORM, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee has held three meetings since the last Annual Conference. Our meetings are held at the Methodist Building, in local churches and at prison sites. In September, 1995, we met at the Correctional Institution for Women in Raleigh and had the opportunity to tour the facility, which included visiting the MATCH project at the unit, which is a project of The United Methodist Women. We also shared our faith with the four residents on Death Row, as well as visiting in several dormitories and having lunch in the cafeteria. The chaplains at the prison were our hosts during the visit, and we met briefly with the KAIROS volunteers who were preparing for a future weekend spiritual retreat with residents at the institution. The Committee has met previously at Central Prison in Raleigh and Neuse Correctional Center in Goldsboro.

Many of the Committee members participate in a prison ministry, working independently with Yokefellows or Prison Fellowship Ministries or joining with local church groups to engage in a special prison or jail ministry in their district. Committee members have also spoken to many UM Church groups concerning the importance of and the types of prison ministries that are available. We hope soon to have videos available in the Conference Media Center. We currently have printed material available at the Methodist Building in Raleigh.

The Committee has adopted the following Mission Statement:

Our Commitment. The Committee on Prison Ministry and Prison Reform of the North Carolina Conference is committed to providing services and opportunities for United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference to achieve and maintain an understanding of prison ministry and the importance of prison reform based upon Christian principles. The Committee seeks to relate in a Christian manner to the individual inmate and his/her family and to the victim and their families.

Accomplishing Our Mission. The Committee's mission is accomplished by sharing goals and objectives through workshops on Prison Ministry and Prison Reform, by developing an understanding of the Biblical mandate, through the coordination of all programs that fulfill our mission, and by identifying opportunities and focusing resources. All efforts of the committee are shared with the conference, districts, local churches and the community at large.

Strategies. To reduce crime and to deal with criminals and their families, strategies emphasize education and prevention of crime, alternatives to prison, fair sentencing, proposing programs and ministries, victim awareness, victim restitution, counseling of families of prisoners, chaplaincy services, prison rehabilitation services, rights of inmates, restoration of victims of crimes, substance abuse, vocational training of inmates and employment of those released from prison.

Jesus reminds us in Matthew 25:36b that our mission should include a ministry to persons in prison. We encourage all UM Churches in the Conference to join us in fulfilling His command by forming an active Prison Ministry Committee. Please call our committee if we can be of assistance.

In conclusion, we solicit your prayers as we seek His will in serving Him in the prison units of Eastern North Carolina.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

We are happy to report that in 11 of our 12 districts there was in the January Workshops some type of class/conversation on racism/multi-ethnic concerns. This is the best we have done.

Our October Religion and Race Workshop at Chestnut Ridge was well attended. It was expertly led by Ms. Elaine Jenkins of the General Commission on Religion and Race, Washington, DC. The evaluation forms call for more of the same: "Confronting Racism as Christians." We renew our call to every church to find someone to be the chairperson of ethnic/racial concerns and enroll him/her in a training event.

We urge that the district COMs and the DSs help the district chairpersons of Religion and Race find ways to make a real difference in district programming.

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race is ready to assist districts and local churches with programs in racial/ethnic multicultural training events.

We make financial grants from our Religion and Race budget to encourage multicultural/racial projects with special consideration for projects that involve youth.

We appeal to our Conference agencies to make special efforts to reach Hispanic communities.

Our annual award for serious efforts to improve race relations is generating increasing interest. We invite ministers to submit nominations using the following criteria for evaluation: (1) New, imaginative efforts to achieve inclusiveness in a local church or district. (2) Advocacy for a community need/problem that involves racial issues. (3) Work in a local school directed toward problem solving and better relations between racial groups. (4) Conciliation/mediation in a work place toward solving disputes involving racial troubles.

We have annual monitoring review of our Conference agencies and institutions. The cooperation of those administrative people is deeply appreciated.

We participate in the SEJ programs and are in the network of General Conference granting financial assistance to multi-ethnic/racial projects within our conference bounds. Our only active project is the Family Crisis Program at Grace UMC, a Native-American church in Fayetteville.

The Commission on Religion and Race is involved with the Cabinet's "Inclusiveness" Committee. We want to set forth some of the priorities listed in that program for the information of our local church and district chairpersons of Religion and Race.

1997: (Possibly to be delayed.)

- I. Each conference agency, commission, district COMs, the Cabinet, and each local church make an honest assessment of where we are NOW in our PRACTICE of INCLUSIVENESS. Each adopt several realistic goals for moving forward. Dates for specific achievements should be included. All this is to be monitored by the Commission on Religion and Race.
 - A. Forms for assessment, inventory can come from the General Commission on Religion and Race or developed by our NC Commission.
 - B. This assessment and suggested goals for progress is to be reported and adopted at Annual Conference 1998.
 - C. Goals could include the following:
 1. Pulpit and choir exchanges across racial lines.
 2. Cross-racial pastoral exchanges for a month or two.
 3. Cross-racial youth exchanges for weekends.
 4. Cross-racial retreats with groups like young adults and young families.
 5. Multi-racial work team projects through district/conference and UMCOR.
 6. Pastors, chairpersons of Religion and Race, and the lay leaders report occasionally to their administrative boards/councils of progress toward inclusiveness.
- II. District superintendents keep in close touch with local church programs and local efforts toward inclusiveness (drawing upon their guidelines for open itineracy already in use) with special interest in finding congregations and pastors most ready for cross-racial appointments. Cabinet is to implement and Commission on Religion and Race is to monitor.
 - A. Reports at Charge Conference to include items about cross-racial ministries/activities/efforts.
 - B. Intensive, thorough training of ministers begin immediately preparing for cross-racial work in pastoral leadership, and explore new models for worship and preaching.

- C. Our seminaries and colleges/universities serve as resources for this, but most of the training be done in the districts.
- III. Every district should have frequent (perhaps quarterly) seminars/conversations on RACISM, ETHNIC CONCERNS, and CULTURAL DIFFERENCES. These sessions should conclude with a summary statement (for the record) and the adoption of an action project for moving us forward in dealing with problems. To be monitored by district chairperson.
 - A. These sessions could focus on the local church leaders and pastors.
 - B. The Commission on Religion and Race could lead some of these discussions.
 - C. Good materials are available in our Media Center and others will be obtained by the Commission on Religion and Race.
- IV. The district superintendents, district chairpersons of Religion and Race, conference and district COMs should be alert to any possibilities for affirming/encouraging local efforts in our movement toward inclusiveness.
- V. The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will monitor all priority programs in conference agencies, institutions, and district COMs. An annual report of this monitoring should be presented at Annual Conference (to raise awareness and concern).
- VI. We urge that the theme of the 1998 Annual Conference address INCLUSIVENESS.
- VII. Every church should have a chairperson of Religion and Race or that work assigned to someone.

Finally, we have serious concern about the elimination of the Commission on Religion and Race. We have much more work to do. But we do pray that eventually our tasks will be finished.

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (1992) outlines two major functions for the Commission on the Status and Role of Women: fostering an awareness of the meaning of the church's continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the church; and recommending program opportunities for worship, fellowship, witness, study, nurture, and service with persons and groups which confirm anew the liberating message of Jesus Christ that recognizes every person, woman or man, as full and equal part of God's human family. (§1262.9).

We begin the report with appreciation to Dr. Bernice Johnson whose vision, energy, skill, and commitment to the Commission has moved the church toward equal responsibility and participation of women in its total life and mission through sensitizing local congregations in areas of race and gender relations.

Our biggest challenge and accomplishment in 1995 was planning, implementing and evaluating the Ethnic Women's Seminar. The seminar was held on September 16, 1995, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at the Methodist College in Fayetteville. The theme for the seminar was "Ethnic Women: Living Dreams and Visions." Our keynote speakers were Cecelia Long, General Secretariat, COSROW, and Jeanne Hopkins Lucas, NC Senate. Ms. Long focused on Sexual Misconduct and Domestic Violence through maintaining the integrity of ministerial relationships within the congregation by identifying, intervening and preventing sexual misconduct. Ms. Lucas spoke on women in leadership positions; she urged us to be aware and support emerging leadership roles of women across racial lines: changes, challenges and promises.

Edna Duffy-Murphy, liturgical dancer and choreographer, from Shaker Heights, OH, lifted us as she danced to the music of "The Lord Has Given Me a Song" and "Give Us This Day." In her workshop, Mrs. Murphy involved participants through the major components of a liturgical service using art of movement, music and words. Participants were taught a prayer, an introit, a benediction, an anthem and a meditation for cultural diversity. Mrs. Willie Mae Jones of John Wesley UMC was the pianist for the day. She played with grace to the glory of our Lord and Savior.

Our souls were lifted throughout the day with workshop sessions: Spiritual Gifts, Dr. Jimmy Cummings; Coping with Racism, Ms. Lena Brooker; Spiritual Disciplines, Rev. Edith Gleaves; From Here to There, Mrs. Alice Eley Jones; Human Sexuality for Youth, Dr. Jimmie Shuler; Biblical Models for Leadership, Rev. Ruth Harper; Unique Worship Experience, Mrs. Edna Duffy-Murphy; Women in Leadership, Dr. Bernice Johnson; Sexual Misconduct and Domestic Violence, Ms. Cecelia Long; Time and Stress Management, Velverly Malloy.

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women wishes to thank each one of you for your participation in the Ethnic Women's Seminar. It was a great success with one hundred plus women attending.

The Commission must now reflect and focus on the eight goals set before us, 1992-96:

- I. To support the conference efforts on open itineracy by assisting young women in attending enrichment conferences and through sensitizing local congregations in areas of race and gender relations.
- II. To conduct the "Churches in Solidarity with Women" study in 1992-93 in local churches in each district.
- III. To conduct a leadership development seminar with ethnic women in the NC Conference in 1995.
- IV. To sponsor a spiritual formation workshop for all women in the conference in 1993.
- V. To become familiar with sexual harassment guidelines and monitor use of guidelines in local churches, districts and the conference.
- VI. To advocate for "Clergywomen in the Pulpit Emphasis" in the spring of each year, 1993-1996.
- VII. To monitor the availability of child care services at district and conference meetings.
- VIII. To prepare publicity pertaining to COSROW for the back page of the Christian Advocate July/August each year, 1993-96.

The Rev. Jimmy F. Cummings encourages us to carry forth the mandates of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. Many thanks to Rev. Cummings and the Commission members for your participation and invaluable service. May God continue to bestow His richest blessings upon you as the Spirit of God calls us to advocate with and on behalf of women individually and collectively in the church.

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

The definition of Christian Stewardship can only be found as revealed in the Holy Scripture. The Bible is filled with God's direction to His servants to be wise and faithful stewards. Jesus' teachings are filled with stories, parables and accounts about both good and bad stewards. Thus, the Scriptures interprets for us responsible stewardship.

The word stewardship has far too long been connected almost exclusively with raising financial resources to fund the church budget. Little has been said about stewardship as a response to the accountability of the trust God has placed in our hands for all creation.

In the past eight years the Commission on Stewardship has made a sincere effort to be leaders in interpreting the biblical and theological basis of Christian Stewardship. Across the conference the Commission has endeavored to provide leaders and leadership training on the local, district and conference level. We feel that there have been some successes.

The basic problem encountered is that the Commission on Stewardship is looked upon as "those who can help us with raising our budget." While the members of the Commission have the training and expertise to assist in this area, we believe that for lasting results, churches and pastors must accept a long range strategy of preaching and teaching the biblical principles of Christian stewardship. Christian stewardship involves a changed way of thinking about our role as stewards of all the blessings and resources of life that God has entrusted in our care. Christian Stewardship means a new life style as Christians.

The Commission's struggle has been to find ways to impact pastors, local churches and even Conference leadership in preaching, teaching and study of the biblical principals of being wise and generous stewards. We believe that pastors are the most crucial part of stewardship training. We realize that many of our pastors received little specific training in stewardship during their formal education.

In an effort to address this need we are proposing a stewardship training opportunity for all new pastors. Our goal is to offer these pastors the opportunity to spend two days in a retreat setting where they will encounter the varied aspects of stewardship. For this event we will draw from our wealth of local resource persons to lead the sessions. We plan to cover such stewardship issues as: Biblical and Theological Dimensions of Stewardship, Our Giftedness, Motivations for Stewardship, Funding Tools, Planned Giving, Interpreting the Missions and Ministry of the Connectional Church, as well as hands on session where budgets will be formulated. Our desire is to introduce new pastors to issues and options that will benefit them throughout their ministry.

The commission can foresee this becoming an annual event, that in time, will give the vast majority of our pastors tools to use in their ministries that will produce a great harvest of faithfulness to the work of our Lord Jesus Christ.

A very real part of stewardship is how we plan to distribute our resources after our death. The Reverend Douglas Byrd, Executive Director of the Methodist Foundation, is the key resource person to help individuals and churches with gifts and wills. Some of you may have read or heard about local churches who have been the recipients of wills that have profoundly affected the future of the church and its ministry.

Stewards are never owners, they are the trustees of the resources of another. "Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God." Cor. 4:1

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Again it was the privilege of the Conference Commission on Worship to plan and conduct the eleven worship services presented at the 1995 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. The commission attempted to offer a variety of worship styles, and proceeded by thinking of the Annual Conference worship settings in terms of an old-time Methodist assembly. The reponse of the worshippers was encouraging. The commission carried out its plan to make the services ethnically and gender inclusive, and to represent a wide spectrum of worship traditions within Methodism, and to reflect Mr. Wesley's own conviction that worship should be sacramental as well as evangelical.

The Conference Commission on Worship began 1995 by continuing its efforts to publicize and interpret The United Methodist Book of Worship in the January Workshops at the district level. Worship Training Teams were also available to local churches upon request. The intention of the commission was to present services that were neither so elaborate nor expensive to produce that they would be out of the reach of an average UM congregation, and still to reflect many different levels of formality.

The goal of the Commission on Worship, as it plans the worship services for the 1996 session of the Annual Conference, is to offer services with variety, integrity, and inclusiveness, which will bring worshippers into the presence of the risen Christ. In the creation of these services we seek to follow the example of Mr. Wesley in uniting experiential and sacramental piety. At the same time, we seek to be sensitive to the current budgetary restraints facing the NC Annual Conference and to serve as examples of good financial stewardship.

The Commission on Worship thanks the NC Annual Conference for its support, and is delighted to continue to offer its services to the conference and to the risen Christ.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

We wish to express gratitude to the laity and clergy of the NC Annual Conference of The UMC for the variety of ministry and mission which has been accomplished over the past year. We are humbled by the realization that God has called us to be stewards of God's mysteries and has permitted us through grace to be used by God's Holy Spirit.

We acknowledge that we are not always understanding of God's will and we confess our failure to perfectly do God's will. We rejoice in God's will for us that we might be made whole.

We have as a cabinet wrestled with many issues over the past year. Some of them are continued challenges such as the unfunded pension liability, open itineracy, apportionments, pastoral appointments and leadership development.

We rejoice in the accomplishments of VISION 2000, Volunteers in Mission, Project AGAPE of Armenia, increased giving to the apportionments, the starting of four new congregations, Hunger and Human Need, the clergy response to the unfunded liability, which amounted to nearly $50,000, and many other wonderful ministries.

The following reports from the various districts reflect a portion of the ministries of our people.

BU: The Burlington District saw Evergreen UMC complete and consecrate its first building, and Christ UMC hold its first worship service as a beginning congregation this conference year. We welcomed 14 pastors and families to new appointments and one church, Center UMC, into our district from the Sanford District.

DU: The Durham District purchased a new parsonage, approved and built an education wing for Mt. Bethel, Bahama. It is paid in full and dedicated in April. Plans for an education wing at Salem UMC have been approved and ground breaking set for August. Preliminary plans for a new sanctuary at Bethesda UMC have been approved. Resurrection UMC has had 24% increase in membership and 24% increase in average regular attendance. Warren's Grove UMC voted to go full time in June.

EC: Perkins UMC dedicated their fellowship hall in October. Michael Frost, from Sydney, Australia, was here two weeks in the Fall for Witness '95 (one week in Elizabeth City and one week in Manteo). Hands for Jamaica Dental Mission Team went to Kingston where we served over 150 people and extracted over 300 teeth.

FA: Salem completed a million dollar addition for preschool and office space. Parker UMC on the Raeford-Hoke Charge completed a new fellowship hall which was paid for ($100,000) upon completion. St. Andrews is beginning a new fellowship hall and classrooms. Hopewell has completed new storage facilities. First Church, Clinton, has completed the renovation of their sanctuary. John Wesley UMC is beginning renovation of their sanctuary at a cost of $175,000. Hope Mill UMC is now beginning a new fellowship hall. Marvin UMC has added new rooms and a two-car garage to the parsonage and this will be paid for when completed. Our new congregation, Cornerstone UMC, is doing well meeting on Saturday night. They are presently looking for space to meet on Sunday.

GO: Mt. Carmel broke ground for the construction of the fellowship hall. Daniels has approved the construction of a fellowship hall and the renovation of the present education building and fellowship hall. The Friendship-Unity Charge began weekly worship services during Advent 1995 under the leadership of the part-time local pastor, Jerry Mitchell. Nineteen pastors have assisted in the effort to paint/repair the Micro UMC building. The two churches of the Westwood-Ebenezer Charge have grown to the point where they believe it is time for each of them to do ministry separately; Westwood will become a full-time appointment and Ebenezer a part-time one. Zion, will become a student appointment in June, 1996, has experienced significant growth in worship attendance and programming. Eleven district pastors and one pastor's spouse are participating in a District Disciple Bible Study led by the district superintendent (most of the time!).

GR: The churches in the Greenville District showed continued improvement in 1995 in support of Mission and Service Giving. Continuing stewardship education in the district and in local churches is a contributing factor. Property improvements throughout the district show a concern for local church growth. Chocowinity Church broke ground in January, 1996, for a $200,000 plus fellowship hall and classroom addition. Pink Hill Church is building a fellowship hall and classroom addition. The old church at Pink Hill was torn down in December, 1995, to make room for the additional building. Lane's Chapel is in the process of construction of additional classroom space and a fellowship hall at ground level. Washington First Church has built a new parsonage for the senior pastor, and it was occupied in February, 1996. Robersonville dedicated its new educational space in October, 1995. Churches with significant Professions of Faith during 1995 were: Chocowinity-14, Farmville-16, Jarvis Memorial-44, St. James-31, Queen Street-15, and Salem-20. This has been a great year in the Greenville District.

NB: God has abundantly blessed the work of the churches and the pastors of the New Bern District in this 1995-96 conference year. Many churches are growing in discipleship through the study of God's Word, primarily through Disciple Bible Study and the Stephen Ministries. For the sixth consecutive year, this district has had the largest attendance of any district at the January Workshops. Three of the churches in the New Bern District - Swansboro, Centenary and Garber - have adopted refugee families from Bosnia. The district is completing the third Habitat house in 6 years. The first Habitat for Humanity house built by the district was in New Bern, the second in Carteret County, the third is located in Onslow County. The laity of the district has really taken great joy in being involved in these efforts. The New Bern District is seeing changes in the physical plants, as well. Centenary will soon finish a $690,000 renovation; Saint Peter's in Morehead City is building a new sanctuary at the cost of $947,000; and First Church, Sneads Ferry (formerly Carroll's Chapel) is completing the first units of an educational building and fellowship hall. They are also purchasing land and making firm plans to build a new parsonage. We give thanks to God for all that is taking place within the New Bern District.

RA: The Raleigh District continues to celebrate the reception of new members even though this year completed a three-year cycle for several churches where members were removed by action of the Charge Conference. The percentage giving to apportionments for 1995 was an increase over 1994. Cary First renovated and enlarged their sanctuary and completed new educational facilities. They also are enjoying their new pipe organ. Cary, White Plains opened "THE CARPENTER SHOP" - a bookstore. Fuquay-Varina completed a new parsonage. Raleigh, Asbury celebrated the completion of a Life Ministry Center. Raleigh, Avent Ferry purchased a parsonage. Highland purchased a parsonage for their associate pastor. St. James broke ground for classrooms and a fellowship hall. Eleven other churches have building committees studying the possibilities for new additions or relocations.

RO: The Rockingham District Mission Society was formed in 1994 to promote mission causes in the district. The 11 Native American congregations came together to form the Rockingham District Native American Cooperative Ministries. New Hope in Rowland was formed by the merger of Cedar Grove and Salem. Chestnut Street in Lumberton began construction on a fellowship hall, office and music building.

RM: Clark Street Ministries opened a Day Care Center in March, 1996. First, Rocky Mount purchased a new parsonage for the senior pastor in July, 1995 and installed a new Gouling and Wood 50 rank pipe organ in March, 1996. Rehobeth on the Northhampton Charge completed a new fellowship hall. In October, 1995, First, Roanoke Rapids celebrated 100 years of ministry to the community. In a cooperative effort by the people of the community and members of Hornes UMC, a new steeple was built.

SA: The Sanford District celebrates the strong supportive fellowship of both laity and clergy. It has given witness to a growing spirit of mission and stewardship. Our Hispanic ministries in Siler City and Sanford are taking on new life, becoming vital congregations. Thanks to Volunteers in Mission, a new roof has been put on our Hispanic church in Sanford. Our two churches which were destroyed by fire, Cool Springs and Pleasant Hill, are now rebuilt and dedicated to the glory of God. In 1995, the district experienced another fire which destroyed the building at First, Siler City. This building contained the sanctuary, fellowship hall, kitchen and church office. The replacement cost will exceed $1,674,515. Yet, in the midst of disappointment, First Church continues to move forward with new vision and optimism. Pinehurst, our newest church, was chartered with over 100 members on Sunday, March 24, 1995. The district raised $20,000 as start-up monies for this new congregation. We further rejoice that the Sanford District led the conference in Mission and Service Giving payments with 99.45% given. It also accepted 100% of its Mission and Service Asking for 1996.

W: Harbor held its first worship service on January 18, 1996, with 400 in attendance. Pine Valley led the district with a net increase in membership of 130. The following churches also experienced sizable growth: Wesleyan Chapel-77, Seaside-76, Ocean View-52, Wrightsville 41. In July, the district youth built their first Habitat for Humanity house. Trinity, Wilmington purchased a new parsonage. Ground breakings are scheduled for Hampstead's classroom wing, Ocean View's fellowship hall and Pine Valley's Family Life Center. Plans are underway to build a new fellowship hall at Sharon. In conclusion, we express our gratitude to our Bishop, C. P. Minnick, Jr., for his compassionate leadership and the graceful manner in which he has lived and worked among us. We are indebted to him and hold him in high esteem as one called of God to preach the Gospel and witness to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

When Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture creating The Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924, it caught the news media and the people in North and South Carolina and the whole country by surprise. The magnitude of the gift was unbelievable.

Those who knew Mr. Duke, however, were not surprised. While he seemed preoccupied with accumulating wealth, which he surely did, there was also in his heart the desire and need to share what he had. In reality, The Duke Endowment was not the vision of just one man, but the culmination of a family's generosity. The story of the Duke family's rise to political and philanthropic prominence started with Washington Duke after the Civil War. As Washington Duke's fortune grew, he developed a pattern of sharing part of his wealth for various causes, primarily in NC. This sense of sharing the wealth certainly was instilled in the mind and the heart of his son, James B. Duke, whose creation of The Duke Endowment set up a perpetual trust, the income of which would be used to make grants in very specific areas in North and South Carolina.

James B. Duke specified the beneficiaries of The Duke Endowment as not-for-profit hospitals and child care institutions in the two Carolinas, rural United Methodist churches in the two Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church in North Carolina together with retired ministers and widows and children of deceased ministers of those Conferences, and four named educational institutions - Duke University, Davidson College, Furman University, and Johnson C. Smith University. On one occasion Mr. Duke talked about the fact that he had rather narrowly defined the beneficiaries, concluding that he might have extended aid to other causes and to other sections of the country but asserted his belief that, "so doing would probably be productive of less good by reason of attempting too much." History has sustained Mr. Duke's wisdom in defining very specifically the beneficiaries of the trust.

The purpose of this report is to speak about just one area of The Duke Endowment and that is the Rural Church Division. Under the Rural Church Division there are three areas where grants are made. The first involves churches in building programs, either for renovation or new construction. Following the guidelines of Trustees of The Duke Endowment, churches who are in communities of 1,500 or less people are eligible to receive grant support for their building programs.

The second category comes under the title of Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches. Funds distributed through this area go for a variety of purposes. A considerable amount of money goes to the training of pastors to serve the rural churches in the two Annual Conferences in NC. It always has been the judgment of the Trustees that the best way to maintain and operate rural churches is to have a strong, well-trained supply of pastors. There are, however, a variety of programs that can be and are supported through the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program, such as child day care, adult day care, and a variety of other ministries that churches desire to develop in their communities.

The third category receiving grants from The Duke Endowment through the Rural Church Division are the superannuated pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors. In the past year the Trustees have made a significant change in this program. Recognizing that pastors who served the Church prior to 1982 received a very meager retirement, the Trustees have increased the amount that a clergy person receives for service prior to 1982 to $50 per service year. For years served since 1981, the per service year amount is $35. This is the most significant increase in the amount of support for retired clergy in the history of The Duke Endowment. Prior to 1995 the per service year amount for all pastors was $30.

Listed below is a financial report for all causes supported by the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment. As you can see, the amount of grants made to churches and pastors in NC is almost unfathomable. No other conferences in Methodism have this kind of support.

The Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment is always ready to assist rural United Methodist churches as they seek to provide ministry in NC. Please fee free to call upon us as you have needs in your local congregations.

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Bishop Minnick, Mrs. Minnick, and Members of the Annual Conference: The Committee on Episcopacy has met three times since last Annual Conference a year ago. We have sought to fulfill our mandate as specified by the Book of Discipline to support the Bishop in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church, to be available to him for counsel, to assist in determining the episcopal needs of the area, to interpret to our people the nature and function of this office, and to evaluate the work carried out in this ministry by our Bishop. We are assured that the NC Annual Conference has been greatly blessed by the ministry and leadership of Bishop C. P. Minnick. Today we gather at the opening of the last session of the NC Annual Conference over which Bishop C. P. Minnick will preside as resident bishop. He will be retiring September 1st of this year.

Twelve years ago he came to dwell in our midst and offered caring and devoted leadership. We are aware of the depth of his spiritually and the measure of his wisdom. We have grown through the Bible teaching of Bishop Minnick. We have cherished the warmth and grace of Mary Ann, who has shared in his ministry among us.

Bishop Minnick, in your 12-year term as our Bishop, the NC Annual Conference has moved forward. Our mission and outreach commitments have nearly doubled. We have seen the establishment of 25 new congregations under your leadership. Some 100,000 persons have united in membership with our churches, one third of these by first profession of faith in Jesus Christ, and 36,000 souls have received the sacrament of holy baptism.

I would like to quote from a letter written by an old bishop of days gone by. It is a unique letter in that it was written from Fayetteville. It is 183 years ago, the winter of 1813. After arriving in Fayetteville, and seeing that his horse was fed and watered, he settled down for the night. The bishop picked up a quill pen to write a young pastor friend who was serving at Williamsburg until this year when he was appointed to the Amelia Circuit in the Virginia Conference. The letter is to Stith Mead, and the writer is none other than Francis Asbury. Bishop Asbury writes from Fayetteville:

My dear Son:

Great grace attends us. How shall we be wise like the serpent, harmless like the dove? "Beware of men!" said one that knew what was in man's heart and actions. Serious times with me, an old soldier of Jesus. I hand my crutch and say how many fields have been won. In the 68th year of my age, 52nd of my ministry, 42nd of my American mission, I have lived to see 200,000 in Methodist fellowship. Alas, I have lived to see the French, Revolutionary, and the present War (of 1812). But may our church, and national afflictions be sanctified to all, when they come to press on rich and poor, patience, faith, prudence, love, diligence, long-suffering, gentleness, guidance...

A few days later, Bishop Asbury wrote from North Carolina to a presiding elder in Virginia:

O for the grace of apostles, if we must do our duty, and fill the places of apostles. O how unpleasing is example and unsuccessful when it calls me to them that say they are labour and suffer. After the wormwood and the gall of General Conference, we have had great peace, union, discipline and increase.

Bishop Minnick, things have not changed much! Like you, our dear Father Asbury was looking back over a long and fruitful ministry. He was writing from the same place we find ourselves this day. And like Asbury, we can say that you have been a true "Soldier of Jesus" among us.

I am sure that no one of us here has agreed completely with every decision you have made. But we have agreed with the vast majority of your choices. Some may even have thought you could have done better by doing things a different way. Yet history has proven the wisdom of your leadership. Again and again, we have said, the Bishop was right. Yet, in all these instances, no one has thought that you took any actions without prayer or that you sought anything but the will of God and best interests of the Church. Through these years you have richly blessed us. God has been glorified in this place!

We will continue to follow your ministry in the days to come. As you and Mary Ann continue your pilgrimage of faith, we will walk in your shadow and glory in your triumphs. In the words of the Apostle Paul to Philemon:

When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God, because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may be effective when you perceive all the good we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

May I again say how blessed we have been to have Mary Ann as a helpmate and counsel to Bishop Minnick, and as a friend and fellow laborer with us all. Let us pray:

Oh God, we give you thanks for C. P. and Mary Ann, for their devotion to Jesus Christ, the example of their faithfulness, and the abiding sense of your love within them. We thank you for your accomplishments in our Annual Conference working through them. And now we pray your blessings on them as they continue their pilgrimage of faith and their ministry in another forum. Sustain them in the years ahead that their service to you may be long and fruitful. Direct us, with your most gracious favor, that all our works begun, continued, and ended in you may glorify your holy name. Through Christ our Lord, we pray. Amen.

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The Executive Committee of the Commission on Laity met recently to select the Conference Lay Person of the Year, and again this year, we were overwhelmed with the excellent example of servant leadership as is demonstrated by our Conference Lay Person of the Year. Our nominees are as follows:

Burlington: Wes Scarlett, Hillsborough UMC, Hillsborough, serves as lay reader and assists the pastor with special services. Wes led his church in its major funding project, the building addition and celebrated with them its completion and pay-off in less than half the time of the original loan. "However, if one looks at how he has served his church and the will of God, the number of examples is unsurpassed and the amount of service to the church is beyond monumental."

Durham: William M. DeLuck, Mt. Sylvan UMC, Durham, is involved in several Christian ministries beyond his local church. He has led work teams to the Red Bird Mission and Durham Habitat for Humanity, 1993-95. He encourages, prods, reminds, and ignites a fire in Mt. Sylvan's members to serve, to share God's love, and to do it without recognition.

Elizabeth City: Jesse Basnight, Mt. Carmel UMC, Elizabeth City, has set many on the right path of knowledge through his teaching of the Word in prison ministry. As a lay leader, he has never failed to speak at a church, a meeting or any place where he could share God's Word. He is a vital part of his church's prayer chain and prayer life. He takes advantage of all opportunities to express his faith.

Fayetteville: Mrs. Bonnie Lee Kifer Jones, Camp Ground UMC, Fayetteville, does a lot of behind the scene jobs as well as visible and is an active member of all five UMW circles. She serves as an adoptive grandmother to children whose real grandmothers live far away and she served on a VIM work team to Mexico. Although she is legally handicapped, she serves as an example of what God can do with an individual who is committed.

Goldsboro: Jimmie Lee Edmundson, St. Luke UMC, Goldsboro, spends much of his personal time working for his church and spent many lunch hours keying financial data and updating records during the start up of the church's computer system. Untold hours were spent working on the financing of the new heating and air conditioning system (the largest financial undertaking that the church has faced).

Greenville: Steve Bryan, Providence UMC, Greenville, embodies the example set by our Lord, Jesus Christ, to be a servant. he does not hesitate to get involved so that his community can become a better place to live, can become more stable, can become more grounded in the principles that Jesus Christ advocated and taught. He seeks ways for the local church to be involved with ministry in the community in order to meet individual needs.

New Bern: Perritt "Frank" Cox, St. Peter's UMC, Morehead City, as church lay leader and as the "official greeter" of his church, welcomes newcomers and those who attend on a regular basis to worship service each Sunday. In the course of a year, it would not be unusual for him to make 60 or more visits on behalf of his church. He is in his third year as a Challenge Disciple in the Society of St. Andrew Potato Project.

Raleigh: Pat Ford, North Raleigh UMC, Raleigh, is a leading proponent of Vision 2000, and a consistent supporter of the prison reform activities within our Conference. A principle founder of the Prison Ministry and Prison Reform Committee for the Annual Conference, he also is actively involved with Yokefellows and he was instrumental in establishing a computer education class for prisoners. He has recruited volunteers to help him teach class.

Rockingham: Ms. Christine Gibson, St. John UMC, Gibson, volunteers her time to help with retarded citizens and she helped build the habitat house in Gibson. She is devoted to loving and educating the children in her church and her schools. She has a smile for everyone and loves to see people smile and shares her lively love of life with everyone she meets. Her faith is practical, spontaneous, and dedicated to the work of Christ in the church.

Rocky Mount: Fred Morton Hight III, Winstead UMC, Rocky Mount, chairs the Vision 2000 Team and Boy Scout Troop 89 Committee. He was elected and has served with distinction as lay leader during a very important leadership change and he has volunteered one morning a month to the Soup Kitchen to feed the hungry. It is his steadfast and humble spirit that witnesses the presence and power of God in his family, local church, extended church, and community.

Sanford: Mrs. Donna Atkins, Jonesboro UMC, Sanford, serves as district lay leader and is active in the Emmaus Walk. She also serves as mission coordinator for her local church and in that regard, developed a creative approach to the serious business of supporting the work of missionaries both at home and abroad. She is highly committed to education in the church as well as in the school where she works, and she is the kind of active Christian we all, at heart, really want to be.

Wilmington: Howard M. "Buck" Norton III, Pine Valley UMC, coordinates the efforts of Society of St. Andrew, a group of volunteers who gleaned 100,000 lbs. of food for the hungry in the Wilmington area. He started and maintains his local church's home page on the internet, and through this they have begun an international prayer ministry. He organizes the men's visit to Hebron Colony, a facility to treat drug dependency and he is a delegate to the World Methodist Council this summer.

Our recipient this year is participant, volunteer, leader, instructor, founder, teacher, cook, speaker, sponsor, but above all, servant. The 1996 Conference Lay Person of the Year leads by example, has been a leading proponent of Vision 2000 for his local church, and is a sought after speaker in the cause for prison reform and outreach.

This individual leads Wednesday morning Bible study, and each Easter, prior to Sunrise Service, a large wooden cross suddenly appears on the front lawn - put up by our honoree. He prepares and serves meals for UMM and for the Ark Shelter in his district. This year, as a part of the "every member contact financial campaign, he as one of the team leaders in the contact effort that resulted in the first fully subscribed budget of his church in the past six years.

A principle founder of the Prison Ministry and Prison Reform Committee in our Conference, he currently serves as chairperson and has been a consistent supporter for prison reform activities in our Conference. He has been instrumental in obtaining and maintaining focus on this important area by arranging for the Bishop and Cabinet to visit the Women's Prison in Raleigh. He also is actively involved in Project Nehemiah, an ecumenical after-care effort for newly released prisoners.

He was instrumental in establishing a computer education class for prisoners and in this regard, he recruited volunteers and successfully solicited IBM to donate 18 personal computers. He meets regularly with prisoners to listen to their concerns, problems, spiritual questions or whatever they wish to discuss.

Though there are many more, I will share two more examples of our honoree's tenacity and willingness to serve. He used his considerable popularity to recruit volunteers from his church and elsewhere to conduct field day at the Polk Youth Correctional Center. This was a half day of track and field activities for the incarcerated youth - a positive and appreciated physical outlet for many who would otherwise not have this opportunity. In the UMW newly created program for mothers at the women's prison, he is continuously active in recruiting and educating individuals/groups on the needs of prisoners.

As a registered sponsor in prison ministry, he frequently travels to the prison on Sunday morning to pickup a prisoner, bring him to church, take him home for lunch and a taste of home life and then drive him back to prison.

He and his wife, Patsy, have two children, Patrick and Patricia, and one granddaughter, Ginny. They are members of North Raleigh UMC, and he has been employed with IBM Corporation for over 30 years and currently works in the RTP.

My sisters and brothers in Christ, I am pleased to announce that the 1996 Conference Lay Person of the Year is Pat Ford from the Raleigh District. Join me in congratulating him and thanking him for the very tangible way that he serves God.

Gwen C. Henderson, Conference Lay Leader

PAST SERVICE PENSION LIABILITY, TASK FORCE ON

The Task Force on Past Service (Pension) Liability was appointed by Bishop Minnick in July of 1995. A motion to create such a Task Force was passed at the 1995 NC Annual Conference in response to a concern that a greater percentage of the Conference's budget was being expended each year for "past service liability" (pensions). There was concern that the continued growth in this line item would negatively affect the resources available for other ministries of the church.

The Task Force has met on a number of occasions to review the history of our Conference's pension program, to revisit anticipated costs associated with past service liability (i.e. service years prior to 1982), and to look at options regarding the funding of the pre-1982 pension liability.

The Task Force realizes that one of its mandates is to share with the Annual Conference a clear understanding of where we are, what obligations we have and how we can best meet them. Included in the Book of Handouts which you will receive at Annual Conference will be a document from this Task Force. It will, we hope, offer a clear explanation of the pension history, the present situation, and the issues before us. The Task Force will ask the Annual Conference to take no action at this session, but to continue the Task Force until the 1997 Annual Conference when it will bring recommendations for the approval of the Conference. This will allow the Task Force time to provide multiple settings for listening and informing the Annual Conference as to the issues and considerations. We hope to have this initial document available to delegates at the District-wide Annual Conference Orientation Sessions.

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The Southeastern Jurisdictional Administrative Council (SEJAC) seeks more effective ways to serve the Church in a time of significant transition, intent on maintaining an authentic heritage, yet aware of the need for more relevant expressions of faithfulness. Composed of leaders from all the conferences, this broadly inclusive body has reviewed its mandate for ministry and currently understands its mission to be God's agent to work with the annual conferences in equipping persons and providing ministries in developing Christian Disciples who strengthen the Body of Christ and transform the world. In fulfilling this mission, SEJAC envisions:

A WORLD being transformed into the likeness of Christ as disciples actively engage in living Christian servanthood with all persons proclaiming the Gospel and demonstrating the love of God, neighbor, and self.

CONGREGATIONS providing worship and transforming ministries to equip disciples for their work, connected in districts and annual conferences in which well-trained and relevantly resourced leaders direct, resource, and provide leadership personnel in support of these ministries.

A broadly inclusive TEAM COMPOSED OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE REPRESENTATIVES researching trends and needs, responsively developing and providing assistance that trains district and annual conference leaders, effecting communication with regard to the connection's shared mission, developing and channeling relevant resources for ministry, and offering service opportunities which transcend local and regional concerns.

A STAFF of trained specialists creatively and effectively networking with lay and clergy leaders, partners in ministry, at every level within the covenant community, connecting annual conferences, general church agencies, and other institutions so that resources of the total Church flow in support of congregations which call, nurture, equip, and send disciples as living witnesses into the world.

Efficiently administered RESIDENT CENTERS with conducive environments providing a base for spiritual formation, leadership training, and experiences in Christian community which calls and renews disciples, enabling them to be in mission.

Consistent with this understanding, SEJAC has addressed a number of challenges with the following results: - A two-year budget deficit was reversed and a positive balance of $60,000 is reported. - New models of training in skills for leadership within religious communities were well received. - A team of adjunct consultants was recruited and deployed in service to annual conferences and districts. - Extensive improvements were made in facilities and services at Lake Junaluska, Gulfside, and Hinton. - SEJAC staff at all levels shared in visioning as well as continuous improvement and teamwork training. - Guest services were enhanced through process improvement, addition of new technology, and training. - The Agencies continued to address missional needs amidst leadership changes and financial pressures.

Futuring and Long Range Planning

Looking toward its third quadrennium and toward a new century of service, SEJAC established two planning task forces: one to evaluate the Council's mission, vision, and structure and one to develop a comprehensive plan for Lake Junaluska Assembly's future. As a result of this work, renewed mission and vision statements for SEJAC will be presented to the 1996 SEJ Conference along with a plan which calls for a smaller council membership and a new Ministry Division members of which would meet with agency and network leaders in annual sessions to evaluate, coordinate, and develop more responsive ministries in support of annual conferences and districts.

Simultaneously staff reviewed current work processes, set targets for improvement, and adjusted its organization appropriately to enhance effectiveness in ministry. In this process, leadership staff drafted vision and mission statements which were perfected and signed on to by staff partners at every level. An emerging commitment to self-directed teams promises improvement in the work of staff partners but also offers models for new partnerships linking professional workers as well for forging shared ministry involving staff and local church members.

Program Division Ministries

During the year, attendance in division-related activities increased from 11,255 to 11,402. While traditional programming experienced a slight decline in participation, new approaches to leadership skills training (Covey's Seven Habits, Quality Training, Partners-in-Ministry) and spiritual growth activities (Lay Ministry Center, Spring Campmeeting,) contributed to an oval net growth. A number of ongoing ministries such as The Junaluska Singers, Music, Worship & Liturgical Arts Week, Prayer & Bible Conference, Ministers Conferences, summer and winter youth programs, and others contributed to an expanding program ministry involving many volunteer leaders.

These developments were aided by an intentional process of listening to constituents through evaluations, formal surveys, and informal sharing. As a result, four strategies are being emphasized: (a) More programming is planned for sites beyond Lake Junaluska through Covey training, Development and Health Ministry assessments, the Lay Ministries Center, and Partners-in-Ministry. (b) A core Seven-week summer plan has been developed featuring outstanding preaching and Bible teaching with groups asked to schedule training and networking in conjunction with these central emphases. (c) An inclusive cadre of skilled adjunct consultants has been gathered and plans are underway to connect these specialists with annual conferences and districts upon their requests. (d) A data base is being developed and used to increase racial/ethnic leadership in SEJAC programming.

Jurisdictional Agencies

The eight agencies, several of which are recognized as models for other jurisdictions, continue to meet needs creatively through program development, advocacy for justice and inclusivity, consultation, and mission service coordination, as well as by providing residence centers. Brief highlights from these ministries include: - Commission on Archives & History: Training in records management involved participants from 14 of 16 conferences. Heritage Center hosted over 3000 persons and continues preservation of valuable documents. - Gulfside Assembly: A community of Shalom, provided training and spiritual enrichment for 5000 persons. 200 youth shared in a College and Career Fair and 33 participated in a Mission Education Travel Study Seminar. - Hinton Rural Life Center: Provided training and consultation events to 24 annual conferences, district and local groups with 1063 participants. Connected 846 volunteers in service projects and hosted 8395 guests. - Intentional Growth Center (IGC): Accredited by International Assoc. of Continuing Education & Training. Participants: Elderhostel-750, Enrichment Hour-859, Professional Training-300. Expanding off-site schedule. - The Protestant Hour: Completed 50th Anniversary year with 2 million person potential audience. Director Bill Horlock retired after years of dedicated service and production responsibility was shifted to UMCorn. - SEJ Agency For Native American Ministries (SEJANAM): Established 2 new congregations, aided 10 conference committees and trained 20 persons in visitation evangelism and 14 facilitators in alcohol/drug prevention work. - SEJ Agency for Rehabilitation (SEMAR): Consulted with conferences maintaining 39 homes for 285 mentally retarded persons (5 homes planned). Accessibility grants to 10 local churches. Broad advocacy for handicapped. - United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM): Assisted 10,400 persons in mission to 27 countries in projects of over $4,000,000 in 1995. Tom and Margaret Curtis retired, succeeded by Walter and Betty Whitehurst.

Lake Junaluska Assembly Operations

In 1995, more than 130,292 persons shared in activities and 103,892 were housing guests at Lake Junaluska.

Training and focus on quality service resulted in more positive evaluations, improved staff morale, and a positive financial report. New equipment and leadership realignments promise further enhancements.

A new swimming pool was constructed, extensive sewage system repairs were made along with the work on dam to meet regulatory requirements, and beautification efforts were continued. A new tram and other gifts were recorded and a long range strategy for land usage opened the way for residential and program building development.

Plans call for major renovation of the Kern Youth Center and the Lambuth Inn, improvements in the Stuart Auditorium area, and the development of lots in the Hickory Hill area. In response to expressed needs from a growing residential community, a new department of residential services is being established.

Public Relations/Marketing Development

A Guest Services team has been formed to integrate communications, reservations, and marketing functions. A Delphi software system should enhance the reservations process and provide needed data for comprehensive plans in marketing and development. As opportunities available through SEJ facilities and program ministries are communicated and responded to, SEJAC envisions becoming more mission and less finance driven in its service.

Conclusion

SEJAC continues to enjoy increased support through the Administrative and Missional Fund as well as through contribution of many leaders. We hope to become even more effective in serving Christ and the Church.

FLINT RIDGE, Burlington District on the Rock Creek Charge.

AULANDER, Elizabeth City District on the Aulander-Harrellsville Charge.

One church property, WINTON in the Elizabeth City District, has been sold during the year, and another property, SAINT FRANCES, also in the Elizabeth City District, has been presented to Hope Plantation for removal to their location. AULANDER, in the Elizabeth City District, has been made available to the Commission on Congregational Development for use in establishing a new church.

Other church properties currently in process of being sold include: LIGHTHOUSE, Rockingham District; PIREWAY, Wilmington District; EVANS, Elizabeth City District; and CENTRAL CROSS, Rocky Mount District.

The United Methodist Building in Raleigh has had several renovations during the year: the parking lot has been resurfaced; the wing occupied by Conference offices has had some refurbishment, including carpet, painting, venetian blinds, and new lobby furniture. Other improvements are scheduled for 1996, to include new signage and exterior trim painting. The episcopal residence and staff parsonages are in excellent condition, and some improvements will be made prior to the arrival of a new bishop and CCOM staff person. The west wing of the United Methodist building currently is fully leased.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INCORPORATED

In 1995 United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated celebrated its 40th Anniversary and in many ways the best year in its history.

- Investment performance in 1995 was outstanding with the highest total rate of return on investments since 1982.
- Net assets of the Foundation grew to just under $45,000,000.
- The unit value reached an all-time high of $2.03.
- The number of partnership accounts increased over 13% (42 new accounts) bringing the total number to 360.
- Many local churches, with assistance from the Foundation, established planned giving and endowment programs.
- More securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds) were gifted through the Foundation to benefit local churches and causes of the Church than in any previous year in its history.

The year 1995 marked a dramatic turn around in the performance of the investments of UMF, Inc. from 1994. Net investment income was $1,953,013 or $139,278 above the income for 1994. Net realized and unrealized gains on investments were $5,791,639 at the end of 1995. Total net assets on December 31, 1995 were $44,991,545 or $2.03 per unit.

The Capital Management Group of First Union National Bank managed the portfolio of US equities and bonds in 1995 and continued to provide outstanding performance. Brandes Investment Partners, Inc., Murray Johnstone International Ltd., and Interinvest Corporation provided investment services for the global investments portfolio. Oxford Mortgage Corporation of Raleigh provided investment counseling and services for the mortgage loan portfolio which provided a unique niche in the investment marketplace. Three new loans were considered in 1995. One was completed and put on the Foundation books in 1995, and the other two were completed and booked in early 1996.

The Foundation made an important decision in 1995 to hire Smith Barney Consulting Group as its investment management consultant. This firm will help the Foundation make asset allocation decisions that will in turn allow greater diversification of investments. Assets will be deployed in Large Cap Value Stocks, Large Cap Growth Stocks, Small Cap Stocks, Fixed Income Investments (bonds) and International Equities.

The purpose in using this greater diversification is an effort to provide the best yield for all unit holders.

Nineteen new endowments and five new life income agreements were established in 1995. A total of $222,782 was given to fund these new endowments, and $291,728 was given to fund the new life income agreements. Eighteen new revocable investment accounts were created by local churches, institutions, and causes of the Church with investments of $505,130. These new accounts have assets of $1,019,640. An additional $1,043,015 was added to existing endowments and investment accounts during 1995. Many accounts also grew from reinvestment of earnings, and all accounts grew significantly from capital appreciation during 1995.

Many local churches across the NC Conference now have active planned giving and endowment programs in place. Planned Giving Handbook for Churches of the NC Conference, a publication of the Foundation which was given to each pastor in the Conference in late 1994 and early 1995, has been a valuable resource in churches where these special stewardship programs have been organized.

Each year the Foundation staff provides an increasing level of stewardship consultation and assistance to local churches. Estate and Gift Planning Workshops, Creative Gift Planning Seminars, stewardship sermons and special presentations on wills, estate planning, and planned giving continue to be well received. The Foundation newsletter LEGACIES was sent quarterly to over 7,500 persons who have key leadership positions or who have indicated an interest in planned giving. A vast supply of other printed resources was provided and distributed by the Foundation through its on-going stewardship education programs.

In 1995 an increased amount of staff time was devoted to assisting individuals and families with charitable estate and gift planning. This assistance was provided without any cost or obligation on the part of those persons and has resulted in significant benefits to local churches, institutions, and causes of the Church by way of current and deferred gifts.

The investment partnership continues to provide the potential for local churches, institutions, and other causes of the Church to minimize the cost of investing long-term and permanent funds while maximizing investment returns within acceptable risk parameters. The total rate of return in 1995 was 18.48%. The average annual rate of return has been: 3 years - 9.96%; 5 years - 10.18%; 7 years - 10.30%; 10 years - 9.76%; 15 years - 11.12%.

(While the above figures accurately represent total rate of return on the Foundation's General Fund investments for the stated periods, they are not an estimate or indication of future performance. Each partnership account is accounted for separately, owns a specified number of units in the Foundation, and participates on a pro rata basis in earned income and capital appreciation/depreciation.)

Thomas E. Chandler announced his decision to step down as President of the Foundation at the conclusion of the March 1996 meeting. A Nominating Committee, chaired by Dr. Reginald W. Ponder, was appointed and will present a slate of officers at the March meeting.

The Annual Report for this 40th Anniversary would not be complete until we express sincere appreciation to the NC Conference for the strong and faithful support given to nurture this special stewardship ministry over these 40 years. We are deeply grateful for the warm and gracious reception our staff has received in local churches where we have been invited to provide stewardship consultation, education, and planned giving assistance. We give thanks for the partnership which exists between local churches, institutions, and causes of the Church and UMF which makes possible a faithful stewardship of financial resources. And, we especially give thanks to God for those persons whom we have been privileged to assist in making generous gifts to benefit their local church and many other causes of the Church.

On behalf of its Board of Directors we commit our best efforts to help strengthen the Church for present and future mission and ministry through the stewardship ministry of United Methodist Foundation.

Douglas L. Byrd, Executive Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

As of January, 1996, there were 235 active nationally chartered United Methodist Men's fellowships in the North Carolina Conference, representing an increase of 15 over the preceding year. Although this was an increase of almost 10%, there are still almost three-fourths of the charges in the conference that have no chartered men's organization.

Founded on evangelism, mission and spiritual life, United Methodist Men seek to build a Christian community among themselves and witness to the world their faith in our Lord and Savior. We work both to serve the congregations of which we are a part, and to do God's work in the larger society that surrounds us. We share with others the Good News of God's Grace, we respond to the cries of the needy where possible, and through fellowship with each other, we nurture the Holy Spirit within each of us.

Conference officers for 1996 are Sam Hodges, president; Frank Cox, vice-president; Mack Parker, secretary; and Guy Tilley, treasurer. District presidents are Guy Tilley, Burlington; Mark Stephens, Durham; Jessie Callahan, Fayetteville; George Avery, Greenville; Kenneth Lymaster, New Bern; C.A. Dillon, Raleigh; Donald Rainer, Rockingham; B. D. Rabil, Rocky Mount; Glenn Stevens, Sanford; and Valton Ray, Wilmington. At the time of this report, the Elizabeth City and Goldsboro districts were without district presidents.

Priority conference goals for this year are:

1. To increase the number of active chartered fellowships in each district.
2. To increase participation in district and conference events and projects.
3. To increase EMS memberships from the present number of 235. EMS members are men who support connectional UMM programs through annual membership fees of $15.00, which include a subscription to the national UMM publication "Men's News."
4. To further underwrite the Meals for Millions project of the Society of Saint Andrew. This is a program to provide low cost potato meals to hungry people across the United States, which is being accomplished at an amazing one cent per serving. Local UMM groups are being asked to accept a challenge fellowship of $10.00 per member per year and to distribute Meals For Millions lapel pins throughout their congregations and elsewhere in exchange for a small donation. In addition, they are asked to participate in the Society's Gleaning Network and Mile of Pennies program.
5. To support the work of the Upper Room Prayer Center in Nashville both through financial contributions and participation in the national telephone prayer ministry.
6. To continue and increase our support of the scouting movement through sponsorship of Boy Scout and Cub Scout units.
7. To promote and encourage attendance by men throughout the Conference to the Promise Keepers rally to be held in June of 1996 at the Charlotte Motor Speedway.

We look forward to the United Methodist Men continuing to be a vital organization within The United Methodist Church, and invite men of all ages to join us in our work and fellowship.

Samuel C. Hodges, Jr., President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The 1993-1996 Quadrennial Theme for the United Methodist Women in the NC Conference is "Glimpses of God - Reflections of Christ" with the focus in 1993 being In Ourselves, 1994 In Others, 1995 In Our Community and 1996 In Our World. The Quadrennial Theme and the sub-themes each year have really helped in fulfilling our Purpose as UMW. We are a community of women whose Purpose is to know God and experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church. Our Purpose is at the forefront of all we do as UMW and our themes help us to fulfill our Purpose.

1995 at a Glance:

January: The Conference Program/Executive Committee made plans for the year.

February: A retreat was held for the 13 elected officers to discuss the implementation of the plans made in January by the entire Mission Team. A Financial Analysis Meeting was held at Buckhorn UMC in Wilson.

March: A 39 and Under Event was held at Methodist College in Fayetteville. Elaine Lilliston, Diaconal Minister at Englewood UMC in Rocky Mount lead this event based on our 1995 theme, "Glimpses of God - Reflections of Christ - In Our Community." A Women, Faith and Violence Conference was held at Duke Memorial UMC in Durham.

April: UMW across the Conference participated in the Food Lion Community Way Days and helped raise over $18,000 for the Methodist Home for Children. Applications were received for scholarships.

May: A Christian Personhood Retreat was held at Louisburg College which was lead by The Rev. Rosemary Brown from Nashville, TN. This was a time of worship, praise and spiritual renewal. The Scholarship Committee awarded a total of $6,500 in scholarships to 14 recipients in May.

June: The 13 elected Conference Officers attended Regional School at Millsaps College and received vital training related to their office as well as taking courses on the Mission Studies for 1996.

September: This month featured three well attended Mother/Child Retreats at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Camp Rockfish. The theme for the retreats was "God's Great Creation."

October: The Annual Meeting focused on children and children's issues in celebration of the Campaign for Children, Phase II and the 1995 Mission Study, "Making the World Safe for Children."

Also in October, seven women participated in a "Hands-On Mission Education Event" at the Bethlehem Center - Wilson Inn Center in Richmond, VA and as a result of this event, plans are underway for a one day "Hands-On Mission Education Event" at the Bethlehem Center in Winston-Salem in the fall of 1996 and a weekend event in the Fall of 1997 at the Bethlehem Center-Wilson Inn Center in Richmond. Women will be selected from each district to participate in these events.

1995 was a very successful year. Through our various avenues of mission giving we exceeded our $412,000 Conference Pledge to Mission by $4,063.48! We are very grateful to UMW from all over the NC Conference for making this possible. Through our mission giving we make mission possible not only here at home but all over the world.

Exciting plans are underway for the first UMW sponsored School of Christian Mission, August 1-3, 1996 at Methodist College in Fayetteville. This school will afford the opportunity to take all three of the Mission Studies as well a Leadership Development Course and a choice of five focus groups: "Children's Study - China," "How to Do a Mission Study," "Up-Date on New UMW Structure," "When Hate Groups Come to Town," "What It Means to Be a United Methodist," and "Family Worship." This School of Christian Mission is for everyone!

The UMW of the NC Conference are in mission in every possible way from saving Campbell Soup Labels, which provided $7,000 worth of equipment for Methodist College, to volunteering in soup kitchens, clothing closets and shelters.

Our 1996 theme is "Glimpses of God - Reflections of Christ - In Our World" and we will be striving more than ever to "expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church" and to answer the call of Christ in the Great Commission to "go into all the world..."

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

As the year 2000 approaches, we are seeing the effects of Methodism's Vision 2000 emphasis across the Conference and throughout the world. This can be no better seen than in the events that the United Methodist Youth of the NC Conference are participating in. In the past two years we have increased the numbers being brought into our ministry by an inspirational and innovative event, PILGRIMAGE. This all-encompassing weekend offers fun, fellowship and worship for youth from all over the Conference; and this year brought in even more youth than the previous year's event, with a total of almost 2000 youth and adults in attendance. Not only has Vision 2000 for youth been blessed by these numbers, but also by YES!, Youth Empowered by the Savior Ministries. YES! teams comprised of youth and college students with an adult leader lead local church youth groups in a weekend of worship and the development of friendships between youth as well as team members. This ministry reached 6 different groups in 1995 and already has 5 scheduled for the 1996 year. These youth-led weekends have pulled youth groups together and changed the lives of youth across the Conference.

Youth came together for weeks of praise, fun and everlasting memories in the seven successful events held in 1995. The events occurring were Global Vision, Conference Youth Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, ACS-Annual Conference Session for Youth, the International Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage. This year we had wonderful numbers with over 3000 in attendance. The youth functions this year ran smoothly and we saw many youth from across eastern NC participating in praise and having fun with their friends, while hearing inspiring programs and learning more about Christ. Besides the youth attending Conference youth programs, youth have been in attendance at other events on the Conference calendar such as Annual Conference and The Great Event. Participation of youth on this level is vital to involvement and seeing more youth in attendance is encouraging. We hope to see more youth involvement in the coming years for we have loved the vitality of the youth at all events and look forward to more of this.

Youth Service Fund has been blessed by hard workers and youth support. Through YSF grants are given to groups which use the funds for service. Every year, many more grants are requested than can be given, for the need around our Conference and over the world is great. The grants that YSF is able to fill contributes to the lives of many. The grants given for 1995 include: Highland Service Project, Asbury Basketball Camp, Society of St Andrew-Harvest of Hope, Base Christian Communities Network Youth Ministry in Nicaragua, SEJANAM Empowering Native American Youth for Ministry, Confrontation Point Ministries, and Camp Providence. These groups appreciate our support but we wish to help more. The only way to do this is by added support from youth. Support from local church youth has declined over the recent years but resources are being developed and implemented to get the word out about YSF. This starts at the local church and should be continued at the district and conference levels. As youth of the Conference, we should all support this mission of UM Youth through YSF.

We thank the youth of the Conference and all the people of the Conference for their support and help with youth ministry. It has been a great year and can only continue as we move forward toward the Vision of 2000 set for us in keeping the ministry of Christ alive and well in the NC Conference.

William Winter Newman, 65, of Apex, died July 1, 1995. His funeral was held at Apex UMC with the Reverends Henry Lovelace and William Boykin officiating. Burial was at Apex Cemetery.

Bill is survived by his wife, Collen Dennis Newman of the home; daughter, Lou Ann Newman Condrey and husband, Ronald C. of Raleigh; son, William W. Newman, Jr., and wife, Alyson, of Hillsborough; grandchildren, Gregory William, and Emily Newman; brothers, Charles C. Newman of Durham, and Roland C. Newman, Jr., of Sparta, NJ.

Bill passed away after a valiant four-year battle with cancer. He was a beloved husband, father, and friend to all who knew him.

He was born to Roland C. Newman and Anna Louise Winter Newman in Passaic, NJ, on December 7, 1929. The family moved to California, Georgia, and finally to North Carolina during his youth. He was graduated from Durham High School in 1947. He married the former Collen Dennis of Durham on November 14, 1950.

He joined the US Coast Guard and served as master electrician on a light ship for two years. After an honorable discharge, he enrolled at UNC-Chapel Hill, where he completed work on a B.A. in Business. He was employed at Western Electric in Burlington, during most of the time between 1952 and 1964.

During the years leading up to 1964, he began to feel a strong pull toward the ministry. His work as a lay person at West Burlington UMC led him to accept the call in 1964. He served a three-church charge in Caswell County from 1964-68, while receiving his M.Div. from Duke Divinity School. He served as associate pastor at Front Street UMC in Burlington, 1968, and as pastor at Apex UMC, 1969. He became a deacon in 1966, and an elder in 1968 in the NC Conference.

He joined the NC Council of Churches in 1970, then the Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers Association in 1974 on special appointment. He held a key administrative position with MSSFA until returning to the pastorate in 1982.

Bill served at Yanceyville, 1982, and Prospect, 1986. Twice during this time, members of his churches received the lay person of the year award for the Conference. He finished his career as a pastor with service at Ebenezer UMC, 1989, and Coats, 1991.

Bill retired from the Conference in 1992 and returned to the MSSFA, renamed Telamon Corporation in 1992. He also was named special projects coordinator in charge of Head Start. He got the operation into a large new facility in Hendersonville, and opened new facilities in Newton Grove. Prospect Hill Center was his crowning achievement as he took a wooded lot and turned it into a thriving new center that opened in the spring of 1995.

In addition to his 25 plus years in the ministry, Bill served in numerous civic organizations, including the Rotary Club and the Civitans.

CHARLES HALL MEWBORN

Charles was born in Wayne County on September 16, 1918. He was the youngest of four children born to Vann and Leona Mewborn. Charles was preceded in death by both parents, two brothers, and a sister.

Charles attended a rural elementary school, then went on to graduate from Goldsboro High School. After high school, he stayed at home to help his father farm, and to help care for his mother who was ill at the time.

World War II caught up with him and he enlisted in the US Navy where he would spend the next six years from 1941 to 1947. Four of those years were spent attached to the USS Cincinnati as it served in the Atlantic fleet. It was during the last year of his naval career that he met the girl who would be his wife of 49 years. She was the daughter of a Methodist minister from the Illinois Conference - a fact that perhaps brought him still closer to the Methodist Church - being no small thing, since his parents were Primitive Baptist.

For several years after his discharge, Charles was an apprentice embalmer at a Goldsboro funeral home. During this time, he and his wife were members of St. Paul UMC - and it was the St. Paul Church that recommended him for license to preach. With a wife and family, he returned to college and Duke Divinity School to complete his education, culminating with deacon's orders in 1957 and elder's orders in 1959.

During his ministry of 36 years, he served appointments at West Halifax, then Battleboro, 1953; Windsor, 1954; Cherry Point, 1960; St. John-Gibson, 1962; Robbins, 1967; Tabor City, 1970; Rockingham: East, 1974; Newland-Grace, 1976; Laurel Hill, 1978; and Lumberton: Asbury-Pineview, 1982.

Depending on where he was located, he was a member of a number of service organizations - Rotary, Scouting, Lions, PTA, and at one time, a volunteer fireman. At the time of his death, he was an active member of the Laurel Hill Lions Club, the Laurinburg Lodge AF&AM, and a shiner of the Oasis Temple in Charlotte.

Charles retired in 1985 to Scotland County, an area he had come to love. It was here that he and his wife established their first permanent home since their marriage on May 12, 1946. For 10 good years he worked in his own greenhouse and a vast yard where there is now evidence of his labors.

Charles attended Annual Conference in June 1995, and visited with a number of friends he had not seen for some time. On July 4, he suffered a severe stroke, and died 19 days later on July 23.

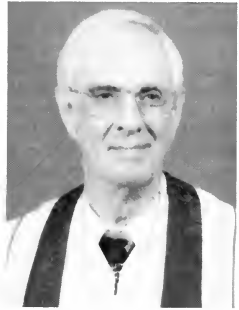

A Memorial Service was held at the Laurel Hill UMC with the pastor, Reverend Brian Perry, and the Rockingham District Superintendent, Reverend Ben Rouse, officiating. Inurnment was at Arlington National Cemetery Columbarium on August 10.

Included in his survivors are his wife, Patricia Drake Mewborn of Gibson; four children, Thomas R. Mewborn of Newton Grove, Alice L. Mewborn of Sanford, Charles V. Mewborn of Tampa, FL, and Karen D. Dunn of Laurel Hill; three young grandsons, Grover, Wolfgang, and Boris Mewborn of Tampa, FL.

PAUL WENDELL BOONE

Paul Wendell Boone, 65, who recently retired as pastor of First UMC in Morehead City, died August 4, 1995 at his Morehead City home after a long and valiant battle with cancer. A service of praise and thanksgiving was held August 7 with Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., the Reverend Roger D. Paxton, Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, the Reverend Thomas G. Holtsclaw, Dr. Milton H. Gilbert, and the Reverend Andrea R. Woodhouse officiating. He was buried on the tranquil grounds of Greenwood Cemetery in his hometown of Clarksville, TN.

Paul was born June 29, 1930, the son of Alvin and Lela Wofford Boone. He graduated a member of the National Honor Society from Clarksville High School in 1948, and from Martin Junior College in Pulaski, TN in 1950. While he was at Emory and Henry College in Virginia, he decided to study for the ministry. He went to Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, GA, and graduated with a B.D. degree in 1955. He obtained his D.Min. degree from Drew University in Madison, NJ, in 1989.

During his 39 years in the ministry, he pastored Methodist churches in the Kilmarnock Charge in Virginia, then transferred to the NC Conference and served the Dublin Charge in 1957. He was also pastor at Lake Waccamaw, 1959; Carthage, 1963; Christ, 1969; Trinity, 1970; Whiteville, 1974; Englewood, 1979; Roxboro: Long Memorial, 1982; and Morehead City: First, 1988. Poor health required retirement in 1995.

Always involved in the community from which he served, Paul was active in such diverse activities as the Boy Scouts, PTA, Retarded Children's Association, and Foster Grandparent's Program. A Rotarian for many years, he was president in Carthage, Roxboro, and most recently, Morehead City, where he was a Paul Harris Fellow. Just as "Be Prepared" is ingrained in a boy scout's lifestyle, so the Rotarian's "4-Way Test" was part of Paul's. Truth and fairness - fine words. Words to live by. And, he did. A regular contributor to the Carteret County News Times, and the Roanoke newspaper until shortly before his death, he shared his "words" in a weekly devotional column titled "Words of Life."

Paul was elected to serve as a member of the town council in Carthage and the city council in Whiteville. Lauded by the editor of The News Reporter in Whiteville, he was said to be level-headed, and further, cited as serving with dignity, intelligence, caution, and concern for future generations.

He enjoyed writing, riding motorcycles, and was an amateur magician. A talented musician, he also played the piano, the organ, and sometimes the coronet.

But Paul's most meaningful contributions were less open to public view, certainly more private. They were the times when he knew, without words, that someone hurt and he responded. They were the times when he kept on going, despite the pain he endured, because he needed to give. They were the times when he battled his own weaknesses, his own fears, so that he could fulfill a promise. To those who knew him well, there was an openness, a gentleness, about Paul. He was always questioning, always seeking, always learning. And he taught just by being the kind of person he was. He had a zest for life, and he lived it fully to the end. About his illness, well, he might accept it, but not its limitations. And he certainly didn't have to like it! He fought long and hard for five years, and he was a witness to his community and congregation of what can be accomplished over adversity. He not only taught us how to live. He taught us how to die. He also taught us how to love.

Paul had faith - faith to walk fearlessly, faith to run confidently, faith to live victoriously.

In our family we remember him best throttling up the motor on our boat as we neared home, his hair blowing in the breeze, a smile on his face. Yes, he'd be back in time to prepare for church.

Paul is survived by his wife, Ellen Brent Boone, of Morehead City; two daughters, Elizabeth Ann Boone Murphy of Archdale, and Paula Ellen Boone of Kernersville; two sons, Dr. Paul W. Boone, Jr., of Newport News, VA, and Robert Brent Boone of Rocky Mount; and two grandchildren, Alan and Leigh Murphy.

BRUCE WAYNE McPHERSON, SR.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away. - Henry David Thoreau

I believe Thoreau must have known Bruce McPherson, or someone just like him. And, others seem to agree.

Listen to Dr. Belton Joyner's words from Bruce's funeral: "Some folks just hear a different drumbeat. Most of us hear a drumbeat which says from time to time, 'Slow down!' But sometimes God puts among us someone who hears a drumbeat that says, 'Go ahead!'"

Most of us hear a drumbeat which says, 'Now, you want to do just the right thing; you want to be politically correct.' But sometimes God puts among us someone who hears the sound of a drum that says, 'Loving is more important than being right.'

Most of us hear a drumbeat that says, 'Death.' But sometimes God puts among us someone who hears a drum that says, 'Life. Resurrection.' Thanks be to God for ears that hear."

Bruce heard a drumbeat which rang sweet and clear the steady beat of "Jesus loves me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so." You could hear it in his laughter, you could feel it in his hugs, you could sense it in his very being. He preached it from the pulpit and in his life.

Dr. Joyner said the same thing of Bruce, in his own characteristic way: "Was Bruce eschatologically pervasive in his homiletic nomenclature? Ha! That's not what he would have called it! His faith was a simple, straight forward trust that Jesus loved him, saved him, and welcomed him home. And he told others about it, both in how he spoke and how he lived."

Bruce got this marvelous faith and zest for life from his parents, Lee Roy and Gertie Mae Cahoon McPherson. He was born October 3, 1948 in Elizabeth City. His parents raised their son as a lover of nature and a lover of people on the Pasquotank River at Elizabeth City. And, he never lost that love for all of God's creatures (except, perhaps, for cats!).

He particularly loved his family. He is survived by his brother, Leroy McPherson, and sister, Mary Jane Hendricks, both of Elizabeth City; his son, Bruce, Jr., of Angier, and Bruce, Jr.'s family - wife, Diane, and children, Cody and Sarah; his daughter, Mary Catherine (Missy), of Lynchburg, VA; his wife, Tracy, and son, Samuel.

Bruce's greatest love, next to his love for His Lord, was his love for his children. God blessed him with Bruce and Missy while he was in his twenties, and with Sam, just a year and a half before he died. Not long after Sam's birth, Bruce said, "If anything ever happens to me, tell my children I delighted in them." And, he did.

Bruce graduated from Central High School in Elizabeth City, from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and from Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest. He also attended Duke Divinity School. He served in the Air Force for two years and served Baptist churches in Virginia before becoming part of the NC Conference of The UMC. He pastored Union Chapel UMC, Kittrell, for seven years, and Trinity UMC, Louisburg, for two years. These were particularly special places because Union Chapel was where we met and were married on June 1, 1991, and Trinity was where our son, Sam, was born and baptized in 1994.

Bruce loved being a preacher; in fact, he could not be anything else. God called him to a wonderful pulpit ministry, and he knew he belonged nowhere else. He often noted, "I know Whose I am, and what I am about." It brought him a peace that truly passed all understanding.

Bruce will not be remembered for the board retreats he planned, the long-range plans he inspired, or the capital campaigns he led. And, somehow, I think he'd be very proud of that. Instead, he will be remembered for the hands he held, the hugs he gave, the prayers he prayed, the jokes he told, the tears he cried, and the second helpings he ate. Most of all, he will be remembered for merely being there, when being there was really important.

Dr. Joyner put it this way: "Why is it that we call to mind a pastor who never seemed to have a hymnal with him in the pulpit?...Who thought Carolina Blue was the correct liturgical color for all seasons?...Who wore shorts, black socks, and dress shoes to play volleyball? Why do we remember the little things? I think it is because the incarnated presence of Jesus Christ in this world has given new holiness to the little moments, to the daily activity, to the common life."

Bruce Wayne McPherson, Sr., died on August 14, 1995, at Duke Medical Center after a heart transplant. While Bruce's heart may have stopped beating, it could never stop loving. You just can't stop a love like that.

The funeral was held in Union Chapel UMC with Dr. Kermit L. Braswell and Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Some people walk to the beat of a different drummer. If you are fortunate, you know someone like this. Someone who lives life to its fullest, who sees the world with wide-eyed wonder, who loves you and everyone else for the sheer joy of it.

Someone like Bruce McPherson.

Tracy Thompson McPherson

WALLACE MARTIN ELLIS

Wally Ellis was born on December 9, 1923 on a farm near Raeford, the oldest son of Henry and Katherine Ellis, and brother to Leonard, Vivian, and Raymond.

After graduating from high school, Wally had to decide whether to play professional baseball or answer God's call into the ministry. Through his mother's prayers, he entered the ministry; however, he never forgot the thrill of hearing a bat as it hit a baseball. He was a great supporter of athletics and its discipline.

Wally earned a B.A. degree from Bob Jones University and furthered his studies at the Charlotte Bible Institute, Temple Seminary, Northern Baptist Seminary and the Conference Course of Study. He believed strongly in education and was an avid student of history.

He worked with the Charlotte Rescue Mission and later became an assistant pastor in Georgia. He accepted a position at Union Baptist Church in West Jackson, OH, where he stayed for seven years.

During this time, he met and married Luella Eller of Marion, OH, on June 19, 1949. He returned to North Carolina and joined the NC Conference in 1954. He wanted to establish a spiritual dominion in the church and to evangelize. At each new appointment, he would announce, "I have come to preach the Gospel."

Wally was comfortable in front of people. He was a wonderful story teller. His love for the Lord was conveyed in his sermons, whether from a tent revival or the pulpit of a large church. While preaching in a tent revival on the family farm, Wally's voice carried to the packhouse where his father was drinking. As Henry Ellis looked at the bottle, and listened to his son's words, the bottle exploded. He never took another drink of alcohol, and lived a godly life before his grandchildren.

Using easy to understand illustrations, and relying on his love for people, Wally successfully pastored over 40 years. His appointments included: Winstead, 1954; Garland, 1956; Benson, 1961; Grifton, 1967; Williamston, 1971; Durham: Bethany, 1980; Robbins: Tabernacle, 1983; and Durham: Asbury, 1987. He and Luella moved back to Williamston following his retirement in 1991 to enjoy their grandchildren.

Wally loved to fill pulpits those first years of his retirement. He continued to be active in civic clubs and the Ministerial Association. He attended all of his grandchildren's activities: gymnastics, football, baseball, T-ball, basketball, wrestling, and band competitions. Five children and six grandchildren kept him very busy. As a prankster and humorist, he showed his love for life, music, and food. He often said unless an athlete looked up and saw his pastor in the stands, a pastor needn't look for the athletes to be in the congregation.

Wally had married each of his five children to their spouses. As he and Luella awaited the birth of their seventh grandchild, the sanctity of life was becoming even more precious. Their first grandchild had been born with severe health problems, and Wally had been struck by the struggles of chronically ill children, especially at Duke. He would dress up in attention-getting outfits while visiting (or sneaking milkshakes to) the pediatric unit of the hospital. The sorrow of his ministry occurred during his last appointment when a precious young child named Jennifer lost her battle with cancer. He said his first question in heaven would be, "Why did the children have to suffer?"

Always an optimist, Wally looked forward to the heart surgery that would restore his health and vitality. He eagerly anticipated the activities "down the road" as he regained his strength. Realistically, as a pastor, he was aware that he might not recover. In his wisdom, he spent quality time with the family and ministered words of encouragement.

Although he lived 16 more months, Wally never fully recovered. He was surrounded by a loving, caring family and friends. He participated in as many family activities as possible. On May 7, 1995, he served communion with Dr. Stan Smith at Edenton UMC. Although he could not speak the words, "The Body of Christ, broken for you," the congregation was blessed to take bread from this frail but loving man. At the end of the service, Stan walked him up the aisle where Wally shook every hand.

Wally's last days were difficult. He quoted John 3:16, Psalm 23, and repeated the Lord's Prayer, with help. His last word was "beautiful!" When he died on Saturday, September 30, 1995 at Pitt County Memorial Hospital, people were stunned. He had handled his declining health with great dignity - just as he had lived it.

A Service of Celebration was held in the First UMC in Williamston where he had served for nine years. The service was led by Reverend Clyde Cheezum, whose ministry he loved and respected, and his brothers in the Lord, Reverends Sam Wood and Wilbur Teachey. Sam and Wilbur, along with their families, had become a part of Wally and Luella's extended family. Luella's sister, Donna Scott, an accomplished pianist, played a medley of Wally's favorite hymns. Sheri and Susan Scott, Wally's nieces, shared two special songs by tape, The Eastern Gate and Finally Home. Burial was in Martin Memorial Gardens.

Survivors include his wife, Luella; five children and their spouses, Lenny and Vicki Plummer of Edenton, Jerry and Nancy Jones, and Rickie and Joyce Gay of Williamston, Freddie and Sharon Ellis of Fayetteville, and Randy and Julie Ellis of Durham; eight grandchildren, Michael and Christopher Jones, Jared and Lindsay-Rebekah Plummer, Brandyn and Jordan Gay, and Jessica and Amanda Ellis (born after her grandfather's death); several aunts, uncles, and cousins; and many nieces and nephews.

ROBERT EDWARD WALSTON

KATHRYN ERMA BAUM WALSTON

1916 - 1996

On October 30, 1995, God called home one of His own, Robert Edward Walston. Four months later on March 1, 1996, within the same hour, He called home Bob's beloved companion of 59 years, Kathryn Baum Walston. The two, whose lives were so deeply intertwined, were together again in the presence of the Lord they had served so faithfully for so many years. The services of praise and thanksgiving for their lives were conducted at the First UMC in Williamston by the Reverend Clyde Cheezem and the Reverend Lloyd Braswell. Graveside services were held at Greenwood Cemetery in Tarboro.

Bob was born in Edgecombe County on December 30, 1905, the son of John and Ida Walston. He attended elementary and high school in the Conetoe community of Edgecombe County and graduated from Trinity College (now Duke University) where he received a degree in religious education. He taught mathematics for the next six years and although he loved teaching, he felt God's strong call to the ministry. In 1930, he returned to Duke and graduated from the Divinity School. He was admitted into the NC Conference in 1934.

Kathryn was born in Currituck County on September 22, 1916, the daughter of Tom and Mamie Baum. Her mother died when she was an infant and she was brought up by loving relatives, George and Dona Baum. She graduated from Popular Branch High School in 1933.

Bob and Kathryn met while he was serving his first pastorate in Kitty Hawk. They were married on December 20, 1935. Together, they actively served charges in Kitty Hawk, 1934; Chowan, 1935; Pink Hill, 1939; Grifton, 1942; Burgaw, 1947; Williamston, 1951; Camp Ground, 1956; Ahoskie, 1960; Elm City, 1964; and Pine Forest, 1968.

They had two children, Janet Lilley of Williamston and Johnny Walston of Wilson; four grandchildren, Michael and Christy Lilley, and John and Jana Walston. Kathryn is also survived by a brother, Wyatt Baum of Kitty Hawk.

Bob was an active leader in Conference affairs. He was especially interested in the town and country work being conducted by the Conference. In 1954, he co-authored a book with C. G. Nickens entitled, Frontiers Again, published by the Commission of Town and Country Work, in which they pointed out the challenges facing the Methodist Church in expanding into rural areas. Because of his work with this commission, he was the only rural pastor from the state to represent NC Methodists at the General Conference in Denver, CO, in 1960. Bob also helped organize the Methodist Minister's Credit Union, and served as its treasurer for several years.

Kathryn's ministry was a ministry of giving. She was an excellent cook, and from her kitchen she dispensed delicious meals for friends, family, shut-ins, and fellow church members. She believed in taking one day at the time, and trying to find something helpful to do for others. She often served as a lay member to Annual Conference and was active in the women's work of the church.

Due to Bob's declining health, he went on disability leave in 1969, then took retirement in 1971. They moved to Goldsboro where they lived for 21 years. There, whenever able, Bob filled empty pulpits, and he and Kathryn were active in Meals on Wheels, enjoyed gardening, and devoting time to each other and their family. As Bob's eyesight and health continued to fail, he and Kathryn moved back to Williamston to be near their daughter.

Bob loved to read and enjoyed all types of literature. However, his eyesight eventually became so poor he was no longer able to read his much loved books. With Kathryn's help, he subscribed to taped books from the library for the blind and handicapped. At the time of his death, the librarian commented that he was their most avid "reader," having received more than 1,500 books!

A quiet, gentle man, Bob's life was his witness. He will be remembered for his deep abiding faith in his God, his steadfast service to the church, his devotion to his family, and the patience and courage he exhibited in later life while blind and confined to a wheelchair.

Kathryn will be remembered for her generous spirit, the dignity and honor she brought to every church and parsonage she served with her husband, her commitment to her God and family, and especially, her devotion to her beloved Bob. Though ill with cancer herself, she continued to care for him, often ignoring her own health, without complaint, and with a heart filled with love.

Our lives were so blessed to have had parents such as these.

BILLIE RUDOLPH McCULLEN

Billie McCullen served God faithfully, he preached the Bible, and whenever he met a stranger, he left a friend.

He was born in Wayne County in the Grantham Community June 21, 1921, the son of Henry Eugene and Lena Sasser McCullen. He served in the US Army from 1943 until 1946. After he returned home, he was active as a Boy Scout leader and was the Sunday School superintendent at his home church, Falling Creek Methodist, prior to being called into the ministry. After the call, Billie completed his requirements for ministry in the NC Conference at Louisburg College and Duke Divinity School. He was ordained a deacon in 1958, an elder in 1960, and made full connection in 1964.

Billie served the following appointments: Institute Charge, 1954; Faison charge, 1957; Bethany in Wanchese, 1965; Oxford Charge, 1966; Pink Hill, 1968; Vanceboro Circuit, 1969; Micro-Fellowship Charge, 1971; and Whitley-Elizabeth Charge, 1980. He retired in 1984, and moved back to the Grantham Community. He was attending his home church when he was asked to fill the pulpit at Asbury in Smithfield, and he served this church for four years. He preached his last sermon there the Sunday before his death.

Billie passed away November 6, 1995, at Wayne Memorial Hospital in Goldsboro, His funeral service was held at Seymour Funeral Home in Goldsboro, with interment at Wayne Memorial Park in Goldsboro. The funeral service was conducted by Goldsboro

District Superintendent Jim C. Lee, with Reverends Richard Sharp, Michael Bryant, and Jean Hood. During personal remarks by Reverend Hood, he said, "Billie was the same everyday, nothing artificial. He was like an old shoe. Everywhere he served the Lord, Bill felt good and fitted like the old shoe. You all loved him, and he loved you."

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Gladys Louise Cox McCullen, whom he married on November 15, 1942; a daughter, Rosemary McCullen of Morehead City; son and daughter-in-law Billy Wayne and Connie McCullen, two grandchildren, Allison and Tim McCullen, all of Princeton; and two sisters, Rachel M. Cox of Grantham, and Lucy M. Lee of Bentonville.

Billie loved the church members he served and made many lifelong friends who he treasured through the years. Our family was very proud of his accomplishments, whether it be building a new church for a congregation, or bringing a new member into the church. Our home was always filled with warmth and love. Dad was always there for us anytime we needed help or guidance. Our hearts are heavy, but we know that his death is what he lived his life for, to be with his Heavenly Father.

At the end of the funeral service, the congregation stood and sang his favorite hymn. I would like to include the chorus:

"I'm living on the mountain, underneath a cloudless sky,
I'm drinking at the fountain that never shall run dry,
O yes, I'm feasting on the manna from a bountiful supply,
For I am dwelling in Beulah Land."

THOMAS BRYANT HOUGH

The Reverend Doctor Thomas Bryant Hough died on Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 1995, in Mt. Pleasant, SC. He had been in declining health since 1988. For him this was a true day of thanksgiving when God finally called him home as he was surrounded by his family. The funeral was held on November 25, 1995 in Christ Church churchyard in Mt. Pleasant, conducted by Reverend Clyde Dunn.

"T. B." was born November 7, 1903 in Anson County, the son of Robert Andrew and Janie Simpson Hough. The oldest of eight children, he worked on the family farm and in the sawmill as a boy, and always felt that this work made him strong physically and also strong in motivation. As a young man he went to Draughan Business College in Columbia, SC, and said that the business experience was invaluable to him in his pastoral duties. Hough was always one to make the most of all opportunities to learn and grow.

He attended Rutherford College in Connellys Springs, where he played football. From there he attended Duke University where he was working his way through undergraduate school when he was sent to fill a vacant pulpit in Tabor City. There he met and married Mary Garnette Martin, the daughter of a Baptist minister on June 15, 1928.

Married for 67 years, Bryant and Mary formed a special partnership in the ministry of the NC Conference which was a blessing and witness to all. He often said that Mary worked as hard as he did, but that he got all the credit. They had one child, Mary Jane, who now lives in Charleston, SC.

Bryant and Mary moved first to Swansboro in 1929 where he had four churches, Swansboro, Queen's Creek, Bear Creek, and Oak Grove, and bought an old schoolhouse to be used as a church. Next, he served the Millbrook Circuit in 1931 with four churches, Millbrook, Rolesville, Knightdale, and Pleasant Grove; the Garner Circuit in 1923 with four churches, Garner, Ebenezer, Mt. Zion, and Hollands; then the Swepsonville Circuit in 1937 with four churches, Swepsonville, Phillips Chapel, Saxapahaw, and Salem.

In 1941 he went to Mebane for 11 years where he united the Methodist-Presbyterian and Methodist-Episcopal Churches, and built a church. He went to Jacksonville in 1952 and built a church, then to Lumberton in 1956 and built another church.

In 1962 he became district superintendent of the Burlington District. He subsequently moved to his last pastorate at First Church in Rockingham in 1967, where he served for six years.

T. B., always a strong believer in education, acquired his B.A., Th.M., Th.D., and D.D. degrees from various institutions including Duke, Emory, American Bible College, and the University of Iowa. He served on conference boards in Ministerial Training, Missions and Evangelism, Methodist Foundation, and trustee for both the NC Conference and Methodist Home, and vice-president of Committee on Wills and Gifts.

Active in every community in which he lived, Hough served as Lt. Governor of Kiwanis International. He also was active in the Boy Scouts and was chosen Man of the Year in Rockingham in 1979. He was a delegate to the Kiwanis International Convention in Seattle in 1950, and he was a delegate to the Worldwide Methodist Conference in London in 1966.

He retired from active ministry in The United Methodist Church in 1971, however, he continued to preach whenever he was invited until 1986 when he suffered a severe stroke. Although his body and mind weakened over the next nine years, he remained a beacon of faith and an inspiration to those who knew him, especially his beloved grandchildren.

He always said, "Put your faith in the Lord, work hard, and try to do your very best." This is the way T. B. Hough lived and died.

WALTER ALLEN WENTZ, JR.

How is friendship measured? How is family life examined? How is faithfulness charted? In some way, friendship, family, and faith have lived most fully when laughter has been shared, when tears have been real, and when truth has been told. That's the way life was for Allen Wentz. And that's the way death has been too, for we have remembered him with joy, we have missed him with sadness, and we have continued to grow with the truth, the unvarnished truth, he gave.

Born August 31, 1925 in Rockingham, Allen was the son of Walter Allen Wentz, Sr. and Carolyn Hillbrath Wentz. From 1943 until 1946 he served in the US Navy as a Pharmacist Mate. (How appropriate that the Navy Hymn was the processional music for his funeral service and his memorial service!) After graduating from Elon College, he completed studies at Duke Divinity School in the class of 1952. After 40 years of service through the NC Conference, he retired in 1992 (most will not forget his far-ranging, tell-it-like-it-is retirement speech!).

Allen married Shirley Joyner, whom he had met at Elon College, on September 8, 1951. Allen and Shirley had three children: Verna Carol Wentz, now of Raleigh; Matthew Allen Wentz, now of Cary; and Douglas Karl Wentz, now of Raleigh. There are two grandchildren: Jenny Hair of Chapel Hill and Richard Hair of Cary.

At the memorial service in Raleigh, one speaker said, "Allen Wentz had a faith and a spirit and an integrity that was transportable. His faith, his spirit, his integrity were the same everywhere he went. Allen did not need circumstances to define his character. His character defined his circumstances. That's what happens when Jesus Christ captures all of a life, when Jesus Christ captures all of all of a life." His ministry was marked with that kind of wholeness; he knew how to listen; he knew when to speak. Charges he served across the conference valued his pastoral leadership: South Camden, Belhaven, Wrightsboro, Wendell, Leasburg-Salem, Murfreesboro, Fuquay-Varina, Raleigh: Trinity, and Mount Gilead. His love of ministry with children and his stewardship of God's created order took focus in his four years on the staff of the Conference Council on Ministries as Coordinator of Children's Ministry and Camping. In retirement years, he continued to be active in outdoor and camping ministry (and, for that matter, in pulpit supply). Both his active ministry and his ministry in retirement were marked by an encouragement of young pastors, a gift which will in splendid ripple effect impact our Lord's ministry in eastern North Carolina for decades to come.

And then there is the matter of the caps. One never quite knew whether they were for Allen's pleasure (and protection of his precious pate) or were for the delight and amazement of friends who counted an untold range of color, design, condition, shape, and coverage. Wearing the caps was playful; it was useful; it was creative - it was Allen.

Having put the Christmas tree into place, on December 8, 1995, Allen settled into a favorite chair at home in Frankin, VA, and died. To die at home and in celebration of our Lord's birth seemed to fit this friend who so valued and served family and faith.

On December 11, 1995, pastoral colleagues Charles H. Hutchinson, Margaret R. Saunders, and William M. Presnell led a service of death and resurrection at Murfreesboro UMC. Interment was at Poplar Springs Cemetery in Franklin, VA. On December 16, 1995, Trinity UMC in Raleigh was the site of a memorial service, led by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., Beth M. Norris, Reginald W. Ponder, Richard R. Blankenhorn, and F. Belton Joyner, Jr. The service included an anthem, The Word of God, which had been written in 1992 to honor Allen upon his retirement at Mount Gilead. At both services, there were laughters and there were tears. It seemed right to do both.

Allen was survived by two sisters, Virginia W. West of Rockingham and Elizabeth W. McDougald of Hamilton, AL, and by one brother, Henry H. Wentz of Raleigh. One sister, Josephine W. Estes, died before Allen.

Allen Wentz lived (and died) with straightforwardness. He wrote a poem which explored how much God in love gives us and how much we in love give God. The poem closes in this straightforward way:

Oh for
A thousand
Hands and hearts
Give Again and,
Again to give Thanks to Him...
My God.
Amen...that much!

RAMSEY LEON CROSSNO

The Reverend Ramsey Leon Crossno was born November 10, 1910, on his family's farm near Bells, TN, and died the night of December 18, 1995, while hospitalized at Sampson County Memorial Hospital in Clinton. His funeral occurred at Warsaw UMC in Warsaw, the town to which he and his wife had moved once he entered full retirement. He was buried in Moyock Memorial Cemetery in Moyock, his widow's home community.

The son of Robert Lee and Lida Mae Butts Crossno, he was reared on the farm, attended Asbury College in Wilmore, KY, and the Divinity School of Duke University, and joined the NC Conference in 1936. He was ordained deacon in 1938 and elder in 1940.

Leon Crossno's active ministry, one which extended for almost exactly 50 years, found him serving Walstonburg, 1936; Carrboro, 1937; Lillington, 1938; Moyock, 1943; Warsaw, 1948; Branson in Durham, 1952; Cherry Point in Havelock, 1955; Enfield, 1960; Oxford, 1970; Fifth Avenue in Wilmington, 1974; and, following official retirement in 1981, Harrells, 1981-85.

On August 1, 1944, he married Katherine Elizabeth Poyner of Moyock. She survives him, as do three sons and four grandchildren. The eldest son is John Leon Crossno of Raleigh. Also living in Raleigh is Robert Seth Crossno, who is married to the former Joyce Angel, and the father of Robert Seth Crossno II and Jette Taylor Crossno. The youngest son, Kenneth Graham Crossno of Kinston, is married to the former Carol Dobey, and is the father of Candace Lynn Crossno and Lauren Elizabeth Crossno.

The list of what he loved is a long one: God, The United Methodist Church, his ministry, his wife, his sons and grandchildren, his brothers and sisters, and gardening, bird-hunting, and fishing. Leon Crossno felt he was at his most effective when he was able to serve communities rather like the one in which he had been reared: small-town farming communities. Thus, certainly the members of his churches soon would come to know that he was reliable and glad-hearted in conducting the rituals of the church for themselves and their families, visiting in their homes, and attending by their hospital beds. His church members also would quickly discover that his ministry extended to the time he spent at the hardware store, the drugstore, in his vegetable garden, in the fields with his bird dogs, and in the creeks and rivers casting for bass and bream.

He was a brilliant preacher. Entering the pulpit without sermon notes, and always appearing absolutely at ease, he would deliver sermons that were perfectly constructed and delivered in language that managed to be both simple and eloquent at the same time. He could move a congregation to laughter as well as to tears within the same message. The biblical texts he chose were always meaningful, and the applications he made of them were drawn from what he had observed in his own life, the lives of others, and what he had observed in nature itself. Invariably, Crossno's sermons taught that God was a very present Being of love, gentleness, good hope, joy, and laughter.

In the course of his life and ministry, he touched the lives of thousands of people. He left them the better for having known him. He left the world a better place for having moved through it. And, for his family and friends, the world is emptier now that he has traveled on beyond it.

Orville Earl Leonard went home to God December 19, 1995. It is certain that he was welcomed with joy, and with the words, "Well done, my good and faithful servant," for he spent his long life from the age of 19 in God's ministry. His every effort was spent in reaching those who had not heard or did not know the way to salvation. There must be many, many stars in his crown.

He was born March 15, 1910, in Manchester, OH, to Ora and Lillie Carter Leonard, and it was there, in the Island Creek Church, that he began his ministry. Several years later, he joined Reverend Clinton Ferneau preaching in a series of revival meetings throughout Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. Reverend Ferneau was accompanied by his daughter, Mildred, who was preparing to go to British East Africa, now Kenya, as a missionary. Orville fell in love with Mildred (and she with him), and they planned to marry.

Reverend Leonard received God's call to Africa. "How shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent?" (Romans 10:14, 15) "Jesus said...The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth laborers into his harvest." (Luke 10:2) Orville left for Kenya in early 1937, to join Mildred, who had gone the previous year. He carried with him a lovely wedding dress for Mildred, handsewn by her mother. He and Mildred were married at the Ten Week Mission Station, April 8, 1937.

The oldest two of their four children, Roberta Hope and Faith Marie, were born in Kenya. The other two, James Orville and Love, were born and grew up with Hope and Faith, on other mission fields. Among these were the Texas-Mexican Border and Cuba. At each and every mission station, he built churches, clinics, schools, and a Bible college, preaching God's word, with Mildred attending to the flock.

After returning from the mission field, Reverend Leonard pastored a number of churches in the NC Conference. They retired, finally, to Augusta, GA. His wife, Mildred, preceded him in death July 30, 1992, following 55 years of marriage.

Reverend Leonard happily accepted the difficulties and challenges of missionary life. Like all other of God's missionaries, he went many an extra mile. He led a lifelong crusade for God and His church with a sure conviction - praying, serving, preaching, and teaching - fulfilling his duty with joy. He gave up all worldly goods, creature comforts and conveniences, chances for worldly advancement, all for his love of God. In the most bleak and primitive surroundings or circumstances, his courage and faith never wavered. He was determined to point the way to Jesus and to His offer of redemption, salvation, and eternal life. He faithfully followed Jesus's commandment to go into all the world to preach the gospel, secure in the knowledge that Jesus was with him every step of the way. He carried out his ministry, his responsibility to God every day of his life. His life, in fact, was a testimony to God's saving power and abiding love.

Orville used to say that good men don't go to heaven, holy ones do. As he lay dying, he asked to have the description (from John's Revelation) of God's heavenly city read to him. He knew he was bound for that city: he was a holy man. He said, "I want only to see my Lord, and then to see Mildred." It is certain that he did so. And, I also am certain that he will spend eternity there, in the presence of his Lord Jesus.

He loved his family inordinately, especially his wife, Mildred, his children, his grandchildren, and his brothers and sisters. He did everything for each of us that he possibly could. And loving us so much, he gave us a most precious gift: a shining example, his own life, lived in the fear and an overwhelming love of God. He taught us to pray for forgiveness, salvation, and grace, for Jesus' help, and for His immediate blessing. If he were here now, he would plead with us to keep our family circle unbroken.

Reverend Leonard is survived by one sister, Mildred L. Gulley, and one brother, Reverend Chester Leonard, both of Manchester, OH; his children: Hope Leonard Robinson of 4915 Carriagepark Rd., Fairfax, VA 22032, Faith L. Bishop of Martinez, GA, James Orville Leonard of Athens, GA, and Love Leonard Hinshaw of Burlington; 11 grandchildren: Deborah Luce, Ronnie Cunigan, Bryan Cunigan, Tracy Martin, Mark Athey, Gregg Athey, Thomas Athey, Gary Leonard, Kerry Leonard, Christopher Leonard, and Jennifer Hinshaw; and by 13 great-grandchildren.

Alton Scott Lancaster, Sr., was born on July 25, 1908, the youngest of eight children of William Scott and Sarah Elizabeth Lancaster of Raeford. From his youngest years, family was the guiding factor in his life. Nothing was more important to Alton than his brothers and sisters, his three children and their families, and his beloved wife, Ruby. She preceded him in death on May 30, 1991, after 56 years of marriage. They were married September 1, 1934.

As a minister in The United Methodist Church, Alton's family grew to include friends and parishioners in the churches that he and Ruby served: Marvin, 1948; Roanoke Circuit, 1951; Pasquotank Circuit, 1951; Pine Forest, 1954; Salem, 1958; Vanceboro, 1963; Franklin Memorial, 1964; Institute, 1968; and Washington Circuit, 1972.

An exuberant laugh and a tender heart, it is for these two characteristics that Alton Lancaster will be best remembered. No one ever enjoyed a joke more and few were quicker to offer one. Alton saw the kingdom of Christ as a community of joy and lived so as to convey this attitude to others. Although he always kept a suitable reverence at appropriate times, he detested excessive solemnity, and he always sought to lead his parishioners to see their faith as cause for celebration. His constant smile and his exuberant sincerity led untold numbers to a richer walk on the spiritual path.

Alton's tender heart broke for all the sad and oppressed souls that he encountered, and he witnessed for his Savior that our faith is one of comfort and assurance. In good times and bad, he modeled for his congregations and for the world the availability of peace through reliance on the Lord.

Although he retired from the active pastorate in 1973, Alton's ministry, at that point, simply entered a new phase. Along with Ruby, he became active in the Lay Witness movement. In this capacity they logged thousands of miles across the country as they traveled to witness for Christ. Throughout these journeys and throughout these years, Alton gave form to their faith as he distributed thousands of cards reading, "Smile, God Loves You!"

As the years began to take their toll and their travels were limited, Alton and Ruby entered the Carrolton Nursing Home in Lumberton. Alton continued to witness through the Sunday School and church services at the nursing home and individually to staff, fellow residents, and their families. Many stories have been told of Alton, alone in his room, with scarcely enough energy to see him through the day, spontaneously breaking into song with hymns of faith and praise. Even in his declining years, Alton's life continued to be a shining example of the Christ life.

Alton's health deteriorated steadily for the last couple of years and on February 6, 1996, he succumbed with all his family gathered about, holding hands and breathing prayers of thanks for his peaceful transition.

Funeral services were held at Carter Funeral Home in Clarkton on February 9, 1996 with Dr. Kermit L. Braswell and Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., officiating. Alton was laid to rest between Ruby and his mother in the Raeford Memorial Cemetery.

He is survived by two daughters, Loretta L. Willoughby of Winterville, and Dr. Elizabeth L. Braswell of Goldsboro; and by a son, Alton S. Lancaster, Jr., of Clarkton.

Dr. Shockley's lifelong commitment to United Methodism and the ministry has been extraordinary. He was well loved, and will be missed by relatives, friends, colleagues, and former students around the world.

EUGENE ADDISON COLLINS, SR.

Eugene Addison Collins, Sr., was born on November 10, 1934 in Berwick, PA, the son of Russell and Lois Collins. He was graduated from Bob Jones University at age 17, and at that time, he was the youngest person ever to graduate from the University.

Though Gene's early career was spent as manager and buyer for department stores throughout New Jersey and Pennsylvania, he always spent time assisting pastors in area Methodist churches where he lived.

He married Anne Lorraine Revicki on January 11, 1958, and they became the parents of three children: Denise C. Kennedy of Pittsburgh, PA; Eugene Addison Collins, Jr., of Wilmington; and Elizabeth Lynn Collins of Hampstead. He also had two grandchildren: Micheal John Kennedy of Pittsburgh, PA, and Eugene Addison Collins III of Wilmington.

Gene came to the NC Conference and entered its ministry in 1988 as a full-time local pastor when he was 53 years old. At that time, Gene was residing in Hampstead. He obtained his license to preach and served appointments at Topsail Island in the Wilmington District from 1988 until 1991, and the Bladen Charge in the Wilmington District (Bethlehem, Deems, Live Oak, and Windsor churches) from 1991 until 1994.

All too soon, critical health problems required that Gene go on disability leave in 1994, whereupon he moved to Clermont, FL. Death came from complications of heart disease on May 5, 1996 at South Lake Memorial Hospital in Clermont, FL, and he was cremated at Clermont.

Gene spent many years plagued with diabetes, chronic back problems, arthritis, and finally, the heart disease from which he died. Despite these infirmities, and perhaps because of them, he answered the call of the Christian pilgrim. It is as though in helping others, he would not have time to think of himself. And he went at it with enthusiasm.

"Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all to the glory of God."

WALTER BRYAN GREGORY

Though he had defeated cancer once before, Walter Bryan Gregory succumbed to lymphoma on May 7, 1996, following over 81 years in a special spiritual walk with God. A celebration of his homegoing was held at New Hope UMC in Roanoke Rapids with Rocky Mount District Superintendent Tom Loftis, and the Reverend Greg Minnick, officiating. He was buried beside his wife at the Morris Family Cemetery near Roanoke Rapids.

Surviving family members include his two sons, W. Bryan Gregory, Jr., of Matthews and William D. Gregory of Lilburn, GA; three sisters, Marie Gregory of Orlando, FL, Melba Brynildsen of Angier, and Margie (Mrs. Harvey) Montague of Durham; two brothers, Haywood Gregory of Angier, and Max Gregory of Orlando, FL; four grandchildren, "Trip" Gregory, David Gregory, Anita Gregory Arnold, and Caroline Gregory.

Born on October 22, 1914, Bryan Gregory was one of 10 children of William Haywood Gregory who ran a hardware store, and Mabel Collette Gregory of Angier. He was graduated from Angier High School, Louisburg College, High Point College, and continued with seminary studies at Duke Divinity School. He was ordained a deacon in 1947 and an elder in 1949 in the NC Conference.

While in Roanoke Rapids for field education and lay preaching for Duke Divinity School, he met Eva Mae Powell. They were married on October 24, 1943, and produced two sons.

Before retirement in 1980, Bryan spent 37 years preaching at 47 churches in eastern NC. His appointments were City Road-White Memorial, 1943; South Camden, 1944; Town Creek, 1945; Stumpy Point, 1947; Hatteras, 1949; Kitty Hawk, 1953; Creswell, 1956; Whiteville Circuit, 1957; Bath, 1959; Harrellsville, 1962; Shallotte Circuit, 1963; Dublin, 1965; Garland, 1969; and Bonlee, 1973. Poor health forced Bryan to take disability leave in 1974.

For their retirement years, Bryan and Eva Mae moved to her home in Roanoke Rapids where they remained until she died of congestive heart failure on August 31, 1991. Bryan faithfully continued his attendance and devotion to the church until the last several months of his life when he became so weak and feeble. He moved to Bryan, Jr.'s home in Matthews for the last few months of his life, and he seemed very happy and secure there, spending his last days close to caring family and friends.

Among favorite memories of Walter Bryan Gregory are remembering how much he loved singing and visiting with his church families for so many years. Eva Mae was always beside him in this devoted ministry, and together, they made a beautiful lasting impression on many of God's children.

SARALEE WILLIS GRAY

Saralee Willis was born on August 28, 1909 on the NC coast at Atlantic, the youngest child of Walter Lee and Mary Ida Goodwin Willis. Her sister, Eva Willis Johnson, and her brother, Martin Willis, preceded her in death. Saralee's early education was in the Beaufort Schools.

While working in Durham, she met Alan de Leon Gray, a divinity student at Duke Divinity School. They were married in May of 1941 in Durham after he completed seminary school.

Leon joined the NC Conference that year, and Saralee became a gracious helpmate to her husband and his ministry. She was an excellent cook, she loved working on her still life paintings, and she assisted wherever she was needed in the many areas of her husband's church work. They had an active life in civic clubs and affairs of the community as well.

Leon was appointed to Jacksonville in 1941, then to Snow Hill in 1945.

When Leon was called to serve as superintendent of the Oxford Orphanage in 1946, they went without hesitation. To this point they had no children of their own, now they had many to care for, and they held this job joyfully for 28 years until Leon's health required retirement in 1974.

During retirement in Beaufort, they were as active as health allowed. Leon served three years at Cedar Island before his health declined to the point that Saralee cared for him completely for several years. He died on January 5, 1985.

Saralee remained in Beaufort among family and friends, and she continued her Lord's work faithfully for 10 more years. Then for six months, she became very ill before she succumbed to cancer on June 5, 1995, in Carteret General Hospital in Morehead City.

Her funeral was held in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Beaufort with the Reverend Matthew Stockard officiating. She was buried beside her husband in the St. Paul's Church cemetery.

Saralee's surviving family are one adopted daughter, Mrs. Mary Ruth Mauldin of Charlotte; two granddaughters, Bronwyn and Missy Mauldin; two nieces, Mrs. Shirley Babcock and Mrs. Mary Palazzo of Beaufort; one grandniece; two grandnephews; three great-grandnieces; and one great-great-grandniece whom Saralee adored, especially since this made five generations of her beloved family.

JOSIE DUNN MURRAY

Josie Dunn Murray, loving wife of Eric O. Murray for nearly 62 years, was born to Sam and Julia Ann Dunn on January 26, 1912 at Aarons Creek, VA, in Halifax County. Her family moved to Durham when she was 12 years of age. She attended school at Aarons Creek and the Durham City Schools.

"Jo," as she liked to be called, attended church all her life. From a child she loved to sing praise to God in church and home. For years she sang alto in church choirs. She also sang duets with her sister and her husband for many years.

Jo was married to Eric Octavious Murray at Halifax, VA, on October 27, 1933. They made their home in Durham until World War II when Eric was called into the Seabees of the Navy. Jo moved near Eric in camps at Williamsburg, VA, and Providence, RI. She moved back to Durham when Eric sailed to England and France in August of 1943.

Jo knew that Eric was called to the Christian ministry while in service, and in August of 1946, while Eric waited in camp for his discharge, she rented an apartment at Nyack College, Nyack, NY. Jo graciously helped her husband through college by typing papers and making do-nuts to sell at the campus store. She was highly respected and loved by all the Nyack College community.

In 1951, Jo and Eric began their ministry in Burlington. They also served in Richmond, VA, and Lumberton. In 1962, they joined the NC Conference and served Pineview, Allensville-Trinity, Union Chapel, Hollands, Asbury-Dover, and Faith in Burlington. After retiring in 1980, they served six years at Wellons Village Church in Durham.

Jo's beautiful smile is remembered by so many in the NC Conference. She had a divine gift for making the parsonage an influential arm of the church congregation where people could come for any kind of help, comfort, and fellowship. Every church felt the Christ-like love of Jo Murray, and many souls will be in heaven because she led them to Christ as Savior and Lord.

In 1960, Jo and Eric adopted a beloved son, Eric Mark Murray, who now owns Mark's Plumbing Company in Garner. They were proud parents of Mark and his lovely wife, Myra. They also were proud of their three precious grandchildren: Patty, Erica, and Mark, Jr., who live at 6304 Diamond Drive in Raleigh. Jo's husband continues to live in Durham.

Jo entered the glory of heaven on July 4, 1995, at Durham Regional Hospital. Her pastor, Reverend Ed Bogie, held her funeral at Glendale Heights UMC. The choir sang so beautifully Jo's favorite hymns: "He Touched Me" and "Oh, How I Love Jesus." She was buried next to her sister in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

The words of our Lord surely applied to Jo when He said: "Well done thou good and faithful servant...enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." This wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, is sorely missed, but she will welcome us all when Christ gathers us home.

LOIS CROUSE BINGHAM

On Sunday, July 9, Lois Crouse Bingham completed her living on this earth. Her Master said, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful...enter into the joy of your Lord." (Matthew 25:21)

Lois was born in Greensboro on April 23, 1906, to James Louis and Hannah Teague Crouse. Besides helping her mother with the rearing of three younger sisters and four younger brothers, she learned to drive the family's "Pierce-Arrow" by age 10, and worked with her father's contracting company while in high school.

She graduated from Asbury College in Wilmore, KY, in 1925, and she was married to the Reverend Buell E. Bingham in 1927. Under the Wesleyan Church, then Pilgrim Holiness, they served as co-missionaries in the British West Indies on the islands of Grand Cayman, Jamaica, and Antigua, and pastored churches in Oklahoma, Illinois, California, and North Carolina. She was ordained by the Wesleyan Church in 1927; taught English, French, typing, and was a media specialist in the NC Public Schools for 25 years in Cumberland, Washington, Alamance, Dare, Camden, Beaufort, Halifax, and Randolph Counties, and she served as librarian for the city of Archdale.

Lois supported her family and her husband's ministry in many other ways; she plucked turkeys, and she won the national sales award in 1943 for the Westmoreland Sterling Silver Company. She was licensed as a local pastor in the NC Conference in 1949 when Buell was incapacitated with broken vertebrae. She was a member of the Sunset Garden Club and the Pilot Club.

She came from a musical family - each of the nine children played a brass instrument - and her father, who also played, sponsored tent meetings across the South. Lois sang in a quartet as well as playing the piano at recitals. Music played an important role in her romance with Buell Bingham, who played a double B-flat tuba and sang in a quartet. All four offspring of Lois and Buell were excellent musicians with keyboard and vocal skills. From early childhood, the children sang three-part harmony at many tent meetings and recitals. It was a daily devotional practice to sing hymns in addition to scripture and prayer.

In retirement, Lois chose to live in Archdale next door to her two maiden aunts, Lolly and Isa Crouse, and to care for them until their demise. Lois joined the Archdale UMC in 1969 after Buell's retirement from active appointment. Her many years of service at Archdale Church included being teacher of the Wesley Women's Bible Class. After Buell's death, Lois presented the church a new organ in his memory.

Surviving are three daughters: Ms. Rebecca Carnes of Chapel Hill, Ms. Juanita Miller of Fayetteville, and Ms. Priscilla Durkin of Maryland; one son, Dr. William Louis Bingham of Raleigh; three brothers, Joseph, Charles, and David Crouse, all of Wilmore, KY; 15 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

One grandson, William Allen Bingham, a pastor in this Conference, gave the funeral homily, and six grandsons sang "Zion's Hill" as a tribute to their grandmother.

Batchelor, both of Southport; Stephen Ray Batchelor of Sunset Beach, and Ms. Rose Marie Hensley of Raleigh. Her husband, Edward, died on May 29, 1983, and she had one son deceased, Edward C. Batchelor II. She also is survived by one sister, Doris Smith of Whiteville; and two brothers, Joseph Dyson of Wilmington, and William Walker Dyson of Lumberton.

Grace was a model Christian. She spent all of her time caring for her children, her husband, and her home. She was a devoted mother and wife throughout her life. She worked very hard with her husband in the churches and communities in which he served. Her calling was to support her husband and the work of the church in any way possible. She loved God and she loved her family.

After retiring in 1983, Grace and Edward purchased a new home in Whiteville. Tragically, he was killed in a car accident in May of that year. They had been married for 41 years. Throughout her illness, Grace never gave up and was able to live alone after the death of her husband. She loved to give to others, and had a soft spot in her heart for stray animals. She also loved gardening and fresh flowers.

Grace never wanted to be a burden to anyone, and during all her suffering, was able to remain at home. The one word that best describes Grace is integrity - always speaking the truth - loving her family, God, and country. She was loved by many.

MARY ELIZABETH COX WATSON

Mary Elizabeth Cox Watson died in her sleep on September 30, 1995 in her home in Princeton, WV, where she had resided for the past 13 years. She leaves behind three children, Ann B. (Ann) Watson Maxwell of Apalachin, NY; Robert R. (Bob) Watson of Tulsa, OK; and William E. (Bill) Watson of Goldsboro. She had seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in Princeton on October 2. She was buried beside her husband at Roselawn Memorial Gardens near Princeton.

Born at Castlewood, VA, on October 18, 1919 to Ezra and Blanche Porter Cox, she grew up there attending the area schools.

She married Orville William Watson, also from Castlewood, on July 11, 1937. Her greatest pride and devotion was to her family and to her church. During Orville's college years, Mary worked beside him in pastorates in the West Virginia Conference, and later when he transferred to the NC Conference in 1959. While in the NC Conference, he took appointments at Amity, Roanoke Circuit, Rockingham: East, Robbins, and Rowland: First.

Together, they served 33 years in the ministry until advanced cancer required Orville to take disability leave in 1980. In very serious health, Mary cared for him faithfully until his death on January 7, 1982. In these last few years, Mary's health also declined when she developed heart problems.

Family and friends will remember that Mary was always an avid sports fan, and that she greatly enjoyed quilting, but most of all, she was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. She will be missed.

"Now upon the farther shore lands the voyager at last. Father, in Thy gracious keeping leave we now Thy servant sleeping."

OLIVE BLANCHE HOOPER MEEKINS

Born on December 4, 1903, Blanche Hooper Meekins lived with great zest for almost 92 years. She was born in the same month and in that same county when the first airplane was being flown by the Wright brothers at Kill Devil Hills. She died in Manteo, also in Dare County, on November 1, 1995, after a life that spanned most of the century, and was laid to rest in the Mausoleum at Roanoke Island Memorial Gardens.

Blanche was married on December 8, 1923, to Earl Ray Meekins, a member of the NC Conference, for 61 years until his death on October 20, 1984. They first met when she was three days old and Earl's mother brought the three year old boy to see the new baby girl in the close-knit community of Stumpy Point. Later Blanche liked to tell how Earl first told her matter-of-factly that he was going to marry her when she grew up: she was 10 years old at the time.

Life in Stumpy Point was isolated in those days and closely defined by church, home, and a one-room school. Most survived by fishing or boat building. Indeed, all travel was by boat across the vast sounds of eastern NC. Blanche's father, Edgar Marvin Hooper, was a boat-builder turned storekeeper. He and his wife, Caddie Mason Hooper, had three daughters, Blanche, Mae, and Ruby, who remained close all their lives. Blanche, the oldest, was able to go away to school at Louisburg College at age 16. She made a dear school friend there, Ola Dale Wilson, and at 90 years old, they were still chatting on the phone. After Louisburg, Blanche taught school on Hatteras Island for a little while before her marriage to Earl. Essentially, Blanche's life continued to be defined by church and home, though she became a talented businesswoman at several stages of her life.

The church remained the pivotal point for Blanche both in the earlier years when Earl was a lay preacher, and in the years after World War II when he became a full-time pastor. Intensely sociable and always energetic, Blanche was in her element as a minister's wife. What others might have seen as privation, she took as privilege, and cheerfully moved from place to place establishing literally hordes of friends. She was a full partner to Earl, but independently active in church work. From the days of the Epworth League, through stints as Sunday School teacher and Administrative Board member, she was always involved. But the real joy of her life was the Woman's Society, for which she ultimately served as a district president for the Elizabeth City District. Several circles were named for her and she was justifiably proud of her life membership pins, signifying her very high level of service. She continued to teach and speak capably, well into her eighties.

Blanche's family was her other focus. She was survived by two daughters, Ina Meekins Evans of Manteo, and Mary Meekins Beauchamp of Norfolk, VA, having earlier lost a daughter, Lois Meekins Jackson. Blanche gloried in her 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren who survive her. Had she had her way, all would have settled on adjoining lots and visited her daily! She never got enough of it, wanting to cook for and give advice to all her family virtually until her last illness. And her definition of family was liberal - there were many people who knew her through her keen interest in the motel and restaurant business run by her daughter, Ina, and family who also called her Granny, which pleased her greatly. She was luckily able to live in her own home near the restaurant until a stroke in her last year. After that time she was happy to be cared for in the home of daughter, Ina, and her beloved son-in-law, Burwell. She died there peacefully some 10 months later.

Blanche was an independent woman born in an age and place where that was rare. She was spunky, capable, bright, maddeningly strong-willed, utterly friendly, often charming, and persistent as the dickens. Right was right and wrong was wrong, and she never hesitated to tell you her opinion about it. Yet, lively warmth and a genuine interest in others spilled out of her always.

I have a feeling she would have wanted us to remember and portray her as a saintly and somewhat pious Christian, because proper approval always mattered to her in an almost Victorian way. She was indeed an admirable woman, capable of leaving her home and a thriving business behind graciously when her husband decided to become a full-time, radically underpaid itinerant Methodist minister. However, we will actually remember her as something much more complex and less conventional, a strong woman who could exert her will on the world and on her family, who could make a good speech, run a boardinghouse, teach a Bible study, help set a gill net, sew gorgeous dresses fitted from homemade patterns made of newspaper, shoot a fox in her henhouse in the middle of the night, plant a yellow rose bush at each new parsonage so it would feel like home.

And the very best thing she left us was that she affirmed her life to the end, always thinking there might be something worth waiting up for tonight or tomorrow. She left her mark. Indelibly.

ANNE MARIA BULLARD LOY

Anne Bullard Loy was born November 26, 1898, in Robeson County. She was the daughter of the late Robert W. and Rebecca McLean Bullard. She had three sisters, Thelma, Lela, and Juliette, and one brother, Robert. They are all deceased.

Anne was a graduate of East Carolina Teachers College, now East Carolina University. She graduated on June 3, 1929, and she taught school in Rex, Thomasville, Allenton, and Lumberton for a total of more than 35 years.

On March 21, 1954, Anne married the Reverend William Lawrence Loy. She became very active in every church and community in which they lived. She served in all capacities of the United Methodist Women. Proverbs 12:4 says, "A worthy wife is her husband's joy and crown." During her years as a minister's wife, she lived the Christian commitment and shared the ministry wherever Mr. Loy served and preached.

When Lawrence Loy retired in 1956, they served a pastorate for two more years before they moved to their new home in Rowland. Mr. Loy filled many pulpits after his retirement and they remained active in the church. Anne also was active in the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mr. Loy died on June 30, 1961.

Anne spent the last one and one-half years at Wesley Pines in Lumberton. She died there on November 22, 1995, at 1:00 pm just four days before her 97th birthday.

She is survived by three nieces: Rebecca Pate Morris of Maxton, Evelyn Bullard Flack of Greenwood, SC, and Betty Norment Weaver of Wilmington; five nephews: Robert Frank Pate of Rowland, Gilbert Pate of Goldsboro, Bobby Bullard of Monroe, Lee Bullard of Florence, SC, and Charles Norment of Lumberton.

Anne's graveside service was held at the Rowland Cemetery on November 24, 1995, at 11:00 am, conducted by the Reverend John Aycok.

She will be greatly missed by all of her family and friends. "A good name is to be chosen, rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver and gold." (Proverbs 22:1)

LORRAINE LENOR KRONHOLM STONE

James Edmund Magner, Jr., has written that the "end of the artist...should be to bring creation fully into act; to re-sing and heighten the song of creation...And through this further heightening of creation, to bring others to a further realization and participation in it." Lorraine Stone was an artist.

Born in Sigel, WI, on July 9, 1926, she was the daughter of Edward and Mary Kronholm, who owned a dairy farm. After high school graduation, she left home to work in Chicago, IL, her dream of a college degree deferred. In Chicago, she met Amos Henry Stone and was married on November 10, 1945.

In Hyde County, where her husband began his NC Conference ministry with a four-point charge, Lorraine painted with Mildred Gaylord and raised her two daughters. She left with her husband to go to Wilson where her family would grow to include a third daughter and a son. From Wilson she followed her husband's ministry to Fayetteville, Hope Mills, Raleigh, Warsaw, Hertford, and Rowland. In those years as she faithfully served her God, her family, and the Church, she was constantly creating. She was indeed her own cottage industry. She decorated parsonages, sewed designer clothes for her family, hooked and braided rugs, made quilts, needlepointed, refinished antique furniture, designed her own cross stitch and needlepoint patterns, made oak splint and willow baskets, gardened, dried her own flowers and herbs, and made wreaths by the score.

When she wasn't creating, she was teaching, taking Conference and college courses in teaching, and sharing her love of beauty, nature, and the Lord with young children. With a natural gift for teaching, she taught pre-school children and continued to cherish her dream of a college degree.

In 1986 she retired with Amos to Lake Junaluska, where she decided to go back to school. Entering Haywood Community College, she began a course of study that culminated in her receiving a B.A. degree from Western Carolina University on May 6, 1995. Before graduation she received the Ruth Allison Morris Art Award for her monotype, "The Hidden Pope." On June 25, she left for Paris and southern France on an art tour that would bring her face to face with many of the Impressionists she so loved, paintings by Monet, Manet, Van Gogh, Cezanne, Cassatt, Morisot, and Bonnard. In July, she entertained members of her family at a family reunion at Lake Junaluska. On August 20, she was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor, and on the morning of December 14, she died at Village Green Care Center in Fayetteville.

A memorial service led by Reverend Robert Blackburn, Jr., and Reverend Horwood Myers was held on December 17 at Waynesville UMC in Waynesville. This celebration of her life included her husband, three daughters, Susan Henley and Mary Henley of Fayetteville, and Daphne Staggs of Waynesville; one son, Amos Henry Stone, Jr., of Peachtree City, GA; and five grandchildren.

Since her death, the Lorraine K. Stone Scholarship Endowment Fund has been established at the Art Department of WCU for the non-traditional student.

She lived a life of faith. Baptized in the Lutheran Church, she attended a small, old-world church in rural Wisconsin where a huge painting of Jesus walking away from the tomb hung at the altar. It made a lasting impression on Lorraine. "When I didn't understand the sermon, I had the picture to look at." And so a painting preached to a child. And a woman whose life was dedicated to God and lived for God preached to her family and those around her in countless, silent ways. With gentleness, patience, great reservoirs of energy, and an insatiable desire to grow, Lorraine served the Lord and left a lasting legacy of love.

MABEL GERTRUDE BRAND GOODWIN

Mabel Gertrude Brand Goodwin was born January 28, 1909 in Geneva, OH, to Charles Glen and Rose Hickman Brand. She attended public schools where she met her husband-to-be.

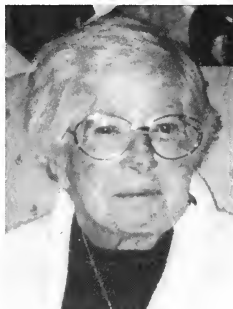

Mother married Reverend Durward Thomas Goodwin on August 2, 1933. They had three children: Charles Randall Goodwin, Ethel Lorraine G. Creech, and Juanita Jeanette G. Chappell.

Though Daddy spent World War II years as a military chaplain, almost 40 years of Mother's married life was as the pastor's wife and partner-in-ministry. Her busy life was filled with all areas of church work, especially the Women's Society of Christian Service, and singing in the choir. She also was a talented seamstress who made most of the clothes that she and her children wore. She was especially devoted to working with the community bloodmobile, and she enjoyed improving every flower garden and yard wherever they lived.

Daddy retired in 1972 and they lived in Columbia until poor health forced them to move to Snow Hill to be close to daughter, Ethel, who took care of them for several years. At every opportunity, they loved to visit with and enjoy their children and grandchildren who were scattered around the country.

Daddy died on March 27, 1994. Mother's health also was not good, so she lived with her children until, after several strokes, she had to go to a nursing home in Farmville.

She died on December 17, 1995. Her funeral was held in Snow Hill where she was buried beside her husband in the Snow Hill Cemetery.

She is survived by her three children: Randall lived in White Plains, MD (deceased 8/22/96); Ethel lives in Snow Hill; and Juanita in Jarvisburg. She also is survived by 10 grandchildren, and 18 great-grandchildren.

LELIA LAURA SHORE COMMANDER

1930 - 1996

Lelia Shore Commander, daughter of William Thomas Shore, Sr., and Willie May Shore, was born May 15, 1930, in Charlotte. She was educated in the Charlotte Public Schools and continued her education at Duke University, majoring in Religion. While a student at Duke, she met Richard (Rick) Thomson Commander who was a student in the Duke Divinity School.

On June 2, 1951, Lelia Shore Commander and Richard Thomson Commander were united in Holy Matrimony at the Duke University Chapel.

As a new bride she accompanied Rick to his first appointment at North Gates in 1951, and there she was by his side as a faithful and devoted helpmate. Her love for the church and devotion continued at Elizabeth City: Riverside; Hamlet: Fellowship; Burlington: Faith; Fayetteville: Camp Ground; Goldsboro: St. Luke; Raleigh: Fairmont; Greenville: District Superintendent; Jacksonville: Trinity; Durham: Duke Memorial; and Carrboro. She was truly a strong and active supporter of her husband's ministry. Together they shared the challenges, opportunities, and joys of the itinerant ministry of The United Methodist Church.

Their marriage was blessed with three children: Suzanne Commander Barwick, Richard (Ricky) T. Commander, Jr., and Mary Kathryn (Kathy) Commander who predeceased her mother. Other family members who were significant to her: Laura Elizabeth Barwick, granddaughter; Jeffrey S. Barwick, son-in-law; Harriett Shore, sister; William T. Shore and Al Shore, brothers.

Following Rick's retirement from active ministry in 1988, they purchased a new home in Morrisville where they continued this new relationship until his death on February 4, 1990.

Lee, as she was affectionately known to her friends, continued to serve her Lord with joy and gladness. She loved her church, family, friends, home and flowers. Her beautifully landscaped yard was a testimony to her great appreciation for flowers.

On January 5, 1996, Lee Commander departed this life at her home following a long and courageous battle with cancer. Her funeral service was conducted on January 11, 1996, at First UMC, Cary, by the Reverends Kermit Braswell, Doug Jessee, and William Green. The Reverends Hope Morgan Ward, Troy Barrett, Barney Davidson, and Earl Richardson witnessed to the congregation their remembrances and appreciation of her life. The choir of First UMC rendered a moving anthem entitled, "The Beatitudes." A solo, "The Lord's Prayer," was sung by the Reverend James Miller. It was the family's request that the same music presented at Rick's service be repeated at her funeral. The Reverend James Miller, who was Rick's roommate at Duke, also sang "The Lord's Prayer" at their wedding. Despite a severe ice storm which necessitated the postponement of her funeral, and still treacherous ice on the ground the day of the funeral, a large number of family and friends gathered for her service.

Burial followed in Raleigh Memorial Park. The Reverend Haywood Smith sang a medley of hymns at the cemetery.

Lee Commander was a faithful servant of Jesus Christ. She fought a good fight; she kept the faith, and she has finished her course. Thanks be to God. Amen.

ORMAH HENDON WOODS JENKINS

Ormah Hendon Woods Jenkins was born October 14, 1906, in Durham, the daughter of William Henry and Emma Bobbitt Woods, and she died on January 9, 1996, in Concord. A graveside service was held on Sunday, January 14 at 2:00 pm on a snow covered hill in Durham's Maplewood Cemetery.

Ormah was the wife of Reverend Theodore Roosevelt Jenkins, a retired member of the NC Conference. Their marriage on August 30, 1928, lasted 67 years, and was an inspiration to all who knew them. Theirs was a deep and abiding friendship and devotion, a lifelong commitment of love to each other and family.

Ormah Jenkins was a partner in ministry with her husband, serving many churches across eastern NC for over 37 years prior to his retirement in 1969. She also was a wonderful school teacher for 36 years. But most of all, she was a devoted and loving mother to their only daughter, Ormah Jeanne Jenkins Boswell of Kannapolis, and "Nannaw" to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Jenkins was a talented lady. Her grandchildren have many happy memories of time spent on and around the piano bench - singing and sometimes just listening - especially during the holidays. And she could grow anything - she and Pawpaw always had the most beautiful roses.

Always a strong and determined person, the last day she could speak to me, she said, "I want the baby to be born today!" (Her fourth great-grandchild was due.) The nurses asked us if she were waiting for something. We knew she was. Two days after Robert Gabriel was born, Nannaw stopped breathing and went to be with God.

Surviving are her husband, the Reverend T. R. Jenkins of Kannapolis; their daughter, Jeanne Jenkins Boswell of Kannapolis; four grandchildren: Debi Canter of Raleigh, Dori Swaringen of Concord, Rob Boswell of China Grove, and Donae Yoos of Concord; and four great-grandchildren: Meghan Canter, Jessica and Parker Swaringen, and Gabriel Boswell.

ESSIE LEWIS STRAWBRIDGE

Essie Lewis Strawbridge survived her husband, Reverend Ishmael Jennings Strawbridge, 10 years to the day. For over 50 years Essie and Ishmael shared a marriage that was filled with love, mutual support, and humor. Nearly 40 years of that were spent in the service of the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church. In both marriage and service to the ministry, they were an inseparable team, each dedicated wholly to the other, and each quite a whole person on their own. At the moment of my grandfather's death on January 12, 1986, Grandmother's first thought was, "I've got to tell Ish." In later conversations with family members, she shared with us the irony of wanting to tell her husband that her husband had died. For her, and us, this story summed up how closely integrated these two souls were.

Essie was born on her father's farm in Wayne County on June 14, 1902. Her parents were William Urban and Calista Ellen Mathis Lewis. She grew up in Durham, where her family moved in her youth. As a young adult, she taught school at Jalong, Walnut Cove, and Newton Grove. She was teaching when she met and married the young minister on December 26, 1928. At that point, her role changed from teacher to minister's wife, which entailed teaching and much more. She helped organize Vacation Bible School, created craft projects for the children of the church, and learned piano to accompany hymns. She and Ish served in 14 locations during the remaining 39 years of my grandfather's ministry, mostly in smaller towns and country circuits. They made many good friends during those appointments, and she recalled them fondly for the rest of her life.

Essie's daughter, Mary Ellen, married Dewey Yarborough. Dewey and Ellen, my parents, raised four children in Winston-Salem. What a treat it was for us when the Strawbridges retired to Winston-Salem in 1967. I'm sure that anyone who has had Sunday dinner at my grandmother's house will understand. In addition to the great food, my grandmother gave us a lot of love and laughter, and a living example of how to be tough in life without being callous. Like so many of her generation, Essie required little and appreciated much.

Essie spent her last few years at Arbor Acres in Winston-Salem. Her grandchildren brought children of their own to visit, and three new great-grandchildren were born during her time at Arbor Acres. She relished time spent with each new child, and, "Let me hold that baby" became her motto.

Essie passed away on January 12, 1996. Her funeral service was led by the Reverend William Medlin at Ardmore UMC in Winston-Salem. Interment was at Forsyth Memorial Park.

"Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever."

MARTHA LAURA EDWARDS BOONE

Waffles and Antiques! Care Taker and Supportive Spouse! Friend and Church Leader! Youth Counselor and Teacher! These are just a few words that describe the full and remarkable life of Laura Boone. When the cabinet appointed us five miles apart (the Boones in their last appointment and we were in our first one), we learned a lot about effective ministry from the pulpit and the parsonage. Friday night suppers with Laura's waffles and Ben's conversation, plus a growing appreciation of their antiques, was the beginning of a friendship that has lasted for 40 years.

A native of Roxboro, Laura was born August 26, 1896, the daughter of Margaret and William Edwards. A graduate of East Carolina Teachers College, she taught in the public school system for a number of years. She met Ben Boone when he was a student pastor in Rougemont, and they were married on November 30, 1916. That was the beginning of a team-ministry that served not only local churches, but influenced many young people in the Youth Summer Assemblies at Louisburg College. Ben and Laura were affectionately known and "Pa and Ma Boone."

Ben's appointments took them to Mebane, Windsor, Whitakers, Pinetops, Pasquotank, East Rockingham, Cary, Zebulon, Fairmont, Jonesboro Heights, St. Pauls, Hookerton, and Pikeville. They built a home in Fairmont when Ben retired. After his death on March 5, 1959, Laura devoted a number of years caring for a handicapped woman in Wilson until she sold her Fairmont home and moved to Durham (and later, in 1982, to the Methodist Retirement Community).

Laura died January 20, 1996 (seven months before celebrating her 100th birthday). Funeral services were held in Trinity Church in Fairmont on January 23 by the Reverends Troy Todd and Robert Moore. Burial was in the Floyd Memorial Cemetery in Fairmont. She is survived by one brother, J. Harry Edwards, and one sister, Nell E. Williams, both of Roxboro.

Laura was gracious, loving, and caring. She loved people and her family. She will always be remembered by those whose lives she touched throughout her long, fruitful, and happy life.

The family received a note from one of Laura's Fairmont friends that sums up so well the life of this servant of God. "Laura was a dear friend who loved life and lived it to the fullest. She discovered and shared her strengths and talents, traits which were uniquely her own. She sought and found that which was beautiful in all people and in all things. Her heart was ever full of love and warm with compassion. With the loss of such a dear friend, I have happy memories as I reflect on one who brought pleasure to so many through her unselfish acts."

NELLIE MAE VEACH HAILEY

Nellie Veach Hailey, 81, died January 27, 1996. The funeral service was held at the Sunset Avenue Chapel of Johnson Funeral Home in Rocky Mount. The Reverend Caswell Shaw, pastor of First UMC in Rocky Mount, and Dr. Thomas A. Collins, retired clergy and former president of NC Wesleyan College, officiated. Burial was beside her husband at Rocky Mount Memorial Park.

Mrs. Hailey is survived by a half-sister, Mrs. Jack Fallin of Madison; several nieces and a nephew, and many close friends.

The daughter of the late Isaac and Hettie L. Veach, she was born May 1, 1914, in Forsythe County, and she grew up to have a nursing career.

On December 8, 1939, she was married to James Russell Hailey, who was a watchmaker in Burlington and who later served in World War II. Upon his discharge from military service, he entered Elon College. While her husband pursued his degree program and ministerial education, Mrs. Hailey was employed as a nurse. For several years, she worked at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, and he served as part-time chaplain for the residents.

Dr. Hailey held appointments at Orange in 1952 and Person in 1954. He attended Duke Divinity School in 1956; Duke University Graduate School in 1959, and was professor and chaplain at NC Wesleyan College in 1961. He pastored several churches while at NC Wesleyan: Red Oak in 1963, Middlesex in 1966, and Mt. Zion in 1967. During this time, Mrs. Hailey joined him in tireless service. Both of them also were very active in civic and community clubs. Dr. Hailey died on December 21, 1975.

Mrs. Hailey continued to work in church and college affairs all her active life. She sang in the First UMC choir in Rocky Mount for many years. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, Lydia #109, and a past Matron, and she was a member of the Tar River Women's Club. She was a retired LPN after working in the local hospital and in private care for many years.

Mrs. Hailey was most interested in the welfare of others, and many will recall the kindnesses shown to them as she touched their lives as nurse, nurturer, caretaker, friend. If help was needed, she dropped everything else, and she was there. This true example of Christianity was found by all who knew her and associated with her.

LOUISE COURTNEY GODWIN POOLE

Louise Godwin Poole was born in Isle of Wight County, VA, near Smithfield on November 21, 1899, the fifth of six children of John Godwin III and Evelyn Matthews Godwin. She was graduated from Isle of Wight High School and the Virginia State Normal School at Farmville, now Longwood College. She taught first in Virginia and then in North Carolina at Stantonsburg, where she met and married the Reverend Ivey Talmage Poole on November 20, 1928, who was a widower with three small daughters. Another daughter and one son were born to this union.

Together, the couple served 10 charges in the NC Conference: Stantonsburg, Jonesboro (now Sanford), Yanceyville, Jackson, Richlands-Jacksonville, Swepsonville, Bailey, Vance, Benson, and Warsaw, before retiring to Durham in 1957.

Mr. Poole died December 17, 1963. In 1966, Mrs. Poole moved back to Smithfield, VA, her home until her death in Suffolk, VA, on February 10, 1996 at age 96.

Funeral services were held February 14 at Uzzell UMC where she was a member as a child and after 1966, with the Reverend John Jones officiating. Burial was in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham the next day with graveside service conducted by the Reverend Frederick Breeden, pastor of Benns UMC at Smithfield, VA, and a granddaughter's husband.

Immediate survivors are her daughter: Evelyn Poole Gorham of Springfield, VA; her son: I. Talmage Poole, Jr., of Smithfield, VA; six grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. Also surviving are a sister-in-law and three nieces.

AN APPRECIATION

Both as a child and a young adult, the Methodist Church was an important influence in my mother's life. She was active in the Uzzell ME Church, serving as a Sunday School teacher and in the choir, and worked with her father to organize Sunday Schools in neighboring rural churches.

At her marriage she became the mother of three small daughters, Medora, Adeline, and Mary. A woman of tireless energy, Mother was never too busy to help with homework, to give birthday parties, and to serve as a school room mother, as well as to participate extensively in the activities of the churches she and my father served.

In every church she worked as a Sunday School teacher, sang in the choir, was active in Ladies Aid, organized and directed youth choirs, taught in Vacation Bible Schools, and in one charge organized a Women's Society of Christian Service. In the larger community she often directed musical programs, and helped with planning high school graduation exercises.

Mother had a great love of people in all walks of life. Over the years, we had many "dinner guests" who had nowhere else to go. Even at my Father's last charge, we had a homeless man for Christmas dinner, and with the help of another minister, secured lodging for him as all of our beds were in use.

After returning to Smithfield, Mother was able to devote more time to her grandchildren. She was a terrific grandmother, making pallets on the living room floor for their indoor "camp-outs," applauding their many "theatric endeavors," and taking them on their first fishing trips. She lived to attend the marriages of four grandchildren, and to rock eight great-grandchildren.

Mother also had a strong faith and tremendous courage in the face of adversity. My step-sisters, Medora and Adeline, died before I reached high school; only my step-sister Mary lived to raise a family, and she too died prematurely, six years ago.

In her eighties and nineties, Mother devoted most of her time and energy to caring for my brother, Talmage, who is confined to a wheelchair with MS. Until two years ago, she kept house and looked after a near-invalid with no other help than for weekly housecleaning.

Mother's love for people, for her church, and for her God spanned almost a century. She was truly a remarkable person.

MARY BELL DOUGLAS McCALLUM

1908 - 1996

On March 17, 1996, Sister Mary Bell Douglas McCallum, answered God's call to come home. She departed this life at Scotland Memorial Hospital in Laurinburg after a recent illness, and an extended stay at Edwin Morgan Center in Laurinburg.

The celebration of her homegoing was held at Piney Grove UMC in Maxton with Reverend Robert A. Fairley, officiating. Interment was at the Piney Grove Church Cemetery. A special tribute was written by her niece, Blondell McIntyre:

FINALLY

The time has finally come for you to say good-bye.

You lived a long and beautiful life, you've earned your wings to fly.

Fly away to glory, the place you longed to be.

Where your mother, father, sisters & brothers await for you to complete the family tree.

So sleep on Aunt Mary, take your rest.

We loved you, but God loved you best.

Better known by many of her family as "Pal," she was born July 19, 1908 in Robeson County to the late Archie and Caroline McRae Douglas, and she was the last surviving child of the legacy of Archie and Caroline McRae Douglas.

Pal received her education from the public schools of Robeson County and Robeson Community College. She was joined in holy matrimony to the late Reverend Jefferson McCallum who spent more than 40 years in active ministry and, following retirement, assisting in the ministry of the church. He preceded her in death on August 18, 1970.

Mrs. McCallum's church affiliation began at an early age at Piney Grove UMC in Maxton. Throughout her good health, she was a faithful member, and during her membership she served in the following areas: Piney Grove UMW, Sunday school musician, Piney Grove Senior Choir, Pastor-Parish Relations, and many other committees within the church.

Her community affiliations included membership in the Bonney Memorial Tent #375, and her last employment position was in the Housekeeping Department of Scotland Memorial Hospital in Laurinburg.

Mary was a loving wife, sister, aunt, and cousin, with a friendly personality. She especially enjoyed traveling, meeting people, playing the piano, and singing. She lived a long fruitful life, and she will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

To cherish her memories, she leaves two sisters-in-law: Wilhelmina McCallum of Fayetteville, and Doretha Douglas Christian of Maxton; several nephews, nieces, and a host of cousins and friends.

FRANKIE JANE BAREFOOT CONNOR

Frankie Jane Barefoot Connor, 72, of Wilmington, died May 22, 1996 of complications from pneumonia, having never recovered from a severe stroke in 1991 which left her disabled.

She was born on June 26, 1923 in Columbus County, the daughter of the late Clarence and Nettie Clemmons Barefoot. She was a former nurse in the Fayetteville and Clinton Hospitals, and the Cape Fear Memorial Hospital in Wilmington. She was the widow of the late Reverend William Oliver Connor, who had been an elder in the NC Conference of The UMC.

Funeral services were conducted at Peacock's Chapel in The Pines at Whiteville. Interment was beside her husband in the Pierce Cemetery.

Frankie is survived by a daughter, Elizabeth Connor Pope of Charlotte; a grandson, Eric Sloan Pope of Wilmington; three great-grandchildren, Erica, Brandi, and Jason Eford of Charlotte; three sisters, Helen Pope and Letha Pope, both of Hallsboro, and Margie Wooten of Clarkton; and a brother, Howard Barefoot of Port Clinton, OH. She also was preceded in death by a son, Charles Richard Connor, and a granddaughter, Deidra Denise Davis.

My mother and father met while he was working in business in Whiteville and they were married on March 23, 1941. I feel they both responded to God's call to the ministry because it was together that they went on to serve many eastern NC churches: Mattamuskeet, Warren Circuit, Goldsboro: Salem, Salemburg, Ebenezer-Westwood, North Gates, Lumberton Circuit, Fayetteville: Asbury, Roberdel, Bethel, Bonlee, Garland, and Harrells. They lived the best example of what it means to be a Christian, the kind many of us strive to become. And over the years, Mother received many compliments for her good cooking as well as her church work.

Poor health required my father's retirement in 1976 and their life slowed down, but their love and devotion for friends and family remained. When my father died on August 7, 1993, they had ministered together to a host of God's children for over 52 years.

Mother, even to the very end of her life, always thought of others first, therefore always putting herself last. She was so kind and such a gentle lady. She was the most wonderful mother any child could ask for, and she loved her family. When she was in Charlotte with me, for I kept her at home and cared for her as long as I could, her grandson and great-grandchildren would visit her often. They took part in her care, and she was happiest when they were around. Erica, 16 now, has a beautiful singing voice, and Mother loved to hear her sing. She seemed to realize every moment with them was precious, and too soon to be the last. Though we will miss her here, what a joyous celebration she will have in heaven to be again with those loved ones who went before her.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1995, and the related statements of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Conference does not compute the cost of postretirement benefits other than pensions nor disclose certain information regarding such costs as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 106 ("SFAS 106") issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. Rather, the Conference's policy is to expense such costs as incurred. The effects on the financial statements of these matters are not reasonably determinable.

In our opinion, except for the effects of not recording the postretirement benefits other than pensions in accordance with SFAS 106 as discussed in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1995, and its revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Conference is the fundamental body of the United Methodist Church which under Episcopal leadership provides the mechanism for admitting and ordaining clergy, appointing itinerant pastors to churches, and supplying them with mutual support. The Conference is composed of ministerial and lay members and other individuals as required in "The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church" which in an annual meeting defines the programs and responsibilities of the Church as a whole. Included within this report are all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Investments: Investments are recorded in the financial statements at the lower of aggregate cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined using the specific-identification method.

Property and equipment: Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, estimated historical costs were used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Estimates: In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Other accounting policies: The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Changes in Net Assets will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds are invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 1995 was $1,502,000. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 3. Investments

Investments are comprised of the following

	Cost	Market
Certificates of deposit	$ 1,429,642	$ 1,429,642
GBOP Superannuate Endowment Fund	109,348	109,348
Investment in United Methodist Foundation, Inc	20,928,904	28,205,452
Other	876	1,122
	$ 22,468,770	$ 29,745,564

The Conference's investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc represents approximately 63 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $45,000,000 at December 31, 1995 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 4. Property and Equipment

A summary of property and equipment is as follows

Land and land improvements	$ 959,332
Buildings and building improvements	4,089,440
Furniture and equipment	1,296,716
Construction in progress, camps	11,965
	6,357,453
Less accumulated depreciation	2,192,450
	$ 4,165,003

Depreciation expense for the year ended December 31, 1995 was $280,730

Note 5. Other Assets

Other assets consist of the following

Loans to Churches	$ 393,466
Interest receivable on loans to Churches	11,588
Inventory	6,670
Church properties and donated land held for resale	547,880
Other	15,388

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981, the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy as follows for all service after December 31, 1981

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under Episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1995 is based on 12% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. Funding is based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for the defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 1996, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $345 was $27,664,579. Current expense for prior service liability was $2,174,860. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.: The United Methodist Foundation, Inc was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Included in accounts receivable is $307,018 due from the Foundation.

Board of Missions, Inc.: The Board of Missions, Inc was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to Churches established in Eastern North Carolina. The net amount due from the Board is $67,763.

Note 8. Contingent Liabilities

The Conference has been named as a defendant in a legal action which is being vigorously defended. In management's opinion, the ultimate resolution of this action will not have a materially adverse effect on the Conference's financial position.

Note 9. Restatement of Net Assets

Effective January 1, 1995, the Conference changed its basis of accounting from the modified cash basis of accounting to generally accepted accounting principles. As a result of this change in the basis of accounting, net assets were decreased by $560,212 from amounts previously reported in the 1994 financial statements.

Note 10. Future Reporting Requirement

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued SFAS No. 124, Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-For-Profit Organizations, which the Conference has not been required to adopt as of December 31, 1995. The statement, which will be in effect for the Conference's fiscal year beginning January 1, 1996, will require that the Conference report any investment in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in the statement of activities. In addition, the statement will require certain other disclosures, including the return on those investments. The statement can be adopted by either restating all prior year statements presented or by recognizing the cumulative effect of the change in the year of adoption. The statement will require fair value reporting for the Conference's portfolio debt securities or equity securities with readily determinable fair values.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Unitholders and the Board of Directors of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc as of December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets of United Methodist Foundation, Inc as of December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the results of its operations for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations United Methodist Foundation, Inc was established in 1955 by the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to provide a management-investment pool for long-term and permanent funds of the North Carolina Conference and of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the Church and to encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and special ministries of The United Methodist Church and to assist donors in placing their gifts

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows

Valuation of securities Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Short-term investments are stated at market value. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

General The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1995 and 1994 were as follows:

	1995	1994
Cost of purchases
Short-term investments	$ 22,630,299	$ 24,127,524
Other securities	21,986,617	18,910,276
	$ 44,616,916	$ 43,037,800
Proceeds from sale
Short-term investments	$ 23,221,619	21,455,934
Other securities	22,359,293	18,216,643

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

In 1994, the Foundation established a separate Real Estate fund for a donation of an apartment dwelling in an irrevocable charitable remainder trust. Net income from the fund is to be paid to the trust recipient until death of the recipient occurs.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and fund balance.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $2.03 at December 31, 1995 and $1.76 at December 31, 1994.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

Note 7. Donated Services

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. receives accounting services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 8. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value for all real estate mortgage loans has been estimated by discounting the projected cash flows at December 31, 1995 and 1994 using the current rate at which similar loans would be made to borrowers with similar credit ratings. The fair value of such loans approximates the carrying value.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Estimates In preparing its financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the date of the balance sheet and statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in net assets for the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined on a specific-identification basis.

Property Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. Depreciation of buildings is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives.

Note 2. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value for all mortgage loans and notes receivable has been estimated by discounting the projected cash flows at December 31, 1995 and 1994 using the current rates at which similar loans would be made to borrowers with similar credit ratings. The fair value of such mortgage loans and notes receivable approximates their carrying values.

Note 3. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market values as of December 31, 1995 and 1994 were as follows:

	1995	1994
Market value	409,961	713,366

During the year ended December 31, 1994, investments were written down to market and the resulting charge to the statement of revenues, expenses or distributions amounted to $3,422.

The Board of Missions investment in the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. represents approximately 1 percent of the equity of the Foundation. The Foundation's net assets were approximately $45,000,000 at December 31, 1995 and consisted primarily of common stocks, fixed income securities and real estate mortgage loans.

Note 4. Property

A summary of property is as follows:

	1995	1994
Undeveloped land	$ 862,695	$ 882,335
Land	340,845	340,845
Buildings	85,210	85,210
	1,288,750	1,308,390
Less accumulated depreciation	9,586	7,456

Note 5. Notes Payable

Line of credit During 1991, the Board of Missions entered into a one-year financing agreement with a bank to borrow up to $1,000,000, subject to review and renewal annually. The agreement was renewed in 1993. The agreement was modified and renewed during 1994 to borrow up to $500,000. This agreement is collateralized by deeds of trust on certain real property located in eastern North Carolina and by various loans receivable.

These funds are to be utilized by the Board of Missions for the specific purposes of granting loans to churches for building programs and acquiring undeveloped land for future church sites. The bank must approve the use of the loan proceeds which the Board distributes.

At December 31, 1995 and 1994, there were no balances outstanding under this line of credit.

Note payable In addition, in 1991 the Board issued a note payable with a face amount of $350,000, collateralized by property in the Fayetteville district with a carrying value of $416,469 at December 31, 1995. The note is due in six annual installments plus interest at the rate of 8% per annum.

At December 31, 1995 and 1994, the unpaid balance on the note payable was $16,812 and $92,418, respectively. The aggregate maturity during 1996 is $16,812.

Because the borrowing rates currently available to the Board approximate the terms and average maturities of the existing debt of the Board, the fair value of the note payable is assumed to be its carrying value.

Note 6. Donated Services

The Board of Missions receives all management and administrative services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 7. Commitments

As of December 31, 1995, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $970,000 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.

Note 8. Future Reporting Requirement

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued SFAS No. 124, Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-For-Profit Organizations, which the Board has not been required to adopt as of December 31, 1995. The statement, which will be in effect for the Board's fiscal year beginning January 1, 1996, will require that the Board report any investment in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in the statement of revenues, expenses or distributions and net assets. In addition, the statement will require certain other disclosures, including the return on those investments. The statement can be adopted by either restating all prior year statements presented or by recognizing the cumulative effect of the change in the year of adoption. The statement will require fair value reporting for the Board's portfolio debt or equity securities with readily determinable fair values.
